Chapter 155

Devil

“ “ “ “De... Devil...! “ “ “ “ (Red Oath) The 4 girls thought that the suspicious men were definitely beastkins, but suddenly understood that their opponent was devils, [Red Oath] were surprised.

“You!? did you already know that we are Devils!?” (Devil) Thinking that their identities were already known beforehand, the devils who turned their hoods down, were also surprised.

“No, I’m sorry! But It’s true that I didn’t try to deceive you...” (Mile) And Mile apologetic scratched her head.

“Anyway, could you tell me about your circumstances? Well, I already have a rough idea though...” (Mile) So Mile said, and of course the Devils wouldn’t just listen obediently.

“Don’t be silly! You are the one must tell us everything you know! Catch ‘em all!” (Devil Leader) The leader of the evil group commanded his companions to do so.

Last time, before meeting the ancient dragons, because the girls thought that their opponent was the devils, they were ready their heart.

But this time, on the contrary, the [Red Oath] girls weren’t ready their heart yet because they all thought that the opponent was the beastkins.

A sudden fight with the Devils.

Um, the strength of the Devil was exceeding human common sense that only appeared in legend and fairy tale.

The [Red Oath] thought that they can't win, as best they can have a draw, but of course Mile didn't think so.

“Everyone, there is no need to be so afraid! The Devil that appears in the story is equivalent to a human's hero, that is just an exaggerated figure, it actually doesn't exist.

The hero that often appears in legends and fairy is really powerful, but in fact he is the same, just an exaggerated figure.

Devil is actually only a humanoid tribe that has physical ability inferior to a beastkin, a magical power inferior to an elf, and robustness inferior to a dwarf!” (Mile) Then Pauline muttered in a blatant way when Rena and Maevis slightly regained some confident from Mile's words.

“...But, aren't they still exceeding the human in all aspects?” (Pauline) Rena and Maevis's face became pale again.

“Please do not say unnecessary thing at such times!” (Mile) Mile retorts back to Pauline.

(This is bad! If we have an all out battle with 4 vs 4, there's a possibility that someone will get serious injury, or possibly dead...

I believe in the power of everyone but it might happen in an unlikely event. On the contrary, both parties have no room to hold back, someone may cause fatal injury to the other party... Something, a nice way to settle this... That's it!) (Mile) Mile jumped to that plan that came into her mind. "Please wait!" (Mile) Heard Mile's words, the devils stopped walking.

"What? Did you give up and feel like surrender?"

(Devil leader) Mile shook her head to the Devil leader.

"No. But if we start a brawl like this, don't you think it's not beautiful at all?" (Mile) " " " " " " "Ha ha ah ah?" " " " " " " (4 Devils + 3 Red Oath) The voice of everyone except Mile was in harmony.

"Eh... , it's not beautiful...?" (Rena) "What do you mean?" (Maevis)

Even Rena and Mavis weren't picked up.

"What in the world is she saying, this girl?" (Devil leader) The Devil leader asked Maevis, but of course she couldn't answer. "Team battle, and it will be a 4-person take turn to fight!" (Mile) Everyone was dumbfound even after hearing that.

"Would it be okay if everyone is distracted only by their own battle, and you can't watch other fights, don't you think it's too bad?" (Mile) They seemed to like battle, two of the Devils nodded.

"Therefore, we will fight with each other by fighting one by one, and others will watch without interfering.

And we will have totally 4 battle, the side that win 3 times won, the other side lost and will surrender obediently.

If we draw with 2 win to 2 lose, both of us will be winner, and will all cease fight, discussing as equal.

So, how do you think?"

(Mile) "...Wait a moment"

(Devil Leader) As he saying so, the Devil leader started consulting within his group. "That's a nice thing, so we have no objection"

(Devil leader) Probably, this is how devil men supposed to behave with a opponent like little girls, human or devil is the same... Beside, it's entertainment instead of boring thing.

On the [Red Oath] side, when business isn't involved with common sense or bargaining with the other party, it's often left to Mile in the beginning, the girls don't have any objections.

So, it has been decided.

“Looks like we all have a agreement”

“So we will go in order: Senpo Pauline-san, Jihou Rena-san, Fukushou Maevis-san and Taishou is me” (Mile) (Kendo's roles: Senpou: 1st player or vanguard Jihou: The second player Fukushou: 4th player or team vice captain Taishou: Team Captain, and last in line) (T.N: For easy to understand, I will keep using player instead of people or devil for these chapters) Mile used the tactic that the stronger comes later. Perhaps, it was also the same with the devils.

Depending on circumstances, purposely strike, they might place stronger one first and the weak one as captain like: 3rd strongest one vs vanguard, 2nd strongest vs 2nd player strogest vs vice captain, aim for the 3 wins and avoid the match of the weakest as the captain vs other team captain.

There is a way like that, but Devil side won't take such a way, Mile could feel it.

“Mi... Mile, is it really okay to make me vice captain... Isn't Rena or Pauline much better than me?” (Maevis) Mile smiled at Maevis that seems uneasy.

“It's okay, I believe Maevis-san definitely will not lose! Because Maevis is [the person who follow the path of knight]!” (Mile) “I... I see. Yes, that's right!” (Maevis)

Maevis tightened her expression, and then laughed, the edge of her mouth raised.

As for observers, if they judge that their team's player is in danger, they will be able to declare the end of the match and prevent the attack of player from the opponent team, but in that case, it will be their lost. Everyone decided the rules before the fight.

Yes, this is Mile's purpose. With this, both sides can win without serious injuries or death.

Even if the girls are defeated in the group battle itself, there's nothing to worry.

As long as nobody dies and ends without being seriously injured. They can just honestly say that [We have received an investigation request] and even if she girls need to talk about the last time, there's nothing worth mention. There is no loss.

And even with this request, it will probably be regarded a success simply by bringing back information that [the opponent is the Devils, their purpose is investigation]

Furthermore, if the human side already knows about the investigation of the Devils and the beastkin by the instructions of the Ancient dragon, there's no reason for the devils to keep Mile's group as prisoners. They will be released after the talk ends.

If the devils won't release the girls, then the girls can just run away at that time.

Because it's [We ran away after being caught], that also mean they didn't break their promise.

Round 1: Pauline facing a devil man that can be seen around 30 years old in a sprawly place of the rocky mountain.

Even he seems to be about 30 years old. Mile can't really judge his real age because Devil race is also a long-lived race like elf.

Spectators from both Mile's side and Devil's side had been lumping together. If everyone disperses, it will be hard to speak or declare during watching, and it's also some kind of information gathering.

And the devil man who got hit by Mile's penetrating bullet was healed by another Devil in the group. His wound was already healed by healing magic, and he could join the watch group. Although the would has been closed, he wouldn't be able to fight with full power for a while.

And Mile shouted from the watching place. “Round 1. Get ready! Fight!” (Mile) “Ice Javelin!”

(Pauline) “Earth Wall!” (Devil 1)

The Devil prevented Pauline's ice javelin attack by raising a rock wall from the ground. In order to prevent physical attacks by real ice, he must use a physical wall, not magic shield.

Regard of the soil, to cast that magic at rocky place requires considerable magical power and talent. And just like Pauline, he only need to speak the magic name without spell casting, that is a speed cast that Devil can do easily.

“..... , Ice Needle!” (Pauline)

This time Pauline used silent cast with low voice and releasing attack magic again, but all the ice needles with small mass were blown off by wind magic and prevented.

“.....” (Devil 1) And then Pauline stopped attacking, there was no appearance of casting another spells or attacks at all. The Devil man was slowly approaching and spoke.

“It is useless, with the magic power of a little human girl, you can't reach us, and our magic can go through your magic defense easily. How about surrender now? If you do that, you won't get hurt in vain” (Devil 1) Pauline shook her head to the Devil.

Certainly, if she received the powerful attack magic of a Devil, her magic defense would be easily broken. Yes, [If she takes the attacks head-on]

“It can't be help, I will decide with a single shot so that you will not get hurt as much as possible” (Devil 1) A Devil shook his body and held out his right hand, and even when he entered into a position to release magic, there was no sign of Mile intervening.

And when he tried to release attack magic.

“Water, cling to his limbs, Frozen Freedom... haaa!” (Pauline) Suddenly, the Devil had such unbelievable, stunning expression, no he even broke sweat out of the body.

“Aaaaaaa!” (Devil 1) And then, he held his ass, rolling on the floor.

The first time Pauline’s magic attack was really prevented.

And the second time even her Ice Neeles seemed like they were prevented easily. That made the Devil thought she could not do anything.

Actually... Pauline couldn’t have been that weak.

The second time, she silent cast small-scale hot magic to melt the Ice Needles, pretending that she was unable to do anything. Secretly created water on the ground, that cling to her opponent’s feet as he approached.

Pauline also put it on a very weak air current and lifted the water droplet from the pants’ hem to the sensitive, mucosal part.

“Wha... It’s hurt, what’s happening...” (Devil 1) The Devil group that watching also panicked. However, they couldn’t just decide to intervene and declare defeat while thinking their friend just got hurt and rolling while crying.

And Pauline started the next chant.

“Ice blade, penetrate the enemy’s heart! Ice...”

(Pauline) “Surrender! We surrender, this round is over !!” (Devil leader) Heard the chanting, with too much for a prank and the leaders of the Devil group ended the match in a hurry and made a declaration of defeat.

(It’s enough to win if we win the remaining 3 times...) (Devil Leader) Even though he thought so, the Devil leader couldn’t suppress his unpleasant premonition.

Chapter 156

Group War Super Fun

Round 1: Senpou (Vanguard) Battle, the winner [Red Oath] team, Pauline Round 2: Rena vs Devil young man (Shounen) that was about 12-13 years old.

Just like before, even though the devil young man looks as young as Rena but the girls don't know how his real age. Speaking of which Rena's actual age is also 16 but looks younger.

They confront each other, only the looks look like the same age. Both are magic specialist rather than sword or martial arts.

“Fire Lance!” (Devil Shounen) This time, it was a preemptive strike from the devil shounen.

It seems like he was wary of Rena after the previous miserable battle. “Barrier!” (Rena) Rena's barrier got enhanced by Mile, was more powerful than the average one. Therefore, no matter how much strong the demon magic attacks, it can't be broken so easily.

“What...” (Devil Shounen)

The Devil young man was shocked because his attack was easily prevented by a human little girl.

“Flame Explosion!” (Rena) “Magical barriers!” (Devil Shounen) This time, the Devil young man prevented Rena's attack.

“Flare Storm!” (Devil

(Rena) “Hell Fire!” (Ifrit

Rena) “Barrier!” (Devil

shounen) Although mutual attacks are coming from both side,

not even one of the attacks can pass through the opponent’s magic defense. As long as they can’t hit, they can’t win.

However, if they kept this up, it would be disadvantage for Rena, who is inferior in magical power amount.

And then after several times when it became the Rena’s turn to attack, Rena didn’t cast magic, and ran toward the Devil young man with full power. “Huh...!?” (Devil shounen) The Devil young man was surprised for a moment after seeing unexpected scene, but he soon regained calm.

“Judging that the enemy didn’t prepare any magic, did she plan to have close combat with staff...

But I am a devil! Even though Magic is my specialty, but I still have the minimum of pole fighting technique, as least that won’t lose to pole fighting technique of a human girl who is specialized in the same magic as me...” (Devil Shounen) As he said those words, he saw Rena still ran toward him while throw away the staff on the ground, and he became even more confused.

“Huh...?” (Devil Shounen)

(T.N: This part look like the Devil Shounen's POV) [Just before melee battle, she let go of her weapon? I don't know the purpose, I can't understand.

A bare-hand human girl, and a magician who doesn't train herself with fighting arts. Whether beaten by fists or strangled by lock, I can't imagine that a devil with robust body like me will lose.]

The young man's reaction was delayed by mental leeway and confusion.

And further hesitant to knock down a weak human little girl who doesn't have weapon on hand, and Rena has bound the movement of his body.

Gyu~! (Hugging SFX)

“Huh...!?” (Devil shounen)

When he noticed, the devil young man was hugged tightly by Rena from front. A soft feeling that touches his chest.

(is this soft feeling...) (Devil shounen)

The young man has no history with equal age female, he has never touched any girl other than his sister, he was blushed in spite of being hugged by a girl.

And, sweet smell of girl tickling his nostrils...

When his head turned white, he heard the girl's voice in his ear. “Suicide bomb magic, Megaten!”

(Rena) Huh!?

“Aaaaaaa!” (Devil Shounen) The swirling flames wrapped up the two bodies.

“Ba... barriers! Magic... barriers...!” (Devil Shounen) Desperately, the young man tried to cast a magic barriers.

Even so in this world, the barrier has been either stretched like a wall between the caster and the opponent, or stretch it in a hemispherical shape.

Yes, there's never such a way to protect the caster in such a close contact state. So, the barriers that stretched out took shape, including Rena and her flame magic in it. It's meaningless.

Rena, on the other hand, under the guidance of Mile, had repeatedly trained to build a barrier in a form closely attached to her own body, and it's natural that the flame that is emitted by her own will not harm herself. She had been taught by Mile after all.

And because Rena mastered every requirement, Mile taught Rena this deadly technique, "Suicide bomb magic, Megaten!"

A wonder magic that binds your opponent with your own body, and your opponent is the only one to take damage.

Of course, the nominee was Mile. "Aaaaaaa~~!!"

(Devil Shounen) There is no magic barrier effect, and the Devil young man just keeps screaming.

"Sto... stop it! Stop it!"

(Devil Leader) A Devil leader was coming over to the two with a desperate look, he didn't care about the flames and peeled off the two.

The other two devils continually cast water magic in a hurry and keep applying the water current to the two burning.

One of them survived with the pain of injuries not completely cured.

Because Rena was pulled away, the fire on his clothes quickly disappeared meanwhile the other devils continue to cast curative magic.

“Because of you interfered and pulled me out, It’s my win” (Rena) There was no Devils denying Rena.

“Round 3: Vice captain battle, get ready” (Mile) With the declaration of Mile, the Devil leader had a bitter face.

(This Part looks like the Devil leader's POV) It was natural that he had a bitter face.

Anyway, there's no victory for the devil side already.

After this, even if they win the last 2 battles, 2 wins and 2 losses, it's a draw. And if by chance, they lose even 1 more, it will be their defeat.

They are demons with important duties, they were the chosen one, and now they lose to some lolis.

They will never hear the end of it. It's a shameful display, a black history of a lifetime.

The defeated two managed to recover somehow thanks to the robustness of the demons and healing magic.

The first fight devil managed to recover, thanks to the way Mile spelled the magic of decomposing pungent ingredients.

As for the Devil young man, even though the burns and the mucous membranes were recovered somehow, but the wounds of his heart seemed quite serious...

[For the time being, we should watch the match. I mean, we will be doing it seriously. It will be a study for the future and if we don't watch the match seriously, it will be annoying after we lost and stayed in the corner crying.

Well, if a mage is talented, their age doesn't matter. But martial arts doesn't work that way.

Since the last two are swordsmen, we can manager somehow.] The Devil leader thought so.

Yes, as most devil thought so.

“Leader of [Red oath], swordsman Maevis Von Austin, here I go!” (Maevis) “Swordsman, Reltbad (レルトバード: Rerutoba do), here I go!” (Reltbad)

Even if he is a devil, not every devil is a magician.

Just like some of the beastkins are good at magic, some of the devils aren't good at magic.

They are usually swordsmen, spearmen in the vanguard and archers of the rearguard.

And this devil swordsman, Reltbad is such devil, with the physical ability of the demon superior to a human being has made him a formidable devil.

“True Godspeed Sword!” (Maevis)

With the godspeed sword, the speed is only a little above B rank, or at most is about a weak A rank hunter. Then, it's no wonder that it won't be able to fight with the devil swordsman.

However, she can still have a chance if it is a true godspeed sword, it will be as fast as superior A ranked hunter. Enough for she to fight equally with her older brothers.

Maevis
thought so.

Kiin! (SFX)

Gakiin, Kiin, Kiin! (SFX)

After a few attacks, Maevis understood it right away.

(...It is useless, it isn't working! I was being toyed!) (Maevis) Maevis wasn't a type that confidence about herself, because for her mates were like that.

And now is the time to use it.

One capsule was taken out from her pocket.

Then Maevis opened the lid and muttered the word of prayer to increase effect. “Please, Micros!” (Maevis)

Meavis drank the contents at once, cried out loud to the Devil
Swordsman Reltbad. “Here I go again! Ex True Godspeed Sword!”
(Maevis)

Chapter 157

Mevis von Austin

“Do you think that the difference in the race, the difference between men and women, and the difference in the years spent training can be managed with something like a stimulant or something?”

Although as a young human girl, you are really good. But even if you to rely on drugs you still can't win. After all, that's the limit of what a human can do...” (Reltbad) The Devil swordman Reltbad readied his sword as he looked at Maevis and said. “Boring. Now come! Let's finish this quickly!” (Reltbad) And then Maevis.

“Ex · True · Godspeed sword, 1.4 times

Haaaaaaaa!” (Maevis) Hi~yun (SFX) “What...!?”

(Reltbad) Gaki~i! (SFX) Gi~n (SFX) Ki~in!

(SFX) Kin kin Ki~in! (SFX) “Impossible! She is faster than me! Human, she is such a young girl!

How can this be possible?” (Reltbad) Reltbad lost his calm.

That was natural. He is a demon, who chose the path of the sword and not magic. He has been practicing for many years, with confidence and pride in his technique. However all this effort doesn't reach a weak human girl right now that is not even 20 years old yet.

He couldn't believe. And he could not forgive that.

However, each time their swords clashed he realizes this is reality. "Ooooooooooooo!" (Reltbad) If his power couldn't compare to her, he could just overwhelm with his power of slashing.

If he did so, her stance will be broken and the next action will be disturbed. He thought so, and used his full power to make a full-swing.

"...Impossible!" (Reltbad)

However it was Reltbad who was lost in power and broken his stance as he was pushed back.

"Why! Why can you move faster than me, and your attack is heavier than me! You are but a weak human girl who hasn't even lived for 20 years! Whyyyyyyyyy?" (Reltbad) Maevis quietly answered to Reltbad's shouting. Yes, as usual, the dialogue that Mile told her to say in decision time.

"Why? Because my heart is burning!" (Maevis) "Damn ittttt!" (Reltbad) At that moment, Reltbad thought that his swordsman enthusiasm was a mistake.

As they already had two defeats, they must definitely win. Priority was given to the duty as a demon than to hold the pride as a swordsman. Besides, the stigma such as a three consecutive defeat by human girls is much greater.

And the depressed Reltbad released magic with abbreviation casting.

(Reltbad) “Ku~!”

(Maevis)

prevent by the fire ball and her stance was broken.

Somehow Maevis can avoid it but right now she was overwhelmingly disadvantaged.

“Although I chose the way of the sword it didn’t mean that I was unable to use magic. Yes... it’s true that I’m not very good at it. If I could, I wanted to fight with sword. I also think that using magic in a sword fight is shameful. However, there are times that I must win even I must throw away my pride” (Reltbad) As he was saying that, Reltbad casted fire balls and slashed alternately.

Apparently, it must be quite difficult to simultaneously cast magic and slash with sword.

However, he did it, with many attacks coming, there was no margin for Mavis to fight back and she was in a state of pinch. If this kept up, Maevis’s defeat would be only matter of time.

(T.N: Maevis POV) (Think about it, think, Maevis Von Austin!

How can I win? Should I drink another [Micros]?

No, even if my speed and power raise more, it’s still difficult to counterattack if I must deal with both magic and sword.

And if I use 2 [Micros] for strengthening my physical ability then it will be just like with the Ancient Dragon battle, my body will not be able to keep up with my power and speed.

Something, anything...) (Maevis)

And Maevis recalled her past conversations with Mile. Yes, a terrible idea from Mile.

Right now, it was common sense of the [Red Oath] that if they want to keep up with Mile, they must discard their common sense.

And like conversation before death, the past conversation with Mile appeared in Maevis's head at a tremendous speed.

The muscles are strengthened with the power of mind. The pain is just a danger signal. So, if you already understood it! You can ignore it by saying [Let's make shelves in the heart!]

No, that's not it...

Speed is the torque force to improve the power. A cat is nice, isn't it? No, that's not it either...

Did you know about internal Qigong and external Qigong? Dragon Breath, is it magic or is it kind of Qigong...?

That's it! !

I can't use magic, but I can manipulate the power of mind to a certain extent. Then!

And, Maevis leaped backward and stopped attacking temporarily. As Reltbad saw that, he also stopped attacking.

"What? did you feel like giving up and surrender?" (Reltbad) "You should only sleep-talk only when you sleep, and don't you think it's still early?" (Maevis) With a smile, Maevis said so to Reltbad, she took out two capsules from the pocket and opened the lid.

"I'm begging you, Micros!"

(Maevis) As she said so, she drank the contents.

When Mile saw it, she said something for a moment but returned to the position of watching as before.

Last time she preached for about 3 hours. And Maevis was seriously crying. So for now she decided to believe in Maevis.

“Is it also a stimulant?”

That kind of thing doesn’t improve your effect even if you drink more, and using it too much will destroy the balance between your mind and body, causing self-destruction” (Reltbad) Maevis didn’t hear Reltbad’s words.

In her head, it was filled with Qigong artillery.

(I can shoot it, Qi bullet. Fire [火: Hi], Flame [焰: Homura], Flame [炎: Hono]. I am a flame user. I’m the human that controls fire!) (Maevis) And Maevis can feel the heat in her body.

[Emergency situation occurred! I repeat, Emergency situation occurred! High heat source detected in the abdomen; energy rapidly rising! It will be suicide in this state!

All personnel performing the heating act should immediately move to the center of the stomach! Other personnel form a shield along the stomach wall and the body to protect!] (Nano machine) They were selected with a special role to be used in important times. But when their actions themselves would harm the magical exerciser, and kill them, that would be against the nanomachine’s mission! They must protect the body with whatever it take!

(I and flame are equal. I am a flame. The flame is me. Oh burning flame, be my will!) (Maevis) Maevis changed the way calling herself from [Watashi] to [Wa] because it seemed to be a [powerful language]

But then again, wouldn’t a better to choose the strongest word? For example, like the Empress...

[From the esophagus part to the palate part, rebound field has been deployed! Reflective coating on the mouth and face!] (Nano Machine) (I am flame. I am, I am...) (Maevis)

When the nanomachine finally completed the protective measures, Maevis fired a mass of flame from her mouth with a shout.

“I am the incarnation of fire!” (Maevis)

Both the [Red Oath] and the devils opened their mouths wide and were stunned. The dragon is the only creature that can breath fire.

Both in the history of humans and devils, there was never anyone could fire a fire bullet from the mouth.

Reltbad desperately avoided the fire bomber, was also stunned. And Mile was staring with surprised eyes.

(Mile) (TN: Capcom Breath of Fire)

Chapter 158

Monster Advance

“I am the incarnation of fire!”

(Maevis) Gaki~i! (SFX) “Fire ball!” (Reltbad) (Ga shi ~i!

(SFX) “I am the incarnation of fire!” (Maevis) Gy~in! (SFX)

“Fire ball!” (Reltbad) Gaki~n!

(SFX) “I am the incarnation of fire!” (Maevis) Ga shi ~i! (SFX)

“Fire ball!” (Reltbad) Ki~in!

(SFX) Blazing fire bullets, swords shattering sparks.

It was no longer a human and devil fight. It can only be called with [Monster Great battle]

At first each of them released magics alternately, but then the order gradually broke down, and magic and qigong artillery were now released at the same time.

Normally, it would be Reltbad who had the advantage because he is superior at both physical strength and magical power, however... “Maevis is pushing...”

(Rena) Yes, just as Rena said, Maevis was pushing Reltbad to the corner. The reason is.

“Fire ball!” (Reltbad) (ファイヤー・ボール: Faiyaa booru: 7 words)
“I am Fire!” (Maevis) (余が、ファイヤー ! : Wa ga Faiyaa: 6 words) Yes, because the Magic’s name is shorter.

manga refer*) And, of course, no one could understand the meaning of Mile’s cry. And Maevis ended the fight sooner than expected.

Because Maevis was uneasy about her endurance and the power left to continuous launch of Qigong bullet (which is supposed to be a fire magic) It was inevitable that Reltbad, who fought with fireball at slower cast speed, slower in movement speed and weaker in power.

As Maevis put her sword on his neck. “Okay, the battle end!” (Devil Leader) And the devil leader called out the end battle declaration.

Reltbad didn’t suffer much but was completely defeated, he stared at the face of Maevis who was at a close distance in order to press the sword against his neck.

And her smiling face was glittering and shining like a smile of the goddess. “.....” (Reltbad) Saw the unusual sight, Reltbad turned his face away in panic.

...Of course, it was due to the reflective coating, which the nanomachines had deployed for the protection of the face, that made Maevis's face shining brilliantly. (It is nano-laminate layer coating: gundam reference) t “ “ “ “.....” “ “ “ (Devils) The devils were silent.

“ “ ““.....” “ “ “ (Red Oath) The girls didn't know what to say and remain silent, however the silent [Red Oath] was intimidating the devils.

And no matter how long everyone waited, nobody spoke anything. And lastly, Mile said.

“Please follow me as promised!” (Mile) However, the Devil leader shook his head. “No, not yet!” (Devil Leader) “...Are you going to break the promise?” (Mile) The voice of Mile suddenly lowered, and her facial expression started disappearing until she became expressionless.

((((Oh no, Mile is angry!))) (Rena + Pauline + Maevis) Yes, just as Rena's trio said, Mile was angry.

The victory which Maevis won with her power that exceeding the limits of human beings, for the sake of everyone, burning the heart, the soul, and the stomach. If he dared to it doesn't count, then Mile also had something to [talk]

“...Is that so... Is that so?” (Mile)

“Wait, wait! It isn’t, that’s not the case, let hear me out!” (Devil Leader)
When atmosphere around Mile changed, the Devil leader waved his hand in panic.

“We will keep our promise, we will keep it properly! We can not paint any more shame in our name, and even if we start a full battle here, I don’t think that we can win. In the first place, I didn’t plan to do anything bad. I just wanted to talk as an individual” (Devil Leader) “Then, what?” (Mile)

The Devil leader replied to the expressionless question of Mile.

“Although the game as a team battle has been decided, I have not yet fought. The team’s defeat is the leader’s responsible.

So even if I know that it’s meaningless, but personally, I want to do it to the end. That’s why I want you to fight with me.

If I win, it was just my last self-satisfaction and the last pride that I can protect for the Devil. It doesn’t change the fact that we lose...”
(Devil leader) Without even stop for a break, the Devil leader kept on speaking.

“Not as a leader, but as individual? Okay, for once, I will listen to what you say” (Mile) t And the round 4 starts.

Mile calmed down her anger and had returned to normal condition because the Devil leader’s argument wasn’t so strange. He is the leader of the devil group after all.

(T.N: This Part is mostly Devil Leader’s POV) (...Sorry everyone... At the time I report, I will said [Even though I win... , I don’t think that the others would lose to human girls...] as the leader I will take responsibility somewhat, but my personal honor will be kept. Sorry but only me can get away!) (Devil Leader)

He glanced at his subordinates, who are watching his match carefully and he was thinking about such things.

That was a devil for you.

And not just that...

(Perhaps, this youngest girl is the daughter of a high-ranked hunter or noble. Then she must be weak at magic and that's why she has sword for self-defend. The other three girls must be some top ranked escort hunter among hunter that her parent hired. I can barely sense any power from her, that small body of her won't suit for swordman anyway...) (Devil Leader) Yes, he was looking down on Mile.

Because Mile is a swordman then her magic isn't good. And her small body doesn't have any muscle then she doesn't have any martial arts talent. Her only weapon is just a sword. She has a small and delicate physique, no matter how he looks at Mile, she is just an average girl. He can defeat her easy like a horn rabbit.

"Let's get started, it's okay, because we can use healing magic, we can even heal wound so that scar does not remain, and pain quickly disappears. Well, it would be even better if you could surrender before you injured..." (Devil Leader) Just to be sure, he talked about safety measures first, so that the escort hunters wouldn't attack him when the little girl was slightly injured.

Because this is an individual fight now, not a group fight, there is no reason for the escort hunters to hesitate in order to protect their young lady.

"Well, let's go! Ice bind!" (Devil Hunter) He used magic that less dangerous as possible because he was still afraid of getting attack by the escorts.

Therefore, he used restraint magic which the least damage, to bind limbs with ice. Even though it doesn't cause damage but as a crowd control magic, it can be used for battle.

The little girl has no resist action, her wrists, ankles are covered with lumps of ice,

they stick to each other... Pari~n!

(SFX) The ice
crumbled.

“Huh...!?” (Devil Leader)

The devils are surprised. [Red Oath] doesn't seem to care.

“Magic is ineffective?... , no, leader activated it properly, but it was dispelled... that's it...” (1 of the 3 Devils) Although the spectators are analyzing so, the fighting party can't afford to hear such a thing.

“Da... damn it, I thought that I shouldn't hurt you as much as possible, but I wasn't that sweet! Ice · Javelin!” (Devil Leader) “Ice shield!” (Mile) Several Ice Javelin released, of course their tips were rounded and lacking the penetrating power. However all of them were blocked by the ice wall that appeared before Mile.

“...Do you take this battle seriously?” (Mile) “Huh...!?” (Devil Leader) “I said [do you take this battle seriously?!]” (Mile) The girls jumped when they were looking at the face of Mile.

...expressionless.

((((Uwaaaaa!))) (Rena + Pauline + Maevis) Rena's group knew well what that means. Yes, Mile was really angry.

As she could fight a one-to-one basis, she was expecting that it would be fun, just like when fighting against Guren of [Mithril Roar] and when fighting with Maevis' father.

The 2 fights before were fight with the sword, but this time, it is a magic showdown with the devil that was famous good at magic.

Magical showdown with a devil!!

The first magic game that make her excited without worry about keeping secret. Moreover, it's just a game type, she doesn't need to worry about win or lose.

She was so excited when she thought so, and now what she got is some child-play magic.

“If you're going to do that, then I will do it my way...” (Mile) “All of you, come over here quickly!” (Rena) Rena called out to the demon group that kept watching.

At first all of them were watching from one place, but after losing they kept some distance between enemies and allies. But right now Rena has judged it's going to be dangerous.

“Eh...!?” (Devil Shounen)

The Devil Young man remembered the soft feeling and sweet smell of Rena from the previous time and blushed. The other two were dumbfound.

“Because it will be dangerous, come quickly! If you don't, you will not able to defend yourself with [Barrier] in the unlikely event!” (Rena) The 3 Devil weren't able to understand the meaning but because it was something related to their own life, they rushed to Rena's group in a hurry.

Yes, those who don't act fast in emergency, most of them will die prematurely. They are also fighting now, just like their leader...

And It's Mile's turn to attack.

“Phase ray, firing!” (Mile)

Chi~yun (SFX) “Huh...!?”

(Devil Leader)

For an instant, the Devil leader felt [Something] passing through his face right beside his eyes at a tremendous speed, or he thought that it passed.

As he looked back in fear, a few centimeters holes penetrated the rock behind him.

When he turned his eyes back to the girl, the girl smiled with the eyes that aren't laughing at all.

“Can you do it seriously?” (Mile) Bu~wa!

(SFX) Sweat flew out of his body.

Yes, the leader finally realized.

The girl standing in front of him isn't a horn rabbit. But an [Extreme Deadly Poisonous Hell Terror Rabbit...]

And the door that he chose was a [Red door]

(If I don't do it seriously, I will die!) (Devil Leader)

Chapter 159

Suspicion that a devil is an abbreviation for “tribe difficult to magic”

Before Mile fired that Phase Ray, Mile had glanced at the surrounding and confirmed that Rena had put everyone in the barrier. And with that, she could use any magic without harming anyone. Other than the Devil who is in front of her.

In the surrounding, she wanted to avoid destroying the poor trees as well, and luckily, this place is a rocky mountaun, there's no need to worry of environmental destruction.

And now

“Here I go!”

(Mile) Bu~un

(SFX) Mile

an Unique

Vibration

Sound could be heard from that sword, and

shone blue.

(If this is really Star war refer: then that color means protection, consciousness and intellect) “Wha...!?” (Devil Leader)

(T.N: this part seems like Devil Leader’s POV) [Magical sword!?

The little girl that I thought that weak at both magic and sword. She could use a high-speed magical bullet with tremendous power that can’t be seen with the naked eye. Just how strong is her magical power.

And right now, it seems that she will use the sword this time. With a high technique that putting magical power on the sword. However, no matter how great is the magical sword, if her sword skill is poor then it doesn't make any sense.

And did she really have no talent for swordsmanship, like I have judged in the past? But there's no mistake from her stance, her hands, her muscles, and her feet and that delicate body.

I had thought that she had no magical talent, judging from the fact that she is equipped with a sword and it was wrong.

However, her actions this time, there is no mistake.

Switching to the sword instead of using magic so that she could be used it for a long time, it costs less magical. Was the first shot consuming most of her magic power?

No, if it's really so, she should hit me with the previous magical bullet instead of wasting it.

What in the world is she thinking?]

At that time, a bad idea came to his head.

[...Is she toying with me? No way. No way... I... I was entrusted to be the escort leader of the research team, a proud devil, and I was looked down by weak human being, and a young girl at that? Impossible. Impossible!]

The Devil leader's head became blank for a moment. And unconsciously, he casted an attack spell in his head.

“Fire Lance Uoooooooo!” (Devil Leader) He was acting out of anger, his magic power was strengthening instead of holding back.

(Oops!) (Devil Leader)

He regained sanity at the moment of shooting, but it was already late. Strong fatal fire attack magic was flying towards the girl. Nobody can stop it any longer. Including himself the one who released that attack.

(Dead!) (5 Devils)

The moment that 5 of devils thought so.

(T.N: I'm sorry, guys, looked like I made a mistake in previous translated chapters, there were 5 devils not 4, the first one was injured by Mile and didn't join the team battle. The last time FUNA sensei said 4 devils joined the team battle but they have 5 devils in total) Bashi! (SFX)

The flame spear was swept away by her sword.

Easily and casually. “ “ “ “ “Impossible!!” “ “ “ “ (5 Devils) Mile was tying her mouth to a single character.

Normally this is an action that expresses anxiety and tension, but Mile, it's a bit different.

Yes, that is an act to keep the face from loosening. “Apparently, she seems to be in a good mood.” (Rena) Rena was right.

Finally Mile got interested. Her face was saying so.

Don't use barrier. It's not fun to block all the opponent's attacks with the barrier.

And limit her magic power as low as possible. It isn't fun to penetrate the opponent's magic defense so easily.

Looking down? Toying? No, this is a handicap game.

Everyone did their best for their victory, she would never do such a thing. However, since the victory of the group battle had been decided, it would be nice to enjoy the battle a little.

Mile was thinking so.

“Flame shot!” (Devil Leader) The devil leader casted with omitted chanting. Totally 4 shots simultaneously.

It was aimed at the head, lower abdomen and both sides of the body (up down left right). No matter what direction Mile chose, she would at least got hit by one of them. Besides, unlike Fireball, this magic will explode when hit. It was fast attack with explosive effect.

The devil leader couldn't hold back or think about that any longer.

The girl in front of him isn't an opponent he can afford to do such a thing.

He finally noticed. He don't have to kill. Just cause some injury to win and cure her later with healing magic.

Four fire bombs were flying at Mile.

It's somewhat fast, but it was too slow compared to bullets.

If it was Mile, she could easily avoid anything. But then that won't be fun. Mile faced the magic head on with her sword.

Hiyu ~hiyun! (SFX)

“Huh...!?” (Devil Leader)

Disappeared.

Four flame shots disappeared within a moment.

Rena and Pauline only knew that Mile had swung her sword.

However, with excellent dynamic vision, Maevis and 5 devils were barely able to see it. Mile had swung her sword twice, slashing all of the flame shot casted by the devil leader.

“Why, why didn't it explode!?” (Devil Leader)

The Devil leader cried.

Yes, that was explosive flame shot. Even if she slashed it with a sword, it would still explode. And even if the damage was small, her stance would be broken and the explosion should have obstructed her vision for a moment. And the devil leader could prepare for the next attack during that time.

However, it disappeared. It didn't explode, it just faded away.

If a swordman cut it with a sword, it certainly would have exploded at that moment.

However, Mile used sword with magical power. That magical power offset the magical power of flame shots.

At that moment, Mile just thought of [Vanished] in her head, but didn't think of antimatter's detail for the nanomachines, they had decided to make an offset of energy effect.

It is a great support from nanomachines, but Mile didn't notice at all. "Flame shot!" (Mile) (Mile's POV)

And this time Mile casted exactly the same magic.

Simultaneous shots with up and down, left and right, 4 shots in total.

Battleships are usually designed with armor strength to withstand attacks of the same power as their own main guns. Then, this devil also should have a technique that can endure the same magic attack that he himself casted.

Mile thought
so. "Uguu!"

(Devil) (Devil)

Leader's POV)

If he was good at magic, he only had to build a magic barrier in front of him. But, he had seen the insane penetrating power of Mile's first attack, he couldn't risk himself and chose a safety measure.

Reduce the number of shots as much as possible, and avoid shot to the vital spot. To do this, he avoided to the left, avoided the head, lower abdomen and right shot, intercepted only the remaining flame shot on the left side.

“Flare Lance!” (Devil Leader) (in Katakana / English) He did not know the strength of the his opponent’s magic. In that case, he only had to shoot a strong magic. But then again, can he keep up.

It will be a waste of magical power, but it can’t be helped. That is the [Disadvantage in warfare with the lack of information]

If he doesn’t want to fight in such state, he should gain enough information on his opponent beforehand and he couldn’t complain because he asked for the fight when he didn’t know anything.

(It canceled her magic properly! Will it okay if I cast only Fire Javelin or Fire Ball? No, if my magic is weaker, I will get hit...) (Devil Leader) It was annoying. If he made a mistake in judgment, he will be defeated by her magic attack. However, if he had to intercept with magic of excessive power every time and if his opponent had large amount of magical power, he would end of in the worst result: running out of magical powers and lose to a little human girl. If such thing happened, he would live in shame for the rest of his life.

(No, wait! Why am I thinking about an bad end for me! I don’t need to think about defending, just don’t give her the time to attack. Attack and attack, I will take the initiative!) (Devil Leader) The Devil Leader attacked at the moment his opponent stopped attacking for some reason. Here’s his chance, an all out attack.

Continuous attack that emphasizes in number magic than the power of magic. Yes, just like the fight between Reltbad and the other female swordsman.

This time, I will win the shots.

And, if it is attack magic that emphasizes rapid fire speed rather than power, I only need the basic magic. And with basic magic I don't need to chant everything. To make it faster and more, I will chant in my head quickly and speak only the magic name, that's it, parallel magic casting.

“.....Fire ball!” (Devil Leader) Hi~yun!(SFX) At the same time, 5 red fireballs flew towards Mile even he just said the name once. But he didn't stop at that.

“Fire Ball! Fire Ball! Fire Ball! Fire Ball!” (Devil Leader) 5 groups with 5 fire balls each that were released continuously.

Casting in the head first and speak the name. And because it was the same magic, so he can repeat it again with only speak the name.

That was the rapid firing that only magic specialist Devil could use.

Because there are many devils can use this, it was said that: in the magic showdown, you can't win the devils.

The dogma was disseminated, it is a classic attack method of the devil race.

But if you think about it, Maevis had carried out a series of attacks even beyond that, in a sense it can said that [Even beyond the devils]

That's why the devils were shocked before.

And many fireballs like a meteor rain were flying towards Mile.

If several of them are hit, a delicate girl will sure lose her combat power.

However, Mile didn't move, she grabbed the sword and didn't seem to avoid it at all.

Meteor Rain

A group of fireballs like a meteor rain were flying towards Mile. However, Mile didn't panic and shook the sword on her hand.

“Secret sword technique, small fry B's meteor countermeasure” (Mile) Anyone can use this technique, even if he is just a small fry, he will be as strong as B rank.

Of course, that was Mile's purpose when she said that.

Mile swiftly move with Zig-zag, slashed her sword with acute angles, and erased fireball one after another.

And of course there was no such thing like the sword broke or the debris flew. “What...!?” (Devil Leader) “It's my turn, here I go!” (Mile)

Mile swung her sword and created a vacuum shockwave flying towards the devil leader. In order not to kill, the shockwave was aiming at the knee.

“Demonic sword skill, vacuum knee slash!” (Mile) “Uo~!” (Devil Leader) A crescent shaped white thing that flying towards his knees. The Devil leader made a leap with full power to avoid it.

He desperate avoided because his leg would fall if he took it head on.

“Uwa, that’s dangerous!” (Devil Leader)

However, in the midst of confusion, Mile has already finished preparing to shoot the next magic.

“Snowball fight of bad kid!” (Mile)

Mile casted magic with only magic name. And contrary to the magic name [snowball fight] the magic appeared above Mile was 10 fireballs with her fist size.

Even it has the fist size, it isn't big because it is compared with Mile's hand. And the color of the flame is only slightly red. That means that the temperature is also lower compare to fire magic.

“Shoot!” (Mile)

A group of fireballs were flying towards the Devil Leader all at once.

(With that number, it can't be avoided. However each one is small, and the speed isn't so great.

Fire magic is different from ice magic, it doesn't have substance. Because it is only a mass of magic heat and flame, it can only be prevented with magic barriers.

Even if it's strong enough to penetrate the barrier, it will still be weakened and won't deal great damage anymore!) (Devil Leader) If he kept the distance and continued to fight with magic, he would be inferior. The Devil Leader who judged so and plan to shorten the distance.

Yes, breaking through that flock of fireballs and starting a close battle that his opponent wasn't good at.

“Magic Barrier!” (Devil Leader)

“Ooooooooooooo!” (Devil Leader)

The flock of fireballs broke through the magic barrier easily and it kept flying without dropping any power.

(Damn, was her magical power way beyond what I thought! But they are just some weakened fireball, I can endure a few of them easily. Even just land a single blow at her is fine, the game will be decided...) (Devil Leader) Do~su! (SFX)

At that time, the shock and pain of the fireball that hit on his belly, and its kinetic energy, the devil leader stopped his legs. He held his belly with both his hands. As he was using his left arm that he had used to protect face just before, his face was exposed.

Gan~! (SFX)

And the second fireball hit his forehead, made a good sound. Do~su, (SFX) Go~n, (SFX) Ga~ki! (SFX) Three more fireballs hit him in a row, the body of the devil leader slowly tilted backward and felt.

Yes, the magical name that Mile used was [Snowball fight of bad kid] even though it was fire magic.

This the devil thing that bad kid use, put stones in the snowball in a snowball fight. A stone was put in the center of the fireball, Mile had stayed true with its name.

Of course that was the work of the nanomachines after reading her intention.

That's why the magic barrier that can only prevent magic type can't prevent it. Barrier has a little effect on the [physical power] of that mass and kinetic energy after all.

The blow of a girl's fist size stone in the head.

It was too much impact, even adults would faint.

Rolling on the ground, the flame wrapped around the outer edge of the fireballs disappeared, revealed its identity, stones.

“ “ “ “Savageeeeeee!! “ “ “ “ (4 Devils)

Screams rose all at once from devils in the watching group. “Red oath, complete victory!”

(Mile) “ “ “Ooooooooo!” “ “ (Rena + Pauline + Maevis)

t  30 minutes later  “.....here” (Devil Leader) The girls were guided by the devils to a corner of the rocky mountain.

There was a small cave or something like a hidden passage beside a huge rock.

Apparently, it seems that the rock has been blocked this passage, and the rock has changed its shape due to some reason and reveal the passage.

Even Mile was planning to look for it from the beginning but the rocky mountain where people rarely come, it was also in a hard to climb place, and it was hidden by the overhanging rock. It would be hard to find this gap.

“Those guys from the survey team are just ahead” (Devil Leader) This team seems to have these 5 devils as escorts, three others as researchers.

It seems that each researcher had 1 devil as personal escort when they searching this area. The other two are working separate like scouting, keep watch, advance warning when detect the approach of humans in advance.

However, because they had discovered this place, all the investigators and escorts had gathered at the same place, and the other two kept guading.

And At the time they spotted [Red Oath], all 3 escorts and 2 scouts had come to deal with them.

With the guide of the devils, the girls went into the cave from a slightly narrow entrance that was just enough for 1 person to pass. The floor and wall are rocky.

However, as they walked for a bit, the surrounding changed. “...this place... was made by human hands?” (Rena) Yes, just as Rena muttered, the passage became spacier. And the floor, walls and ceiling are clearly processed.

“I wonder if this is similar to that ruin...” (Mile) (This part looks like Mile’s POV) But no one can answer that.

The girls in group don’t understand, and the devils don’t even know what [that ruins] is in the first place.

This passage, although at the beginning the passage was narrow and piled with dust, but in the middle it seems clean. I don’t think this passage was used very often.

Such a cave, it isn’t strange that beasts and monster lived inside, however it doesn’t seem like that.

Is this really coincidence or is there a reason for that... “It’s me!” (Devil Leader)
Before the corner, the leader cried out loud.
Maybe he was informing the researchers.

“Oh, welcome back.

How did it go with the human Bishoujo Hunters?” (1 of 3 Devils) In the reply from the back, the devil researcher using [Bishoujo], [Red Oath] were somewhat happy.

And then, when they were looking at it, 5 devils said [you guys are such tampers!] “Wh, who are you...?” (1 of 3 Devils) 3 Devil magicians in charge of investigation raised their voices with a surprised face, looking at the 5 devil escorts that appeared with the [Red Oath]

“Did you catch them? But why did you bring them here? Tell me what are you planning to do here? What are you thinking...” (1 of 3 Devils) For the 3 devils of the investigation teams who thought so, the escort leader explained with a sorry face.

“No, we were captured and had to guide them here. Sorry. I’m sorry...” (Devil Leader) 4 other devils bowed their heads with the leader.

“ “ “Huh.....!?” “ “ (3 Devils)

Three devil of the survey team just stood there with that unexpected and unbelievable story.

Chapter 161

Second ruin

After hearing the explanation by the the escort team, the Devils from the survey team had shocked faces.

“Zawin, you...” (1 of 3 Devils)

“Please don’t ask or say anything!” (Zawin) The Devil Escort Leader was just lowering his head to the survey team members. Apparently, his name seems to be Zawin.

From the story that Mile’s group heard so far, this devil searching group divided into an escort team and a research team. And the escort team leader is the one in charge of fighting and withdraw, he has the decision right and everyone is supposed to follow his judgement.

In other words, because the escort leader Zawin surrendered, everyone including the survey team, must be obliged to follow that decision.

“But what are you thinking? Will we be captured and interrogated by humans? We proud devils can’t accept such a thing! Yes that’s right. Even if you already lost and became a prisoners of war, but right now we have more people now, shouldn’t we win if we fight back now? There is nothing wrong with recapture prisoners of war” (1 of 3 devils) The other devils of the survey team nodded with their leader Helst and the 5 devils of escort team shook their head.

“Stop it...” (Zawin)

“But you guys must be careless to lose against them because they are just human girls. If we deal with them properly...” (Helst)

Zawin cut Helst's words halfway and raised his voice with a shaky face.

“Didn’t you hear that what we talked about it a little while ago? I said we lost to them. We fought in order and lost one after another, do you still want to fight them? And beside we lost 4 times but she knocked down one of us with a preemptive strike, it was 5 times. Do you make fun of us?” (Zawin) “.....” (Helst)

Heard Zawin yelling, Helst lost his words.

“This is a judgment as an escort group leader and it is an order. We can’t win against them. If it comes to a serious battle, it will be a total annihilation or we will be beaten half-death and taken to the city of human. Then do you know what will happen?” (Zawin) “.....” (Helst)

Looking at the silent survey team members, Zawin turned his face to Mile. “I’m sorry, could you show them something?” (Zawin) Mile understood what Zawin wanted to say, silently pointed to the rock wall. Chi~yu (SFX)
Chi~yu (SFX) Chi~yu (SFX) Chi~yu (SFX) Chi~yu (SFX)
Chi~yu (SFX) Chi~yu (SFX) Chi~yu (SFX)

The place became quiet.

As magicians, they knew, even if they can chant it in head and speak only the name.

However this magic triggered too soon, or rather it was firing at full speed with absolutely no chanting.

8 holes in total with unknown depth in the rock wall.

8 holes. It's the same number as the number of devils here. This firing speed, speed of magic flight, and power.

It can not be prevented.

"...I'm sorry, it was my mistake" (Helst)

Helst apologized to Zawin and lowered his head.

"I know your skill but I doubted your judgment..." (Helst) "....." (Zawin) If it was Zawin, as long as he sincere apologize, Zawin will forgive him properly. Helst thought so, but Zawin had no reply. Helst raised his head wondered whether Zawin was very angry.

"Y... y... yo... you..." (Zawin)

Zawin pointed at a human girl and trembled like crazy. "You... , were you toying with me before?" (Zawin) t "Well then, so now that you understand the situations, you don't feel like capture us anymore?" (Zawin) Mile somewhat felt sorry for Zawin that was mind-broken just now and somehow recovered.

And now everyone was able to start talking with each other at last.

Zawin represented the devil side and Mile represented [Red Oath] side.

“Yes, because I heard mostly of it from the running errands ancient dragons... , uhm, Beldetes and etc.

So, the human side already knew about this, and by now the guild might already inform the information to other countries, or so I think.

So, if you can promise that you are acting only within that range and that you don't intend to harm humans. We will report so and it's over.

No, I don't know how our lords and king will judge and deal with this situation, but at least, our request undertaking the investigation is over so we will leave as it is.

Perhaps, the country and the lords will act, but I think you will be fine...” (Mile) “What!? You know Beldetes!? But, what with [running errands] part?” (Zawin) “Well, didn't I just say it myself, the [Liaison] Ancient Dragon” (Mile) “Liaison with running errands are different...” (Zawin) Zawin said so, because for them, Beldetes is a superior kind of ancient dragon.

However, [The role that Beldetes was doing was really going around the ruins and checking...], after talking for a while he was convinced by Mile.

Then, because they confirmed that Mile's group really knew the situation to a certain extent. Zawin said to other devils [It isn't a problem even if we talk] but of course they only talked in the category of [what Mile already know] That was enough for Miles.

However, depending on the progress of the survey, the devils still didn't know for sure how long they would stay here.

And then Mile talked of the status of the investigation.

As everyone walking for a moment, the place was a little wider.

And on the rock wall at the end, there was something...

“Oh, that is.....” (Mile) Mile couldn’t stand any more and asked the survey team leader Helst.

From the moment when Zawin talked with the 3 members of the survey team, from that point on, that place has been in Mile’s field of vision for a long time.

“Ah, it’s a small room that seems to be a treasure room. It’s a dead end, it’s made of metal and small, so it may be better to call it a safe. Although we finally opened it with a lot of hardship, there was nothing inside. Well, if it’s really a treasure room, it’s natural that people took it away when they abandon this place” (Helst) “.....” (Mile)

It was the same as the ruins from last time.

For the Devils and Rena’s group, it looked like a treasure room or a safe. But for Mile, it looked like this: An Elevator with door forced to open and broke...

Did people of prehistoric civilization that had advanced technology way far beyond the earth use something that makes it possible for Mile to know it's an elevator at a glance?

They should have used a more unimaginable way of traveling.

Mile thought so for a moment, but she immediately thought about it again. The prehistoric civilization wasn't destroyed overnight.

If it gradually declined, most of the technical force and equipment was lost in the last term.

And no matter how much science advanced, they would still use old technology. Necessity, safety, endurance, maintenance expenses, and for various other reasons.

No matter how much science advanced, people wouldn't use the transmitter to go to the next room or a few step.

Also on the Earth, even there are elevators and escalators at department stores, but they always make stairs as well.

There are also emergency staircases and evacuation equipment for emergency evacuation.

Perhaps this elevator might be use as an emergency escape.

Also, although it looks like the elevator of the earth, it's actually a transfer device.

It may have a gravity control or a magnetic levitation type rather than a cable, and the power source may be these pair of busted engines.

If there's something Mile can say about this.

It didn't seem to work even someone entered it.

Even if it's still working, Mile still didn't want to get on it. In the present situation that the door was already destroyed, the safety mechanism must not work anymore.

And Mile secretly invoked exploration magic.

Yes, if this is equivalent to an elevator, there should be something equivalent to the stairs around here.

“Well, we are camping near here tonight and will leave tomorrow morning. I will report that it’s just a devil survey group, there’s no problem.

But keep in mind that there is a possibility that a messenger for investigation and negotiation will come.

After a while, the news from the previous ruins will be transmitted, I think that the correspondence of the human side will be unified as well...” (Mile) Mile talked on behalf of [Red Oath], and the demons nodded.

And when Mile’s group tried to leave.

“Please tell me only one thing, how many are the human that as strong as you?” (Zawin) Mile answered Zawin asking so.

“Do you know that Hunter is divided into 7 ranks: from the bottom F, E, D, C, B, A, S except for apprentice G rank?” (mile) “Oh, ah, I’ve heard that, but...” (Zawin) “We are C rank hunters” (Mile) “what...!?” (Zawin) Stunned, staggering, amazed.

After the Mile’s group went away, there were 8 stone statues that opened their mouths wide.

Chapter 162

Runaway

Late night

In the camping tent, Mile quietly gets out of the blanket. Next moment.

Pyin~! (SFX)

Gashan~

(SFX) “Gyaa!”

(Mile) Mile felt

string cord tied to her feet.

Heard Mile’s scream, the 3 girls got up in a hurry.

“We thought that you would do such a thing that’s why after you had a good sleep, we tied a string to your feet” (Rena) As she said that, Rena was putting her hands on her waist and bending down like a lady.

“You are awful!”

“Who is awful one here? After you promised all that with us, you are still planning to leave me and going alone again!” (Pauline)

“Uu...” (Mile)

Pun~pun, Mile was angry, but as Pauline told her that, she couldn't reply. Rena and Mavis were somewhat okay, but as for Pauline, Mile is still guilty for [that attempt to leave and Pauline was only one left behind incident] “.....I’m sorry.....” (Mile) “Oh well, when you say [We will camp near this place tonight], we already knew that you plan to do this” (Rena) “Uu...”

(Mile)

Rena and Pauline were already good at reading most of Mile’s behavior. They are still not as good as Marcella though...

“Well, let’s go!”
(Rena) “Yes.....”
(Mile) Of course, the goal is that cave.

t “I thought that the devils camped in the cave. So they probably sleep in the innermost part of the cave and only the guards will sleep in the vicinity of the entrance...” (Mile) “Well, that might be the case” (Rena) Rena agreed with Mile’s expectation.

And when the girls went near the cave, Mile used exploration magic.
“In front of the entrance, two devils, the rest are in the back just as expected” (Mile) And Mile used sleep magic. The medicine was made to drift in coma just before the face of the devils.

In a television drama, it often said that breath in chloroform from the air or from the handkerchief can cause sleep instantly. However, in reality, anesthesia due to inspiration takes more time, and if the user do something wrong, he may paralyze his target breathing function and cause dead.

However, this is a product of over technology compare to the Earth, nano machine.

They can do anything as responding to the Mile's request, instantly effect, colorless and odorless chemicals that have no effect on life, no after effects.

And, while sitting, two devils slowly lose consciousness.

If they were standing, Mile would have thought of other ways.

If they fall from the standing state to the rocky ground, they may be seriously injured or even die in some cases.

However, they were safe because they were sitting.

4 [Red Oath] girls went to the back of the cave leave the sleeping devil behind. After a while, Mile used sleeping magic again.

Originally all of them were asleep, so there wasn't any change.

But with this, they will not regain consciousness with a little noise. However, just to be sure, Mile also casted a sound insulation magic around her and other girls.

"Well, let's go" (Mile) As she said that, Mile used her fingers on the rock walls a bit further away from the [broken door that looks like an elevator]

"Uhhh, maybe it was something like this..." (Mile) When everyone explored last time, Mile detected the stairway space and asked the nanomachines to see if the entrance was opened.

As a result, the entrance was only camouflaged, the opening and closing mechanism was alive, not locked, it was just rusted.

However this is emergency, don't people often lock it? or did the last person forget to lock? or did this door not have lock?

Click (SFX)

There was a small sound when Mile put her finger under a protrusion of the rock.

“Okay!” (Mile)

Mile grasped the protrusion of the rock, pulling it sideways by putting a little strength, a part of the rock wall moved without sound and a small space opened.

“Th-This is.....” (Rena)

“I think that this is kind of an emergency exit, I don’t know if there isn’t a lock on the emergency exit, or they forgot to lock. But at least it was convenient for us, right?” (Mile) Mile can’t imagine what kind of locking technology they made.

Well, there is a way to investigate mechanisms with nanomachines, or destroy them by force, but Mile wouldn’t want to destroy the remains that survived for many years until now.

Following after Mile, everyone entered through the entrance, there was a staircase leading to the basement filled with a slightly dim light.

It isn’t really bright, is the reason the same as why Europeans prefer darker lighting than Japanese people? Because of the intensity of pigment and sunlight?

Or because it is just a passage so it doesn’t need that brightness so far? Or is it just for cost and energy savings...?

And, “the torch” was a mysterious lighting with unknown light source, rather than the electric light, it was the whole wall or the space itself is bright.

Mile couldn’t understand whether it’s magic or science and technology. Mile recalled the sentences of the book she read in the previous life [Any sufficiently advanced technology is indistinguishable from magic] And Mile stopped thinking.

It isn't interesting to listen to the nanomachines every time and and there isn't such time right now.

Because there is a light, Mile quietly closed the entrance without worry.

Perhaps on the outside of the door, it closes just like before looks like a rock wall which is completely indistinguishable.

“Let’s go.

Because this place is very old, I don’t think there are residents, but there are traps to counter intruders, old stairs may collapse as it is old.

Please walk slowly, gently and quietly.

And never touch unnecessary things, don’t make a loud voice, remember to notify everyone as soon as you notice something” (Mile) 3 girls nodded as they heard what Mile said with a serious face. While descending the stairs slowly, Mile was thinking.

(It is different from the previous ruin... aside from that mural painting, everything was done with all the current technology with tremendous effort to preserve it. But this place is...) (Mile) Yes, it was clearly different.

This lighting is smoothly processing of the floor and the wall, the stairway which goes deep under the ground...

But in the cave, except for that [Elevator], humans may create a stone ruins to some extent, that stone passage is something that can be processed by the present human beings.

Even if it seems to be an [Elevator] to Mile, but other people look at it can only see it as a solid treasure box or vault, so if humans only find the cave, they will not think that this is strange place.

Did it happen by chance or on purpose in the event that a human being, or an organism of that lineage find this place? To make they mistake this is a [Cave that hidden treasure, but treasure was already stolen, it is a empty cave], to stop further invasion?

(Then, what lies ahead is the ruins of [prehistory civilization] and the ancient ruins that Doctor Kulereia said.

But this place is so old, records and machinery, no, the metal itself would corrode and what left are only powder dusts piled up on the ground...

Even though the cave and this staircase are superior in processing technology and construction technology extending to deep underground, the material only scraped the rocks, and the light may be just a mere luminescent ore that I don't know.

Rock is the most prolonged building material, and the luminescence is scary, like half-life uranium 235 or 238, even hundreds of millions of years or billions of years...!

No no no no, if it is an excellent civilization, radiation that is harmful to the human body shouldn't be used...) (Mile) Mile was thinking with a difficult face while walking, Rena was walking in silence with a delicate look.

"It's long..." (Rena)

The girls started going down the stairs and it was already quite a while ago.

Rena is accustomed to walking in the highway and in the forest but she isn't accustomed to descending such a long staircase.

It was common sense that there are no such high-rise buildings in this world.

Even there are castles but they can't reach such height, and in the first place, Rena has no opportunity to go to one of them. And the biggest problem is.

"Uu... my knees and hip..." (Pauline)

Yes, just as Pauline cried, they girls went down a long staircase, the knees and waist will be hurt. Especially for those who are not familiar.

After a while more, the [Red oath] finally reached the place that seems to be the end point.

Considering from the fact that there were no doors and branch roads in the middle, this stairway isn't practical for everyday use, and there is a high possibility that it was for emergency to go straight to the ground from the lowest layer.

And at the end there is only one door. "...I will go" (Mile) 3 girls silently nodded to Mile.

And then, Mile gently opened the door a little and looked over. Patan (SFX) And Mile gently closed the door. "...there was something..." (Mile)

Chapter 163

Ruins “No, it is active”

“What, what’s wrong!” (Rena) Mile answered Rena’s question with sweat in her temple. “.....There was something.....” (Mile) “What, something!?” (Rena) “Something is.....” (Mile) Because it wasn’t covered, Rena gently opened the door a little and looked into it. And then she closed the door.

“There was something.....” (Rena)

“ “So, what is it?” “ (Pauline + Maevis)

This time, Pauline and Maevis raised their voice. And the same thing was repeated twice more.

“ “There was something.....” “ (Pauline + Maevis) (Mile’s POV, maybe) Yes, the other side of the door is like a passage, there was something. Something about the size of a large dog, walking with bare feet with six legs...

It looks like a bug, but it isn’t an insect. With 6 legs, it has a hard-shade outer shell but its biggest feature that isn’t like insects.

Yes, it had a fuselage and head like a human upper body standing vertically from the body like a worm-like body with legs, and four arms arising from that torso.

Heterogeneity.

I had no choice but to describe it, I had a strange shape that contrasted with other creatures.

That was walking along the aisle. “Scavenger.....”

(Rena) After a while Rena muttered... “Scavenger?”

(Maevis) Maevis made a dubious face when listening to it.

“They didn’t teach about it at the hunter training school, but I have heard from everyone in the [red lightning bolt].

There were only a few witnesses, it’s not a well-known creature.

It often comes to the corpse of an annihilated party and collecting metal objects such as weapons and armor we are wearing, jewelry and money.

But they didn’t lay their hands on the bodies.

They are mysterious creatures that hunters have no idea what they eat and why they collect metal.

Even if you try to follow, you can’t find a nest because it runs through a narrow place with great speed.

Because it doesn’t come close to living people or harm them.

It didn’t become a topic and there weren’t many people who know about it, beside only a few people saw it.

I have no confirmation, but I heard it was something like that...” (Rena)

Creatures such as insects have settled in the underground cave. It is a common story. Nobody wonders.

...except for Mile.

(It looks like metal! It's made of metal! And, it seems to work for a long time here... service 37 years. No, it is not, it is not!) (Mile) (T.N: Japanese often works 37 years until retire for 1 company, 22yo-60yo) "Well, if they live deep underground in these ruins, it's no wonder that people can't find its nest" (Maevis) "It looks disgusting... But, if there is no harm to humans, I am relieved" (Pauline) Mile didn't hear the words of Maevis and Pauline.

(Ruins, insect type robot, don't harm human beings, collect metal, that...) (Mile) An answer was coming to Mile's head.

(Maintenance, manufacturing automat...) (Mile) If so, there is only one thing to say.

"This ruin is active..." (Mile)

"What are you saying just now?" (Rena) Rena listened to Mile's muttering and asked.

".....This ruin, somehow, it seems to be active" (Mile) " " "Huh?" " " (Rena) "That scavenger that you was talking about was actually the maintainer of this ruin. In other words, they are responsible for maintaining...” (Mile) “So that’s why they need metal!” (Maevis)

As expected, Maevis would understand about that kind of topic. Rena in charge of common knowledge.

Pauline in charge of business and money related problem. Maevis in charge of Military, battle, logistics knowledge.

And Mile in charge of knowledge outside common sense. It was a perfect set.

“Wait a moment, then, what’s going on? You mean, that kind of monster that looks like that bug has intelligence and is the ruler of this ruin?” (Rena) Rena shouts with her eyes wide open, but that’s not the case.

“No, it isn’t the [ruler]... I guess it is just doing what it was ordered. The order from its master who was perished a long time ago...” (Mile)

“Wait a moment, Mile-chan, is that creature keeps living like that from that long ago?” (Pauline) Pauline in doubt joined the conversation.

“No, they aren’t [living thing] so you can’t use the word living... Well, in other words, it’s like a golem... And if it was broken, other colleagues will repair it or make a copy of themselves... So, unless all those individuals are destroyed at the same time, they will repair and produce each other, and will continue to exist endlessly” (Mile) Mile though it wouldn’t right to use [Eternally] so she changed to the word [endlessly] instead.

“ “ “” “ “ (Rena + Pauline + Maevis)

(Rena) After hearing Mile’s explanation, Rena hesitated.

If the girls went into the aisle, you might encounter some scavengers.

Even if Rena said it’s not harming human beings, but that is when meeting them outside.

But right now, the girls have invaded their territory.

There is no guarantee that those creature’s master didn’t command [keep this place safe and fend off intruders].

And Rena has never heard of stories about human beings fighting with scavengers in the past. Because the fight itself has never occurred, or nobody who fought with the scavenger or their eyewitnesses survived...

How would they fight? Do they have poison? Do they cooperate in attacks? The battle with the enemy for the first time without any information was extremely risky.

sound insulation boundaries so that they won't find us" (Mile)

“Invisible Fu~iru?” (Rena) (T.N: Rena can only repeat the Fukushima/ invisible word right, the fīrudo/field was pronoun wrong so I keep it as Romanji without any meaning) Rena had a question mark on her head.

“It’s a magic to make others impossible to see the caster. Another version is the sound insulation barrier to block all sound” (Mile)

“Fu~n...” (Rena)

(FUNA sensei’s POV explanation) Mile said it easily and Rena received it lightly, but that was rather troublesome.

It would be easier to make a sound insulation barrier, all you need is setting up a screen that blocks air vibrations between you and your opponent.

But when you do this with light, you can’t see the outside from the inside and the outside also can’t see the inside.

And the fact that if there’s no light, it will be the darkness. You can’t move around because you can’t see around, and from the outside, others would see a dome-like black space. It makes you more noticeable rather than hiding.

And, furthermore, what will happen if you only allow external light or electromagnetic waves from outside to go in but not allow to go out? The internal temperature will continue to rise. It’s a greenhouse effect.

When you are trying to exhaust the heat, you will be found by someone who can see infrared rays with wide visible range, like a pit organism that senses infrared rays of a snake.

Besides, the problem isn’t just blocking the light from the caster.

We must let the light pass through the scenery behind ourselves and reflect the light as if we aren’t there.

It isn’t something that anyone in this world would be able to do, they don’t know about visible light, characteristics of infrared rays, heat, light etc, such as clearing all of them.

Rena easily accept the explanation of Mile because she didn't know about them, didn't notice the difficulty, and didn't mind thinking about the same degree as sound insulation, didn't hesitate to say [It can't be help, it was Mile after all]

That's why no matter how good at magic people of this world could become, they couldn't cast a complete invisible fields.

Without scientific knowledge such as exactly imagining, thinking radiation etc. It's a n impossible spell for any living being of this world.

However, in Mile's case [Please make an invisible field around us that couldn't be seen from outside! Please prepare all necessary requirement for that processing, too!]. Just with that thinking, and leave everything to the nanomachines. Mile thought that it was [Normal magical exercise by her thought] but of course not.

Nanomachine usage authority level 5.

Even though they don't receive the image of a specific phenomenon by the thought wave, the nanomachines judge themselves with only the image, the words and the final result and all the details that are necessary for it.

Yes, it was like [doing all the procedures of tax return from blue declaration], a big difference with paying only money and throwing it to a tax accountant.

“Well, let's go” (Mile) That said, Mile casted a sound insulation boundaries and invisible fields and opened the door.

Chapter 164

Identity of ruins

4 [Red Oath] girls gently opened the door and entered the aisle.

And right now, there is no scavenger. Mile closed the door, after firmly checking the place, the girls decided to start walking.

“So, which way should we go?”

(Maevis) Maevis asked, and Mile was thinking about it.

After thinking for a while, she took out a rusty sword from the item box. It's the sword confiscated from the bandits they had captured before.

Mile gently put it on the floor of the aisle and instructed everyone to stay away from it for a bit.

And after about 10 minutes.

A scavenger came from one of the aisles, noticed the sword on the floor, picked it up and went back to the direction that it came from.

“Over there, let's go!”

(Mile) Rena and other girls nodded.

Rena said that the scavenger was quick, however its moving speed wasn't so fast. Maybe it can run fast if it get serious, but it normally move slow.

Well, if it always moves faster, energy consumption will increase and body burden will increase.

In the first place, it's working in its territory this time, there's no need to hurry unless something unexpected happens.

So Mile and other girls were able to follow the scavenger without difficulty. “Oh, it gets into a room...” (Mile) As Mile said, the scavenger passed through a place that seems to be the entrance of a room.

Of course, there’s no door etc. With its physique and height, it will be hard to open the door.

No, there is a method called an automatic door, but machines with many moving parts will not be able to endure too many years, and in the first place scavengers doesn’t need door.

And then, 4 girls gently crawled through the entrance following the scavenger. “Wh... what... this is...” (Mile) “ “ “.....” “ “ (Rena + Pauline + Maevis) And the scene in front of the girls.

A place with several large workbenches placed side by side, scavengers that gather around with something in their hands that seem like tools...

For Rena, Maevis and Pauline, they couldn’t understand this scene at all. But for Mile, that scene was looked like this: (Small factory...) (Mile) That place isn’t so large, at most it was the level that was called a small factory in a rural town.

Of course, there is no flow work by the belt conveyor, several scavengers that seems to be working, going back and forth to those placed on a fixed interval.

“Golem...” (Rena)

Yes, the golems were on the worktop. Rock golem, and Iron golem.

Metallic golems, whether made of iron or copper, are all called [Iron golems]. And its strength does not compare with rock golem.

[Red Oath] probably won't be able to deal with it other than Mile.

The people and hunters were safe until now because none of the golems went out of territory or came out in the village and attacked humans.

Golem only attacked humans when humans have invaded the golem territory.

Still, there are still some hunters that aiming at materials or request, and sometimes attacked iron golem territory that's why battle occurs.

And the winning percentage of those hunters who fought with Iron golem was never so high.

"What, what are they doing...?" (Pauline)

"They are repaired, because the word [treatment] doesn't suit golem" (Maevis) Heard Pauline's muttering, Maevis replied.

Certainly, because the golems don't look like a new production, Mile also agreed.

If this factory could continue new golem production for tens of thousands of years or so, the golem will spread throughout the continent.

But the reality wasn't so that means they could only maintain. "...I see!" (Mile) Mile came up with the answer to the question as to why Golem would stop when only the visual and auditory sensors in the head were destroyed.

It probably means that if they are prohibited to move without the information input from the outside.

In other word, they may attack on allies and probably the [Master] who wasn't existed anymore.

Because of that, the [Master] possibility set a command for them to stop working if all sensors are damaged and wait for the pickup to come.

Yes, wait for the scavenger to come pick them up. "What were you convinced by yourself for?" (Rena) Rena complains, but the explanation should take a lot time, even for when moving or camping.

Mile thought so, she ignored Rena for now and triggered exploratory magic.

It didn't make sense to make only a small facility this depth, Mile was thinking that it wouldn't be the case.

Then perhaps, this ruin is a facility that combines various functions in a complex manner.

"...Combine of Iseki..." (Mile) (T.N: Japan Iseki & co. ltd) Mile liked watching machine brochures in previous life. That functional is good. And that interest was extended to large farm equipment as well.

"Eh...!?"

wasn't.

As a result of activating exploratory magic, there were no facilities in operation besides here.

However, there were a lot of reactions, such as remnants of machinery that seemed to be crushed by rocks, rooms buried with rocks, earth and sand, those that seem to be remnant.

Even though before it was machine, but right now, it's just a lump of metal or powder of rust, which is no longer its original form.

Although it was buried, it could have been digging out if it spends time. But the scavengers here didn't do that.

Was that because they didn't have the authority, and their [Master] was no longer around? So, they couldn't reuse their friends' body as metal material.

Only a few scavengers survived, they repaired themselves, repaired their colleagues in charge, made their own copies using innumerable materials, and revived the department in charge.

To wait.

Follow the instructions from their master, to wait for [that time]

Was their master using something like the stairs and elevators safely escaped from those buried room?

Mile didn't know such ancient things.

"...Let's go back, there seems to be no other facilities here. And I want to leave this place as it is." (Mile) " "....." " " (Rena + Pauline + Maevis) "I understand. Let's go back." (Rena) After a couple of seconds, Rena answered, Maevis and Pauline also nodded.

If they destroy this place, the number of golems of this rocky mountain will naturally decrease and soon be gone forever.

Isn't it better for humans if they do so?

However, the girls didn't feel like doing it at all.

Even Mile didn't say a lot about this herself, but it would leave a bad feeling if they destroyed the ruins that have survived many years.

Or so the girls thought? It was only known to the girls themselves.

Following the route that they came, the [Red Oath] returned to the end of the cave.

They were going up the stairway on the way back, physically it was harder than going down, but the waist and knee was far better than going down.

It will not be a big deal if they take a break.

Then again, the girls are only C rank hunter anyway.

Mile confirmed that the rock wall at the entrance was also properly restored and made sure that the devils wouldn't be able to find it.

Mile used magic to clear the sleeping medicine effect after returning to the turning point.

Since the devils were originally sleeping, it might be good to leave them as they were and wait for the effect of the medicine to expire naturally.

But in the unlikely event that a monster or an animal happen to attack, and the devils wouldn't wake up with the medicine effect, they will be annihilated.

Mile didn't want to take unnecessary risk.

Therefore, after leaving the entrance of the cave, Mile cleared the medicine for 2 devil guards from the place that they can't be spotted.

However it was funny that the guards kept sleeping.

[Red Oath] were returning to the camping place to sleep again until the morning.

"Perhaps, the entrance was also blocked with rocks, that's why the aisle was left unused and left untouched.

The rock that blocked the entrance, with some momentum we can open the gap again. Will it be left untouched in the future as well, will the scavenger notice that the entrance has opened, will it be used again as an entrance?

Well, since there are several other entrances, even if we didn't know it or we might neglect it. But if they repair that elevator, it will be easier when we go there next time" (Mile) "Next time!? are you going to go there again, what are you going to do?" (Rena) Rena asked and Mile was thinking.

Mile has completely forgotten this time, but she wonders if she should return it someday.

Yes, that ball that she collected from the rock golem that she knocked down earlier and put in the item box, taken out from the center of the torso.

Somehow Mile felt that the heart of Golem is inhabited inside.

Chapter 165

To the Kingdom! Cat ears are waiting!

“Well, if the devils can find that place then it can’t be helped.

However, we don’t have to tell them everything. Who know if they will crush that place because it’s the nest of the monsters. And maybe for them it’s just [A monster has settled in a small nest in the empty place, a lazy monster without purpose] and will head to the other place to investigate For us, or for the human side, we don’t have to worry about anything” (Mile) On my way back to the capital city, Mile told other girls.

She thought that it was impossible for devils to find that stairway or underground. And even if they can find it, she doesn’t not worry.

It was exactly as she told everyone.

It was only a sentiment of Mile that she wanted to leave that as it was.

From a long time ago, the machines that kept working while keeping the order of their master who created them... It seems she has been heard somewhere before.

(...Nano-chan?) (Mile)

She gently called in her head, but unusually, there was no reply from the nanomachine. (I wonder if they are leaving for somewhere.....) (Mile) And Mile was thinking.

[Perhaps there are other active ruins. And maybe their function was maintained in a better condition. Were those ruins the purpose of the ancient dragons? For now I just prayed that its purpose is peaceful.]

t The [Red Oath] returned to the capital city, they went to report to the guild branch first.

“Uhm, about the request completion report, we’d like to report direct to guild master...” (Maevis) As she heard that, Felicia, the receptionist, stared at Maevis. “Ah, you girls...” (Felicia) You girls, she said? Her words are distorted a bit, had a ghost come out or something.

“I’m glad that you are safe, but if the request was done, could you confirm the identity of them?” (Felicia) “Ha~ha, well...” (Maevis)

Felicia left the counter and drawing closer to Maevis as she asked that. Maevis took 1 step backwards.

“So, you’d like to report directly to Guild master, you are afraid other hunters might hear stories if you report here at the reception counter” (Felicia) “Aaa,... well” (Maevis)

The girls felt some fear in the eye of Felicia, Maevis seems to lose hope.

“Come with me. Nesel, please take care of my counter for a moment!” (Felicia) And the girls were guided by Felicia, who changed the duty to another person, and [Red Oath] were heading to Guild Master’s room.

The room of the guild master was almost the same, on the back of the second floor. “Then will you tell us the report?” (GM) While keeping the girls waiting outside the room, Felicia entered by herself first, explained the circumstances to the guild master and the guild master invited the [Red Oath] to the room afterwards.

The Guild Master of the Hunter Guild Vanorak Capital Branch was the exactly extraordinary hunter that had retired no matter how people look at him.

His age is about late 40s to around 50s. He isn't a magician but a vanguard type hunter, it will be hard for him to keep active at that age.

He already retired but for him to become a guild master of the capital branch, he must have been an awesome hunter while he was young.

Maybe he was trying to be dignity by growing a mustache. And the new young party have lower height than normal hunters. So, in order to talk face to face, the guild master was sitting on his desk while the [Red Oath] standing upright.

The receptionist Felicia stayed a bit beside the guild master, and also kept standing.

"I'm Mile, of C rank hunter party [Red Oath]. I will explain about the result of the request we received this time and the latest related information that I believed haven't reached you yet" (Mile) And detailed report by Mile was done. Of course, except the basement and the stairs leading to it.

"...As for the report, I agree with your advice, we will leave the decision on correspondence to the royal palace.

Well, according to the contents of your report, by the time royal palace have a decision from the conference, the devil group might as well have already withdrawn.

Anyway, it was hard work. You will have an A evaluation.

Oh, I also added 1 gold coin as compensation for the latest information from other countries and achievement evaluation points" (GM) The last word was directed to Felicia, the receptionist.

Thus, the first requested task in the capital branch of the Kingdom of Vanorak for the [Red Oath] was completed successfully.

(It's nice to have returned safely, but to think their opponent is the devils. And these girls still carry out the request without casualty... More than that, from their explanation to Guild Master, they mention about the ancient dragon and the beastkin. These girl are more than meets the eye...) (Felicia) Felicia returned to reception work, had greatly revised the evaluation for the [Red Oath]

(I wonder if I did something bad with [Silver claw]... Well, it's not a big deal) (Felicia) Felicia lightly shed it, but it was a great annoyance for [Silver claw] [Silver Claw] came back to report the day before.

And Felicia called them [weak coward], [incompetence that not able to walk like some little girls that young enough to be their daughter] in front of other hunters and guild staff. It was a public humiliation.

As for Felicia, she couldn't believe that the [Silver Claw], a B rank party really couldn't catch up with some little girls, so she thought they got back halfway and made a unreasonable excuse. Because it was troublesome, they neglected my request and left the newcomer party went to dead land. Because Felicia thought so she abusive them.

The abused [Silver claw] did not refute, they went back down to the inn.

They felt shameful and helpless. However their shock wasn't because they were abusive but because Felicia's curse was [nothing but a truth]

Although they had equipment and luggage, they couldn't catch up with little girls that young enough to be their children. When they are B rank, themselves.

After that, [Silver Claw] didn't come out from their inn for a few days for too much shock, when they learned that the Red Oath successfully completed the request and got back.

For them to be a B rank party but they were still not strong enough, and they left for a planned expedition to a distance.

After that, it was said that the [Silver Claw] inspired to become the A rank party.

t “Quadruple room, do you have free room?” (Rena) The inn that the [Red Oath] came, of course, their first choice, Faryl-chan’s inn however it’s not [Faryl Pavilion] but [Journey of the Dawn].

There are quite a lot of inn that didn’t name with X-pavilion, but what did the name of this inn [Journey of the dawn] mean?

Did you mean guests aren’t allow to stay at the inn and have to travel at dawn? Or is it meant to depart at dawn?

But then it would be annoying if guest travel here have to leave the inn and not possible to stay. Isn’t that more of a camp then an inn?

Whenever Mile concerned and started thinking about something, she could not sleep at night.

It seems that Mile still didn’t have enough life experience to notice that [dawn] doesn’t actual mean dawn.

“Ah!” (Faryl)

When Mile was thinking about the name of the inn, Faryl came out from the reception counter and clung to the foot of Mile.

(Umu, how nice, how nostalgic!) (Mile) Nihihi, and Mile’s face start loosening as she smile.

“I thought you would not come back anymore...” (Faryl) (Ugu, that teary upturned eyes! Plus with moving kemonomiki! Ah, I can’t bear it anymore!) (Mile) Ba~shi! (SFX) “Sorry!” (Mile)

Rena gave Mile a hand-chop as Mile crawled unintentionally and hugged Faryl.

t “...And with the Ancient Dragons as the medium, we became friends with the beastkins” (Mile) “How nice!” (Faryl) Of course, it’s not possible to leak the latest information to a loli.

Mile edited the previous story with dramatism and revision, rather than the story of this time.

Mile told to Faryl with attaching a short story written down like a fairy tale.

Even though this story may not have reached the royal palace here yet, it probably wouldn’t be a problem as it was already being circulated in other countries. It wasn’t the story that only the girls know. Mile was thinking so.

After dinner, in the dining room where several customers are still left, because Faryl is free right now, Mile called her to the table and told her a story, but other customers like hunters were also listening to it for a while, thinking that it was absurd story just to entertain children, everyone was smiling.

And after a few days, they saw the announcement that was posted on the information board of the guild branch, and they were stunned.

In the kitchen where the last order was over, the owner began cleaning up and preparing for tomorrow.

He saw the appearance of Faryl enjoyed talking with the [Red Oath] and had a bitter jealous face as he watched.

Beside him, was the mother looking at him with bitter smile. (...Huh? then what about the boys?) (Maybe Mile) When asked Farryl, it seems the work is completely divided with the older brothers,

The older brothers cleaned the kitchen and cafeteria first thing in the morning, They were also peeling potatoes, washing vegetables and chopping them, Apparently they [didn't want their sister to even just a little hard work] and took over most of it.

And Faryl only did reception work and accounting, or tidying up the table after the customer returned once in a while.

Although it seems like overprotective but Faryl is only 6 years old.

Although she seems to be a little older because her race closes to the European and has the beastkin mixed blood. It was still early to do a n y hard job. Especially when busy breakfast and special occasions, for example: groups of guests came, when people crowd in the capital due to big events, everyone seems to be in full battle.

So, right now the older brothers are playing in their own room or they are already sleeping in preparation for early tomorrow morning work.

In this world, even those under the age of 10 are still working. It was natural to help the family business.

t "Mile, I have a favor to ask!" (Maevis) After returning to the room and take a breath, Maevis spoke to Mile with a serious face.

"Well, about [Secret sword technique, small fry B's meteor countermeasure] and [Demonic sword, vacuum flying knee slash]. Could you please teach me those technique? Please! I beg you!" (Maevis) As she was saying that, Maevis sat down on the floor and lowered her head.

Well, that was a [Japanese dogeza], which Mile showed off before when she was apologized to everyone.

Chapter 166

Special Move 1

(Translator's Note: This Chapter is mostly Mile's POV) “Please, stop it Maevis-san!” (Mile) Personally, Mile doesn't mind doing this as an apologize from her heart, however, she can't take it from someone else.

...No, the human being that had a cold face with other's sincere request was [inhuman] in the first place, but Mile will leave that problem aside now.

“Th... then...!”

(Maevis) “Uu...”

(Mile) Actually,

Mile knew how

Maevis felt, too.

Maevis felt inferior in the group that can use magic.

Certainly using [EX · true · godspeed sword] can be a musou(unparalleled), even so it has great limitations and for someone aim to be a knight, she can't be proud for relying on drug rather than her own power.

And, the [I am the incarnation of fire] that Maevis used, it was also power of medicine and it came with a great consequence.

Although there was no problem at that time, but then, on the way back to the capital, Maevis began to suffer and saying like [My stomach hurts like being burned], [Throat, throat hurts...] etc. In a panic, Mile had used healing magic to cure everything.

After healing Maevis, the girls made a camp in order for Maevis to rest, and after everyone slept, Mile asked the nanomachines about what happened...

It wasn't time to say [I do not want to rely on nanomachines too much] when she concerned about the body of a friend.

(Nano-chan, the symptoms of Maevis-san?) (Mile) [We are sorry. Although we have already taken protective measures, but she had been so reckless and used it so many times... Although we prevented direct burns, it seems that a few particle lines were leaked in the last few minutes] (Nano-chan) (Eeeeeeeeh!) (Mile)

Particle line... Electron beam, proton beam, neutron beam.

In her mind, the word [Radiation leakage disorder] appeared. (...Is Maevis-san okay?)

(Mile) The nanomachine vibrated the eardrum of Mile when she became pale.

[Please rest assured. Even with radiation leakage, not all of them immediately affect the human body. And this time, the particle beams are just byproduct, secondarily at the stage of generating energy by pseudo magic. And only a few that leaked out, so it didn't cause severely damage cells or DNA that much] (Nano-chan) (.....[that much]?) (Mile)

[No, it's only a little... And it was completely repaired by Mile's healing magic. Also, Nanomachines that entered Maevis' body also were adviced to cure it with almost care...] (Nano-chan) (.....Thank you.....) (Mile)

But when using magic, will radiation leakage occur? If it's really so then it is dangerous...

[This time is an exception! People originally can't produce fire in their body like dragon race, etc.

It was because we used a dimensional linkage system to generate energy in small space and various special operations were required!

There is no such necessity if it is ordinary pseudo magic.

And if it was a dragon, their stomachs are large and tough, so it's easy to make fire within their body...] (Nano-chan) Mile didn't talk or asked the nanomachines, however the nanomachines explaining in a hurried manner against Mile's soliloquy.

Apparently, it seems that they didn't want Mile to have distrust of magic. That's why Mile Prohibited Maevis to use [I am the incarnation of fire].

Maevis thought that she was finally able to compete against the magician strongly opposed it, but Mile told her that technique can only be used by those who have a strong body such as dragon, explaining and persuading that it would cause abnormality in Maevis' body and may even result to death, etc., Maevis was also aware of her own unusual change, so she less opposed.

Finally, Mile was strongly warning that she only allowed Maevis to use in [an emergency situation that involve other human life], no others exception, and if Maevis breaks it, Mile will cancel the provision of [Micros].

Maevis finally gave in and promised.

Maybe because Maevis wasn't allowed to use it anymore, that's why she wanted new skills. And it also means...

(She will not give up...) (Mile) "Well, I guess I can teach you... but..." (Mile) "Really? Thanks! Thank you very much, I will remember this favor for the rest of my life! I will not do use unreasonably. I will never tell anyone about your family's secret technique. You don't have to worry!" (Maevis) Maevis was really happy.

"But, even if I teach Maevis-san, but whether you can use it or not..." (Mile) "It's okay, I will remember it, I will definitely learn it!" (Maevis) "Ha~a..." (Mile)

Actually that technique is magic.

Regardless of the speed of swinging sword, it was completely magical power to off-set the magic that the opponent has shot. It was magical blade, so Maevis who couldn't use magic outside of her body, wouldn't be able to use it.

After that, Mile crawled into the bed, were depressed with a heavy mind with how she would make Maevis gave up on it.

(Haaa, why did I name those technique that way... How can I make Maevis give up without explaining the reasons...) (Mile) [Shall we help you?] (Nano-chan) (Uwa!) (Mile) Suddenly heard a voice, Mile was startled. (So suddenly, uhmm... so what?) (Mile) [Due to the misunderstanding of Maevis, we thought that we have caused trouble for Maevis as well, so we would like help a little... However, we already told Mile-sama many time before, you were holding back too much... please rely on us more] (Nano-chan) (T.N: I add "please rely on us more to make it more clear") Even Mile relied on nanomachines for a lot of things but she thought she shouldn't depend on them too much, so it never came to her mind to rely on nanomachines for this problem.

However, now that they told her they knew a way to solve the problem now, she was thankful and decided to take it.

Yes, that's the usual.

"That is that, this is this!"

(Mile) "Make a shelf in your heart!" (Mile)

t It was after the girls finished their request, so from the next day was the holidays. They had a serious fight this time so they had 3 consecutive holidays.

They already looked the request board in the guild yesterday evening and had no interesting request, everyone started taking free action from the morning.

“Maevis, will you go out with me today?” (Mile) After what she asked yesterday, and now Mile asked her out with a serious face, Maevis realized the content of the matter.

And Maevis also answered with a serious face.

“...my pleasure, allow me to accompany you” (Maevis) Hearing that reply, Mile nodded.

“We will go out with you as well” (Rena)

From the side, Rena wanted to join as well, like usual. However. “Please refrain this time” (Mile)

“Eh...!?” (Rena)

A clear rejection from Mile.

Maevis also rejected, made Rena dumbfound.

“This time, Mile will teach me her family’s secrets technique.

Even if she only give me a teaching, it’s an act like selling property of parents’ home for Mile. It was hard for Mile to make such decision...

It’s naturally outrageous to let others to see them as well. No matter how much close we are, it's not allowed.

And only this time, we don't allow you secretly follow us" (Maevis) Not only Mile, but also Maevis who is always gentle with other people declared so in a serious voice.

Rena also realized the existence of a line that must not cross. "Okay, okay, I understand, do it your way!" (Rena) Leaving Rena with a gave-up looking face and Paulin who shrugged her shoulder, Mile and Maevis went to the forest near the Capital.

Chapter 167

Special Move 2

Mile and Maevis came to the forest near the Capital. Of course, Rena and Pauline didn't come along.

They must respect their companies' private. "Then, let's begin" (Mile) "I'm in your care" (Maevis) Both Mile and Maevis had serious look.

"First we will start with a description of the technique. As you know, I am far weaker than Maevis-san about sword skill. All I have are only the speed and the power" (Mile) No, that [only] is a [wall that impossible to climb], so Maevis thought, but she decided to listen silently.

"However, that technique, it isn't due to speed and strength, no, actually in order to slash the flying magic, speed is still necessary..." (Mile) Yeah, Maevis nodded.

"What you need is the power of [Ki]" (Mile) (T.N: Ki in English mean like air, breath, gas however it's different, well, in RPG it will be EP or SP instead of MP) "Oh!" (Maevis)

If it was magic then Maevis might lose her motivation, however if it was [Ki] then she would believe she can do it.

As she thought so, her eyes were shining.

And Mile's explanation which is arranged stories heard from the nanomachines last night begin.

“Although Maevis can use the power of mind inside your body, you can't do it outside the body, right? Even [I am the incarnation of fire] was also coming from the inside of your body. But as long as that power don't leave your body, you can't put the power of mind on the sword to erase your opponent's magic bullet nor use the blade of mind” (Mile) “Eh... then, for me, I can't use it...” (Maevis) Maevis was frustrating but Mile hasn't done explaining yet.

“So, we will take physical measures to bring out the power of the mind out of the body. For now, I will need Maevis-san's blood and hair” (Mile) “Huh...!? No, I don't really mind! However if this is the case, I need to sell the soul to the demon in order to master that skill?” (Maevis) The part [Demonic] in the skill made Maevis think of blood and hair. Well, it's no use thinking about it now.

Mile received the sword from Maevis, pull it out of the sheath and put it on the ground. “Blood” (Mile) Hearing Mile's words, Maevis pulled out the dagger, which is her reserve weapon, and use the blade to cut her left arm without hesitation.

Mile sprinkled Maevis's blood on the sword and some spilled on the ground, and then placed the dagger Maevis had in hand near the sword and also applied blood to it.

“This is enough” (Mile)

Mile healed the wound on the left arm of Maevis, and the wounds disappeared cleanly. Then Mile cut Maevis's hair and sprinkles it on sword and dagger.

Mile didn't cut much, she just cut a little of the hair, so Maevis's appearance wasn't really changed. And her very short hair that Mile cut stuck to sword and dagger together with her blood.

(Nano-chan,
please!) (Mile) [Understood!] (Nanochan) The blood and hair were sucked in by the weapons and disappeared. The weapons were wrapped in a light made by Mile only to bring out the atmosphere.

And the both the sword and weapon were shining with slight golden and reddish compared to before.

Extension of Maevis's body, which took in the blood and hair of Maevis. And it served as an antenna.

Why is the devil's magical power stronger than other human-type races? [Because they have an external antenna].

Nanomachine explained to Mile so.

Only for the devil race, not for human race. Yes, it was the [Horn].

It grows directly from the cranium and protrudes a horn. That contributed to the efficient radiation of thought waves.

Maevis was incompetent to radiate thought waves to the outside.

The built-in antenna is out of question. Then, she just need to have an external antenna.

The sword and dagger that took in Maevis's blood and hair is pretty much as Maevis' body. Then, it's reasonable that the waves of thought could spread through the sword.

“Maevis-san, as I explained before. Right now, these weapon would be able to send Maevis's [Ki] to the outside, so you can train that technique now, please work hard until you learn it. And when you need to increase the power, please wet the hand holding the sword” (Mile) “Wet?” (Maevis)

“Yes, the resistance that impedes the transmission of [Ki] to the sword is the [contact resistance] generated at the contact part between the palm and the sword. When the contact part gets wet, the resistance becomes smaller and your [Ki] power transfer will be stronger. It doesn’t matter if it’s water or sweat, but the most effective thing is...” (Mile) “Blood, right?” (Maevis)

“.....Yes” (Mile)

For her to have a right answer for Mile explanation, Maevis laughed happily.

Yes, no matter how high the voltage is, as long as the resistance value is large, the current will not flow.

This is why there are many electric shock accidents in the summer.

If the palm is wet with sweat, the contact resistance decreases and a large current flows.

Likewise, when the palm is wet with blood or directly connected to the sword through the wound, the thought wave would flow easily to the sword.

And the sword in which the thought wave has flowed, would emit the thought wave around the periphery as an antenna and works on the surrounding nanomachines.

Yes, in addition not only the small amount of nanomachines in the body but also nanomachines outside the body can be used.

“But please train it normally, especially when practicing... If you only practice in an easy-to-use state, it won’t be a training. Beside, if you wet your hands, the sword might be slipped out of your hand...”

(Mile) “Mile, what do you think the swordsman is? Do you think the swordsman can let their sword slip out of their hand just with something like hand wet from water, sweat or blood? In addition, why do think that the handle was wrapped in a complex pattern for?”

(Maevis) “Oh, is that so?” (Mile)

“Mile... even though you are a magician, but you are still a magic [swordsman], and you don’t know what the swordsman is...?”

(Maevis) Maevis was both surprised and tired.

And Mile’s guidance started just by saying [Magical power] as [Ki], the special training for Maevis continued.

After the first day was over and when it's dark, they came back to the inn. Maevis's body was deadly tired but her eyes glittered.

"Please give today's [Let's play with Faryl-chan] for Maevis-san as a reward for her hardship..." (Mile) Rena and Pauline nodded to Mile's request.

[The fluffy healing] is necessary for the present Maevis. Everyone thought so.

Second day. Maevis came back to the inn. Her original slender body became even thinner.

And although she was wobbly, her eyes were glittering.

"Please wait a second, Mile, is it really okay? Isn't it better for her to take rest for tomorrow training?" (Rena) "Well, I think so, too..." (Pauline) Rena and Pauline said that.

"It's no use saying that to me..." (Mile) ".....I will go tomorrow. Even if Mile doesn't come, I will go even by myself. A bit more, just a little more..." (Maevis) Maevis fell into bed and lost consciousness, she said so with a groaning voice.

"As you heard. She would go even if we tried to stop her. That's why rather than let her go alone, I should go along to take care of her" (Mile) If Mile already said so, they couldn't stop anymore.

Rena and Pauline decided to believe and leave everything to Mile. And Mile was suffering.

Maevis would probably acquire that skill soon.

And then.

(The name for that skill, what shall I do...?) (Mile)

Chapter 168

Special Moves 3

(T.N: This chapter is mostly Mile's POV) ([Vacuum slash], [Magic blade slash], [Supreme Magic blade] Aaaa, I can't come up with a good name...) (Mile) Mile was suffering while watching over Maevis' training.

This would a serious business because Maevis would use that skill name in public in the future, she couldn't mess this up.

And then.

Hyu~! (SFX)

Something semitransparent distortion left from the sword that Maevis swung and hit the shrub a few meters away.

“Ah.....” (Maevis)

Maevis was dumbfound and stunned.

“Congratulations, you had learned [Tempest Blade] technique! All that left is refining your speed, power, and apply this technique with self-discipline” (Mile) “U, u~a, aaaaa” (Maevis)

Maevis was sitting with her knee on the ground and shedding tears.

“It is still early to rejoice, Maevis-san. Next technique, the Demonic sword secret skill [Anti Magic Sword], you will need to concentrate your power of mind to your sword and negate enemy's magical bullets or deflect it. If you don't master this, you can't fight equally against magician opponents!” (Mile)

“Oh, I get it. Of course, I will do my best!” (Maevis) While shedding tears, Maevis laughed and her eyes were shining. Meanwhile Mile thought.

(Great, I was able to come up with a good name just in time!) (Mile) Mile chose the name Tempest Blade so that people who heard that name knew right away it was wind magic.

It would be troublesome to explain [that technique] over and over again, and if people thought that was a sword skill and could be used even by those who can't use magic, it would be serious.

If that happens, swordsmen who can not use the magic around this the world would rush to Maevis and request teaching.

t That night

The second night bell (21 o'clock) has passed, in the room of the [Red Oath]. “Well, it does not bother me. Such bliss” (Mile) Maevis had monopolized Faryl again.

“Hey, Mile! Why did Maevis become so confident, or rather absurd!” (Rena) “Haha.....” (Mile) Maevis had a hard time today as well, there was no other choice but let her enjoy the Fluffy Healing today.

Mile knew that however...

t (Are you there, Nanomachine-san who take care of Maevis sword and dagger?) (Mile) (T.N: Mile use 2 calling way: nanomachine-san and nano-chan) “Yes!” (sword NM-san) “Yes!” (dagger NM-san) That night, after everyone slept, Mile talked to Nanomachine-san that managing Maevis’ main weapon shortsword, and reserve weapon dagger with a thought wave, and their representatives replied.

(Thank you for everything. And if the weapon became un-usable, falled in the crater of the volcano, got stolen, etc and the possibility that Maevis got the weapon back was almost zero, I want you to immediately left the weapon and move to the next sword that Maevis use and one again made it an external antenna...) (Mile) “Understood, our mission from now is attending Maevis-dono’s weapon for a lifetime. We will do our best. Please be at ease...” (sword NM-san) “Yes, you can count on us!” (dagger NM-san) Mile felt relieved to have the representatives of both weapon promised.

Right now, Maevis can use magic with the power of [Ki] without [Micros]. Because the sword can radiate a thought wave as an external antenna, it can also work on external nanomachines. However, since Maevis’ radiant power was originally weak, unless she equiped with the 2 secret swords, she still couldn’t use magic properly.

But if she lost the current secret swords, she wouldn’t able to use magic anymore. Not only her power would decrease greatly but it would also effect her life. Mile was a bit scared, with Maevis’ personality, it wouldn’t be surprised if she wet her sword holding hand with blood to use that technique.

However with this, even Maevis lost [her beloved family sword and changed to a new sword, all the secret skill would be available].

Perhaps when that time comes, the nanomachines will manipulate and fuse some of Maevis Blood or cells with the new sword or something. Mile decided to trust nanomachines with that.

And although Maevis was mentally healed, but her physical exhaustion was so intense, the [Red Oath] extended the holidays for another 3 days.

t “Are you okay now, Maevis-san?” (Mile)

“It’s okay, it doesn’t hurt that much anymore” (Maevis) It wasn’t anything serious, I mean, it was just some muscle pain.

After that 3 days special training, of course she would end with intense muscle pain.

I don’t think that pain would delay after 3 days behind, perhaps, she was already sore from the first day but suppressed it with her mental power.

It came all at once because she felt relaxed after accomplishing her purpose. The day after the secret training, Maevis wasn’t able to get up from the bed. I couldn’t just use healing magic.

Muscle pain should wait for nature to heal. Mile insisted so.

Muscle fibers damaged by intense exercise are repaired and become stronger muscles.

If we heal the muscle pain that occurs at that time and by saying [returning it to its original state], it will waste all the precious training.

In order for human being to grow, Mile thought that they shouldn’t overuse the magic, get tired use recovery magic, muscle aches use healing magic, repeat things endlessly.

Thus, Maevis’ 3 days resting was decided. And today is the day after 3 days rest.

The 3 girls wanted to extend the holidays, however [I can't cause everyone any more inconvenience] Maevis strongly insisted. And the girls were heading to the guild branch.

It wasn't early in the morning but was a little late.

Even Maevis was eager to go checking "the most fierce request" first thing in the morning. However other girls weren't so motivated.

"What's that?" (Pauline)

As they heard Pauline asked so, the girls turned their line of sight, in front of a certain shop it was crowded with people.

The stores in this area are mostly for individual customers. And the shop where people was gathering was such private store, apparently it was a drug store.

Medicinal store.

Why there are drug stores in this world?

Of course, there are healing magic in this world, but, it's not like you can always secure a healer magician nearby.

This world, the number of people can use magic is rather low.

The most common one is weak magician that can merely create a little water or flame for daily work. Only a rare number of magicians are strong and can use healing magic or attack magic.

While attack magic is difficulty with [imagining multiple processes at the same time], the curative magic is difficulty with [concretely imagining a phenomenon of healing process when they don't understand how it work themselves]. They both are difficult and high technique.

The [Wonder Three] and [Red Oath] were taught by Mile about the structure of the human body, cell division, nerves and blood vessels, etc., that's why they can concretely imagine (unconsciously instruct the nanomachine) the injury healing process with overwhelming efficiency.

However if that was an ordinary healer magician, he merely cast magic with [Fix the broken bone], [stop the bleeding] or [block the open part of the wound] and of course, the nerve, blood vessel , tendons and the like would still remain broken.

Also, in the case of disease rather than injury, if you cast a recovery spell poorly, you may activate the cause of the illness instead, and the patient often get worse.

For that reason, people often doesn't use healing magic for diseases, except for cases such as [incureable disease] to relieve patient of their pain.

Besides, even if you can cure a disease with magic, the patient won't get resistance (antibody), the disease often reappears quickly due to a few remaining pathogenic bacteria.

Healing magic isn't all-purpose... except for Mile.

Mile didn't teach healing magic for disease in the [Red Oath].

At the most, she only instructed basic hygiene ideas such as [Wash hands when returning to the inn and before eating] and [Do not pick up dropped foods],etc.

If anyone get sick, Mile can easily deal with it herself.

On the contrary, she was afraid of unsuccessful treatment from other girls would causing fatal consequences.

The danger is quite high. Mile was judging so, and that would be the right decision. If cancer cells are subjected to increase natural healing speed, the disease will be spread instead of healing.

Only medium-sized merchant or merchant group might hire healer magician hunter accompany, normal travelers can't have such treatment.

That is why doctors and pharmacists were existed in the world that had healing magics.

And, rather than visit a doctor everytime for medicine, people often visit a drug store that selling drugs and medicines.

And the store that people were gathering right now was the said drug store. [Red Oath]'s policy is doing anything that seems to be interesting.

Besides, because Maevis strongly insisted that the girls were heading to the guild to receive request, but the other three were shipwrecked because they thought that Maevis should rest a little more.

As she saw the other three turned their head to watch... “Let’s listen to the circumstances!” (Pauline) Pauline suggested so.

Chapter 169

Aura family 1

“Excuse me for a moment, what’s all this commotion about?” (Pauline) Being asked by a cute girl with big tits, there was no way any young male would feel bother. He was about 17 to 18 years old. He explained with pleasure.

“Okay, did you see 3 peoples over there. One of them is the store owner, the other one is a big merchant group chairman, and the last one is the baron’s butler. The baron’s daughter was sick from long ago, and the butler was coming today to get the herbal medicine that they reserved that arrived today, however it seems that the chairman interrupted the purchase” (Young man) The young man pointed to the 3 men that were fighting against each other, and explained so.

“ “ “ “Huh.....” “ “ “

(Red Oath) This

shouldn’t happen.

The 4 girls thought so.

In the first place, the Store owner could just clearly decline with [it is an reservation item].

Pauline said to young man so.

“That should be the case, but it would be hard for a small merchant to go against a big merchant group chairman, who know what he would do in the commercial guild, partner, etc.” (Young man) “But that only happens with ordinary people, however this time is noble, can he go against the noble?” (Pauline) As Pauline asked, the young man shrugged his shoulders.

“Even if the partner is a noble, but he is only a mere baron. It’s not weird for him to have a weaker position than a big merchant chairman. Not to mention, the capital isn’t his province territory, even if he is an aristocratic he can’t just use force against civilians. Not to mention the other party is a large merchant chairman that involve to the goods and money circulation. Besides, that isn’t a noble, but a butler. His position is even weaker” (Young man)
“.....” (Pauline)

Pauline thanked the young man and turned towards Mile and other girls. She was obviously felt discomfort that it showed up in her face.

((Oh, here she goes...)) (Mile + Rena + Maevis) Mile and other girls have seen this kind of expression from Pauline several times. Yes, it was the same as Mile’s expressionless face.

It looks like Pauline had a [dedication as a merchant].

Even Pauline had been doing quite a lot of things, but the girls still couldn’t grasp her criterion.

Also, [as a merchant] isn’t correct, Pauline is a daughter of a merchant, she isn’t a merchant.

At the same time, other girls could understand the criteria of Mile’s judgment as well. Same goes for Maevis, she was doing with her own judgment of value in the position of a knight, but she isn’t a knight.

...The topic that should not be touched. The girls never tried touching them.

“As I said, that herbal medicine is what my master, the baron had been asking for the our sick lady!” (Butler) “Even if you have signed a contract, but you still haven’t paid in advance, then selling it to those who gave high values would be the right choice as a merchant. Isn’t that right, store owner?” (Chairman) Of course the store owner had no courage to made an influential merchant into a n enemy, or to refuse a request from an aristocrat. That’s why the only thing he could say was...

“About that... , can you two decide it by yourself...”

(Store owner) Yes, this reply of the Store owner was the source of stalemate.

Pauline took a glance at the three people and confirmed that other girls nodded, and then she interrupted the conversation of the 3 men.

“Excuse me, can I have a word?” (Pauline)

Under normal circumstances, they might said something like [do not involve with our business!].

But right now they were in a stalemate, the merchant chairman was confident of his superiority and affordable, he didn't really care that much about some random girls, but unexpected he agreed...

“Well, that's fine, what is it?” (Chairman) Pauline was expecting to be refused, she was a little relieved to have it easy. Now that he agreed, it would be easier to proceed.

“Well, I knew the butler wanted the herbal medicine to cure the sick lady. What's about you? What did you need it for? Someone you knew got sick?” (Pauline) Heard Pauline's question, the chairman answered with a laugh.

“No, that's not the case. Since I am a merchant, I purchase items with commodity value, that's all” (Chairman) “ “ “ “ “Huh?” “ “ “ “ (Everyone)

Surprises voices came out not only from Pauline and other members of the [Red Oath] but also from the butler, store owner and the people who gathered in the place.

Everyone thought that this merchant chairman craved for herbal medicine with some special circumstances that he forcibly interfered.

The reason that he was interfering the butler to get the herbal medicine for a sick noble lady, just for making money?

Besides, he didn't even try to hide it but said it out loud... Did he even have common sense.

“...Is that medicine so expensive?” (Pauline) Pauline asked the store owner this time.

“No, it wasn't actually expensive, however it wasn't popular and not something that I could easy sell. That's why I didn't stock herbal medicine. Because of the baron request, I purchased it from other place that needed 6 days to transfer in total and it costed about 5 gold coins” (Store owner) 5 gold coins are equivalent to about 500,000 japanese yen, for a herbal medicine that you don't know whether it works or not. It isn't cheap for the commoner, but for nobility and rich merchants it isn't a big deal.

“You are willing to quarrel against aristocrat just for that. Besides, if you did something like this, the reputation of your group will fall., why would you bother to do that...” (Pauline) The chairman responded calmly to Pauline's question.

“No, I am specialized in large-scale transactions and wholesalers, my customers are mostly some important aristocrat. Because I don't use retailers, I don't care about such thing like the reputation with common people.

And 5 gold coins that the Store owner said is just normal price.

If there is anyone who wants it so badly, the selling price will raise a lot.

Later, I will sell the medicine that [we don't even know when will it be available even if the store owner arranging new purchase now] with about 10 times as much value to the aristocrat that can oppose this baron.

I don't care about how the higher aristocrat will use the medicine though" (Chairman) The butler had a bitter face as he listened to it.

“Yes, indeed... that was really merchant-like...” (Pauline) “You get it, don’t you?”

(Chairman) The chairman anticipates Pauline’s words.

“If so, how about an auction? It is a technique to squeeze enough money from those who absolutely want it without regard to the value of goods or the purchase price, and no one accuses it” (Chairman) “Uu...” (Pauline) Pauline was stuck.

Rena pushed Mile’s back and signaled [Let help her], but there are things that she couldn’t think of a good way to resolve.

When Mile was thinking about a counter-argument, the merchant chairman continued proposing his suggestion.

“Shouldn’t we do this when we can’t compromised with each other? Is it better if we have an [auction] here, the better payment win? If we do so, the store owner will also make a profit, right, is there any complaint? Of course, the money will be paid in full here and now. No postpay” (Chairman) While saying so, the chairman pulled out a drawstring bag from his waist.

(Even the contents of that bag are all gold coins, it isn’t that much money. I have the amount money prepared for purchase of herbal medicine and the reserve prepared for unforeseen circumstances, worst case I can just add my own personal money. It can’t be less than his money in that bag...) (Butler) The Baron butler stared at his purse bag and judged so. “I agree to have an auction!” (Butler) ((Haaaaah...)) (Pauline + Mile) Pauline was hitting her forehead (facepalm) while Mile shuddered her shoulder.

Rena and Maevis seemed to be completely unaware, but Pauline and Mile were well aware.

In this scenario, it's impossible for a merchant to give his opponent a winning chance. He must have a trick up his sleeve And most of the surrounding audiences, especially the majority of those who seemed to be merchants, looked to the butler with a shrugged shoulder, a bitter smile, or a sorry face...

Chapter 170

Aura family 2

“Is the shopkeeper okay with that, too?” (Chairman) The shopkeeper was asked so by the Chairman, nodded in nervous.

Well, with this method, he wouldn't get any grudge from the Chairman or the Aristocrat that both have influence on the commercial guild, and the selling price is likely to jump a lot. There was nothing bad at all.

“Well, First of all, from me, I pay 5 gold coins.” (Chairman) That said, the Chairman took out 5 gold coins from his drawstring bag and placed it on the platform of the shop.

“7 gold coins!” (Butler)

Rather than raised the price a lot, the Chairman raised the price slowly and wait until the opponent give up “8 gold coins” (Chairman) Different from Chairman that just added an additional gold coin, the butler once again raised 2 gold coins.

“10 gold coins!” (Butler)

And after a while, the value raised steadily and finally reached 25 gold coins. However, there was no impatience in the butler's face.

(Looking at the swelling condition of that drawstring bag, his gold coins should not even exceed 30, it's probably 27 to 28, it's about to run out. On the other hand, I have 20 gold coins from my master in case there is a large amount of herbal medicine in stock, and 10 gold coins which are always kept in preparation for unforeseen events.

Plus with my personal pocket 3 gold coins and 5 small gold coins...) (Butler) Because of the chairman, the butler must spend the unexpected expense.

But even though Baron is a lower aristocrat, they can still afford 20-30 gold coins. "Then, 27 gold coins... ohhh!?" (Chairman) When the chairman raised 2 more gold coins, there was only 1 gold coin left in the drawstring bag. Apparently, it seems that he was running out of gold coins.

(.....won!) (Butler)

When the butler thought so.

"Well, I will bring out one more, it was keep out of the drawstring bag..." (Chairman) As he was saying so, the chairman put his hand in the pocket.

(He still can't win even if he has 1 or 2 more gold coins) (Butler) The butler thought so, and relaxed his cheek. However... "Oh, there it is! 27 gold coins in total!" (Chairman) That said, the merchant put one coin on the table and took back 9 gold coins to the drawstring bag.

" " " " "Ehhh....." " " " " (Butler + Red Oath+ Everyone) The butler, the members of the [Red oath], and the audience as well dumbfound looked at the table.

A coin that placed on a table. It was an Orichalcum coin. In this world, platinum has little value.

Platinum resembling silver but having a higher melting point than silver and could not be melted by silver processing equipment. It was treated as a [pseudo silver].

Only the legendary metal like Mithril or Orichalcum are worth more than gold.

Weapons made from them are rare weapons that Average (ordinary) people can never possess.

It is natural because it corresponds to the sword made of platinum on the earth. And the value of the coin made by Orichalcum, was equivalent to 10 gold coins.

It wasn't usually used for trading in general towns, and there were no people carrying it around... , it was supposed to be so.

“What’s wrong? It’s 27 gold coins?”

(Chairman) The chairman grinned.

“Was this it...?” (Pauline)

Pauline said with a groovy voice.

The chairman finally used his trick up his sleeve. But it’s not a cowardly trick.

It is quite common for merchants and travelers to hide spare money in case of emergency.

The butler was just naive. It was just that.

The face of the butler was distorted by astonishment, dismay, and anguish. If it was normal, this defeat would become a good experience.

But this time, it's an important matter concerned with his master's daughter health and life.

There was also the possibility that this could tarnish his master name with how naive he was.

A situation that failure or defeat are never allowed. And now he lost it.

The face of the butler was dyed in despair.

“How do you like it? are you surrender?”

(Chairman) “Well... , Ah...” (Butler) A butler became pale.

“That butler, if it’s like this, his punishment can be severe...” (Mile) Mile do not know if there is a custom called [Seppuku] around here, but Mile muttered so.

Rena-trio were told by Mile [The story of those who were working for the royal palace, as they failed their duty, they killed themselves to show the loyal as an apology]. That was the explanation about [Seppuku].

As Rena-trio suddenly remembered it, Pauline glared at the chairman... “.....Are you going?” (Mile) And she nodded to Mile.

“Can I have a minute?” (Pauline)

Even Pauline cut in again, the Chairman didn’t seem to mind and nodded.

“It’s okay. Because my problem was solved thanks to the young lady’s words as a hint about an auction. So, what can I do for you this time?” (Chairman) “Oh, it’s fine if you can wait for a minute. Mile, please isolate!” (Pauline) “Yes!” (Mile)

“What?” (Chairman) Because the chairman allowed it, Pauline asked Mile for an isolation barrier.

With this, Pauline and the butler are separated from the chairman with different insulation barrier, and each other's words can not be heard.

Everyone else was also covered by another barrier, they shouldn't complain about Pauline talking in private with the butler.

As Pauline, if she could talk with a butler in secret then it was good enough. Everyone could only see Pauline and butler talking without knowing details.

And gradually, the eyes of the butler gradually opened wide, and it seemed that he was really surprised.

Furthermore, he bent his waist toward Pauline, rather than bowing, the butler's gesture are like a hatless salute in the military.

The angle that bent its upper body deeply was close to 45 degrees.

In Japanese Self Defense Force, ordinary hatless salute is 10 degrees, and I hear that there is only the VIPs or Emperor got salute with 45 degrees.

How could Pauline get that much respect from that butler?

Then Pauline gave signal to Mile. It's a signal to cancel the isolation barrier. Mile saw it and instantly lifted the barrier.

“What, what was it...?” (Chairman) The chairman has never heard or seen about a sound isolation barrier and was really surprised, but Pauline ignored him.

It was because the circumstances this time must be done quickly before the chairman changed his mind.

“Everyone!” (Pauline)

Pauline shouted loudly against the surrounding crowd.

“Everyone, you already knew about the circumstances. So, this butler wants a loan from you under the name of his master, the Baron!” (Pauline) “ “ “ “ “Whaaaaaaaat?” “ “ “ “ (Everyone)

The audience raised the voice of confusion without knowing the meaning.

“That is, he wants you to lend him money now. For those who lend the money, he will immediately return the money once he is back the mansion and give the same amount as interest. That means your money will be double in no time!” (Pauline) “ “ “ “ “OOOOHH!” “ “ “ “ (Everyone)

Pauline continued.

“And then! If the medicine can be obtained thanks to your cooperation and the lady can be recovered with it! His master will invite all the people who gave out loans to a party for a lady’s recovered celebration!

As a benefactor, you will be invited to a party of aristocracy and can even handshake with the lady, a dreamlike opportunity for commoners! It’s once in a lifetime chance you can talk over and over with the lady! For now, we will accept up to 10 gold coins, the first come, first served!

Well, everyone, please share your money for the Aura family only for a little while!” (Pauline)

“ “ “ “ “Oooooooooo!” “ “ “ “

(Everyone) Peoples started rushing.

Pauline was dumbfound with the fuss even more than expected.

Rena and Maevis rushed to Pauline and guarding Pauline from people's waves, not to be crushed.

And Mile muttered as she stunned.

“Wow, Cash (American Foot-) ball...” (Mile)

Chapter 171

Aura family 3

The game was decided.

This is a shopping street and there are many merchants in the audience.

No matter how small or poor a merchant is, he always keeps at least 1 to 2 gold coins beside the money in drawstring bag in preparation for a sudden situation.

Yes, just like the previous Orichalcum coin from the chairman. So, you can gather 10 gold coins easily.

And even if that's still not enough, you can just borrow more, you can even borrow as much as you can.

There was no win chance for the chairman anymore. "28 Gold coins!" (Butler) The butler just raised only a single coin but the game is already finished. "...I gave up" (Chairman) As expected of a large merchant group chairman, he already realized it and gave up.

"I was defeated... I am totally losing this time... you outwitted me, young lady..." (Chairman) While saying that with a smile, a merchant collected his gold coins on top of the table and putting back.

"Well, let's have fun again later, young lady!" (Chairman) He was unexpectedly cheerful for a losing person, as he left in good mood, the

and the [red oath] had blank faces.

“...That’s unexpected, is he planning something?” (Rena) As Rena said that, one of the merchants in the crowd came near and talked to Rena. “I think you don’t need to worry about that” (Merchant) “Eh?” (Rena)

The merchant explained to Rena that was dumbfound.

“Even that man is a tricky merchant, but he is actually a nice guy” (Merchant) “Wh, what’s that!?” (Rena) That was [huge mini 4WD] or [honest lie], which means what he said contradiction with what he did. Rena was shouting as she heard that.

“Ah, I mean, he was usually playing dirty to enjoy himself but he was never doing anything unreasonable or violate the rules. That’s why, even if he won this auction, I think that he’d likely sell back it to the butler or the Baron himself at the price that plus 1 or 2 gold coins at best (6-7 gold coins). Only the medicine shop keeper can earn a lot of money this time. Well, something like that...” (Merchant) The merchant took a glance at the store keeper of the medicine shop and continued.

“Well, he seems to have fun this time. It seems that he enjoy this rather than hostile to any of you. Perhaps even if the shop keeper refused him before, he might not even do anything bad to him, I think...” (Merchant) As he said that, the merchant laughed.

Some of the merchant-like peoples in the audience seemed to know that as well and they were laughing together.

Both the butler and the [Red oath] were dumbfound. “ “ “ “ “Huh.....?” “ “ “ “

“Then why did you cooperate with the loan? If you knew it, even if you leave us alone...” (Pauline) As the merchant heard Pauline said that, he looked at other men and said.

“Well, we are all merchants, we can not miss the opportunity to double the gold coins in the blinks right? in addition...” (Merchant) “ “ “ “ “We’d like to shake hands with the nobleman’s daughter and talk with her!” “ “ “ “ (Lot of merchants) Pauline dropped her shoulder as she heard everyone’s voice from the surroundings. However, Pauline got herself back quick. She still had something to do.

“Shopkeeper, what are you going to do with those gold coins?” (Pauline) “Eh.....” (Shop keeper) The shop keeper was dumbfound with what Pauline said.

There are a lot of gold coins that the butler stacked up on the table.

If he wasn’t doing anything, those gold coins would become his money.

“A shop that allow others disturbe the deal from the sideways and selling goods at a price nearly six times of normal while already accepting reservations from aristocrats. If you are really doing it in front of these audience, will there be anyone order from this store in the future?” (Pauline) “Eh.....!!?” (Shop keeper)

Shopkeeper was silent, it seems that he finally understood what he did.

Merchants that deal with products such as clothing and food items don’t have to worry because there’re many customers.

However, for a drug shop. Unless you have an abudant type of medicines with many purpose, you won’t have many customers.

And this medicine shop is the type that deal with herbal medicine that rarely anyone use.

“Well, what am I going to do... that...” (Shop Keeper) “Whether or not you intended to do so, you already did it. We all knew the situation, you was not really at fault, however you accepted competition of an outsider.

In other words, you are the one who did that kind of thing, This shop is a shop with a business policy that allow something like that for his profit. In the end, you lost your credibility in exchange for more than 20 gold coins, don't you agree?” (Pauline) The shop keeper couldn't refuse the chairman because he was afraid the pressure of a leading merchant, it was somewhat forgivable.

However, now that the chairman already left.

As a result, only the fact that customer that reserved the medicine must pay 23 gold coins more than original price remain.

“ “ “ “ “.....” “ “ “ “ (Everyone) Everyone is looking at the shop keeper.

Compared with the loss of credibility and customers and the shop collapsed, 23 gold coins is not that much.

The shopkeeper's face turned pale and the sweat spread to his cheek.

The reason why the merchant explained earlier was because he anticipated this.

It wasn't only that he enjoyed the bargaining but also giving a trial to this shopkeeper...

“Why are you saying that? I only did it because of the pressure from a strong merchant, it's related to the survival of our shop, Of course, I still prefer to give the herbal medicines to the butler. Auction, it's just a way to win, It is not to determined the herb's selling price initially. Of course, I also hate it!” (Shop keeper) For a weak shopkeeper, he gave up quite easy under pressure.

Is it unreasonable?

Well, if he did it badly here, his store will definitely be crushed. “Oh, was it so! Forgive me, I had said weird things...” (Pauline) “No, I do not really care. Hahaha.....” (Shop keeper) “Haha.....” (Pauline) “ “Ahahahahahahaha!” “ (Pauline + Shop keeper) It ended peacefully.

However, there was no one here really thought that this shopkeeper was a bad person, that’s why they just looked at the scene with a bitter smile.

“This time, thank you very much. Even that merchant or shopkeeper said that, but I don’t know if that’s really true. Thanks to everyone, I got the medicine safely for M’lady and didn’t tarnish the baron’s family name...” (Butler) The butler who collected the gold coins on the table and paid only original price 5 gold coins. And he thanked the [Red oath].

He did a salute with angle of 45 degrees.

For this butler, [Red oath] are as respectable as gods.

“It’s okay, because we did what we liked. Uhm, Butler-san, hurry up and take medicine back to the mansion...” (Pauline) Called so by Pauline, the butler finally noticed that he had not mentioned yet.

“Oh, I have not even introduced myself yet! What a disrespectful impression to my benefactors... I am a butler of Baron Aura family, my name is Dunbine!” (Butler) “Oh, I’m Pauline, C rank hunter [Red Oath]’s member” (Pauline)

“I’m the leader, Maevis”

(Maevis) “Rena” (Rena)

“Minami Haruo... Ah, no, I’m Mile” (Mile) Rena

glared at Mile and she rephrased in a hurry.

However, in Mile’s head,

she wanted to scream.

(Aura Butler Dunbine!!) (Mile) (T.N: Anime: Aura Battler Dunbine)

Chapter 172

Aura family 4

“I would like to invite you all to the aura family’s mansion...” (Dunbine)
After paying double back to the people who lent money, the Baron Aura butler Dubbine invited only the [Red oath].

Well, he didn’t borrow much so he only lost a few gold coins. “Uhm, about that... I... am not good with aristocrats” (Rena) “ “ “Eh.....” “ “ (Pauline + Mile + Maevis) 3 other girls raised their surprised voice to Rena’s words. And listening to it, Rena realized.

When she thinks about it again, there are aristocrats in the [Red oath] with ranks that are even higher than the baron.

Plus, they were were hold high esteem even by the Royal family. “Well... that’s true...”

Nobility background rate average is at 50 percent. There was no other hunter party with this rate. “Thanks for inviting us!” (Mile) “ “ “Huh?” “ “ (Pauline + Rena + Maevis) Even though the girls were a little surprised for Mile’s decision, and they knew Mile doesn't really want to have a connection with nobles, however Mile agreed to it.

So, Everyone acknowledged it as well.

Even though Baron is a low class aristocrat, but that butler went out with his master's important order, so of course he came with carriage.

The girls boarded on the carriage and headed to the Aura Baron's mansion.

Although Dunbine had came here on carriage, but on the way home he let the [Red oath] sit in the carriage, and he sat next to the driver.

There are only a little space to sit, and he would refrain from riding in the carriage with the guests.

Because half of the members are not aristocrats, he showed consideration for other girls to calm down with each other until they reach the mansion.

“...and what is the purpose?” (Rena)

If there was no reason, Mile would not visit aristocracy, which is troublesome. Heard Rena's question in the carriage, Mile replied.

“Oh, I'd like to see the illness of the Baron's daughter... That medicine is just herbal medicine, so it maybe used for nourishment only, even if she drinks it, it won't cure her illness. And perhaps, with my knowledge in my country, I might know how to treat that illness...” (Mile) “Yeah, I also thought you'd say that” (Rena) Maevis and Pauline were also nodding with Rena.

“Mile-chan, then maybe you can use magic treatment...” (Pauline) “Well, that depends on the circumstances, but if we do something wrong, we will end up as a murderer instead” (Mile) Yes, unlike injuries, if you use healing magic on a sick person, poor performance will lead to sudden deterioration, which may lead to death of the patient.

It's a reason why magic can not be used for illness.

Besides, fever and coughing are the reactions necessary for the body to fight disease.

When your body gets near 40 degrees fever, it's necessary to lower the heat in order to protect the brain and reproductive function, But when it's not serious, suppressing symptoms is unnecessary, sometimes it's bad instead.

Mile had taught Pauline some basic medical knowledge, so she must be aware of the way to use it somehow, and she must know that magic can do some degree of disease treatment.

But this isn't something that she could use lightly for nobles.

Because failure is un-acceptable, it's not simply acceptable if the patient doesn't get better.

"Well, anyway, I will try to do as much as I can..." (Mile) Mile smiled as she said that.

"Oh, by the way, Pauline-san, why did you do such a troublesome thing? If it's about 10 gold coins, we could easily..." (Mile) Heard Mile's question, Pauline answered like it's obvious.

"Oh, that's no good, because if we were lending money, it wasn't a deal or a business. Yes, we have to fight properly as a proper deal, proper business. In addition..." (Pauline) "In addition?" (Mile) "If he can't pay it, it will be a big loss. We may lend money to relative or a friend, however I will not lend money to someone I do not know, no matter any circumstances they have!" (Pauline) (((Uwa.....))) (Rena + Mile + Maevis) Well, Pauline is Pauline after all.

t “Please wait for a while” (Dunbine) After leading the girl to the guestroom and prepared tea and sweets, Dunbine disappear.

Of course, he goes to explain the circumstances to his master and ask for meeting. “Delicious.....” (Rena) Rena tasted the black tea and packed sweets, gave out her impression. “Yes, delicious...” (Pauline) Pauline as well.

Even though it was normal for Mile, who had been carefully brought up as a wealthy aristocrat and lived with her family in her previous life, to be eating delicious food.

But for Rena, a daughter of a small pedler, or Pauline daughter of a merchant that lived a simple life, these sweets seemed to be quite luxury.

“If we left things out, it will be rude” (Rena) Rena tried to eat more than a quarter amount, obviously thought of a reason to explain.

“Ah, please wait!” (Mile) And, in a hurry, Mile tried to secure some for her as well.

Even though she used to eat delicious things a long time ago, but in recent years she lived even worse than commoners.

Besides, Mile has bad fuel consumption, she was getting hungry really soon.

Although Mile mostly gives foods to other people, this time as well. However she doesn't mean to give up everything to Rena.

“Hey, wait, that was... mine...” (Rena) “What are you saying, isn’t this my share...?” (Mile) “Rena probably ate more than a quarter already!” (Pauline) “ “ “Gunuunuu...” “ “ (Mile + Rena + Pauline) Pauline also participated in the war, and the mood became rather bad. “Uhm, if you do not mind, I will bring you a substitute... so...” (Maid) “ “Eh?” “ (Mile + Rena) When Mile and Rena looked back, there was a maid standing with a troubled face.

Yes, a capable servant will not leave important guests alone. Dunbine had arranged the maid properly.

“...I’m sorry, please” (Pauline)

Pauline thought that her part wouldn’t remain the same, shyly asked so. And Rena was blushing a little.

“I beg you, don’t make me so embarrassed...” (Maevis) Apparently, it seems that this commotion is something that can’t be tolerated by the child of the nobility, Maevis.

However, for another child of the aristocrat, no, Mile is the exclusive aristocracy, so It doesn’t seem to be a big problem.

t “Thank you for waiting, Baron Aura would like to meet all of you and would like to say thank...” (Dunbine) After all of the alternative sweets were eaten, the butler Dunbine returned, guided everyone to another room.

“Welcome to the Aura family, I’m Herval von Aura. I appreciate your help this time. Thanks to you, we got our reserved herbal medicine for my daughter, Litoria without any problems, And you also prevent our Aura family from being shamed in front of the merchant. No, on the contrary, now that we outwitted that greedy merchant, the reputation of the Aura family would have been raised. I’d like to ask you joining us for lunch” (Herval) “ “ “With pleasure !!” “ “ (Rena + Mile + Pauline) The voices of three girls except Maevis were raised together. Maevis had a bitter smile.

For Rena and Pauline, this is an opportunity that only happen several times in a lifetime, such as tasting noble food.

And for Miles, authentic aristocratic meals are experienced in [Integrated Adel’s memory].

But after she remembered her past life and lived as Mile, she never tasted it. And now is the chance to experience it.

Except for Maevis, she lived as a daughter of an Earl which was spoiled by her family, she had the pride to keep and she also might already tire of eating such foods.

“Ah, that’s right, joining us for lunch isn’t the rewards. Of course, our Aura family would prepare an appropriate remuneration. Please be relieved” (Herval) However, [Red oath] weren’t really interested with the Baron’s words.

The baron didn’t notice that and only smiled with the [Red oath] which were a little interested in the talk of reward, the girls were looking forward to the lunch instead.

“...If so, would you please reward us as appointment request?” (Maevis) “Oh, of course, are you sure you don’t mind?” (Herval)

“Certainly! please do it so” (Maevis) Different from the 3 girls, whose heads were full of lunch and reaction was delayed, Maevis asked the baron.

Nomination request from a noble.

Although it is a post-treatment, it's still count a big point for promotion.

Though passing the guild, part of fee will be taken, but the girls are not in trouble with money., And [Red oath] give priority to promotion rather than money, that wasn't a big problem. For anyone other than Pauline, who place importance on money rather than promotion.

Baron also knows well about the Hunter Guild, of course.

Therefore, from what Maevis said, he understood that this [Red oath] party weren't troubling with money despite being a young girls' party.

“Well, let's talk with my family at lunch at lunch time, it's an opportunity to hear interesting stories from young female hunter group, If I'm the only one listening, my family will be angry later Hahaha! Well, Dunbine, please take care of our guests until then” (Herval) As Baron Aura said, everyone started going away.

“Hmm, it seems he treated even commoner guests nicely!” (Maevis) “Yes, he seems like a good noble” (Mile) Mile nodded with Maevis's impression, Rena and Pauline also agreed.

And until the lunch time, the butler, Dunbine talked about various things of the Aura family.

Chapter 173

Aura family 5

It's already a while since the girls left the inn, so it didn't take long before lunch.

The [Red oath] was informed that the meal was ready and headed to the dining hall with the guide of Dunbine.

Whether the addition sweets have been digested long ago, everyone seems to have room in their stomach.

In the dining hall, the baron couple, a girl and boy aged about 17 to 18 years old, and one girl aged 15 to 16 were seated.

Aura Baron, the wife,... No, all three children seem to be healthy, there is no figure of a girl who seems to be sick.

"Thank you for inviting us today" (Maervis) (T.N: This part seems to be the Baron's POV) As she entered the dining hall, Maervis greeted the nobility.

Because she wore pants, so her greeting isn't as a noble lady, but a gentleman instead. She isn't a knight yes, so she can't use the knight's greeting.

Following that, Mile also showed her courtesy.

In fact, the purpose of lowering the body, picking up the skirt is only an action to prevent the long skirt from touching the ground, so there's no need for Mile that not wore a long skirt, but Because of the habit of Adel's time, Mile picked up the skirt.

Well, the action itself is cute, so there's no problem. But she showed her leg too much.

Rena and Pauline are commoners, so they only lower their heads normally. As the baron saw that, he seemed to be quite surprised.

People will not give thanks to aristocrats for imitating nobility. It is a rude behavior against aristocrats.

So, just like Reina and Pauline, they only give thanks as a commoner.

But the other two are familiar with aristocrat's greeting, they did it naturally What is that meaning...

Yes, among the hunters, there were former nobles, and those who become temporary hunters to enjoy the short liberties, or temporarily to train themselves until they succeed their parents.

Also, for those noble child with low position like third son or lower, they aren't noticeable, it's not rare from those people, who don't fit with hard work such as civil officials or knights to become hunters.

But a young girl is really rare.

However, no matter how surprised he is, he couldn't ask about it since the Baron also knows about Hunter's past right.

"Oh, welcome, thank you for your hardwork helping my daughter, Litoria, and prevented the Aura family from being shamed in front of the merchants. Please have a sit and enjoy yourself" (Herval) Even Baron Aura was surprised, he still urged the girl to sit down.

His wife and children even suprised still gently lowered their heads greeting the girls.

Even though Baron is a low rank aristocrat, it's unusual for a noble family to lower their head to the commoners.

It would only mean that the girl named Litoria is loved a lot by her family.

And that was also the reason why Maevis and Mile showed they were from aristocrats from the start.

The cooking is delicious.

The family is only a low rank noble, baron, that's why they can't eat luxury meal every day.

Because they aren't royalty or high rank aristocrat.

Besides, if they do everything in gastronomy and satiety, they will be fattening and won't be able to lead soldiers during wartime and they can't live long.

Today, even though there was no time to purchase new ingredients, but it seems that they used a lot of grain ingredients, and various dishes were lining up.

Rena and Pauline were gracefully for it.

Mile was eating a meal silently with manners in the previous life and manners that she had acquired before her mother died... at an unusual speed.

“Haha...”

Only Maevis ate and talking to people of the Aura family with ordinary aristocratic manners and speed.

“Hoo, Maevis has 3 elder brothers and you don't have any sisters?” (Baron) “Ah, yes, that's right.” (Maevis) And only Maevis collected information from the baron while the other three were obsessed with meals.

No, Mile also listened to it although she kept eating food one after another.

There is no need to hide even if the Baron family know that Maevis and Mile were a noble's children, unless they are declared both their country of origin and family name.

If this is the other hunters or clients, they will not disclose such information, but if the Baron knew they are also noble, he will have a sense of obligation and he can't mock the nobleman of another country.

In the first place, if they don't want to be known, they will not behave like the nobility from the beginning.

And there was a reason why Mile and Maevis didn't hide their identity of being a noble.

Yes, it was necessary to confirm the condition of the girl named Litoria who was ill, and just in case, Mile wanted to cure her, they must make the baron to trust them.

Otherwise, there's no way the aristocratic would leave his important daughter's body to some commoner girls.

After eating to a certain extent, 3 girls finally got a comfortable feeling and participated in a conversation with the barons at last.

Since Maevis was already talking about things such as what came from other countries, about the experients as a newbie hunter party, which is likely to be accepted by the aristocratic young children.

Of course, they didn't talk to the baron family about (average things like) the Beastkins, Ancient Dragons or Devils.

Of course, Mile wasn't talking as a hunter party member, but as a noble. And finally, it is the main subject.

“Well, where is the young lady who needs medicine...” (Mile) Finally, Mile asked straight.

“Oh, Litoria will eat in her own bed. It's bad to let her eating alone. So when Litoria eat, we often eat sweets or drink tea together in Litoria's room. Litoria only has a small meal and things to eat are also different, so we must make it seperately and bring over there for her...” (Herval) The baron felt a little down, and his anguish as a father appeared in his expression. And of course Mile didn't just stop there.

“Is it okay for us to come with you?” (Mile) “ “ “ “ “Huh?” “ “ “ “ (Baron’s family) The Baron family had a vague face, but at that time the butler Dunbine tried to cough with ahem.

Dunbine, a veteran butler, isn’t a man to do such a thing without meaning. When Baron looked towards Dunbine, Dunbine greatly nodded.

Dunbine told his master should take the offer. The baron decided to believe in his butler.

“Well, from the perspective of other countries, you may notice something about the disease of Litoria, so let’s go together” (Herval) t
And after an hour

A total of 9 people gathered in the room of Litoria, the youngest child of the Aura family, her family members and the [Red oath].

Litoria is a thin, fragile beautiful girl that was about 13 to 14 years old. Noble often wants to choose beautiful girls as their companions, After had married with another aristocrat, they may went out with beautiful commoner’s daughter as a lover or side wife.

And there were also cases they only took care of their child and left the side wife, lover alone. It was natural that aristocrats had more beautiful girls Yes, it is the top breeder's work

In front of Litoria, who raised her body from the bed, there was a prepared meal that was way to little.

And Litoria can't even finish this small amount by herself.

Besides, today she already had a cup of medicine made by grinding herbal medicine. This meal had a certain fate to be left alone.

And in front of the others, baked goods, cup of tea, and teapot were placed. Of course Dunbine already informed to Litoria in advance about Mile's group. "Thank you for everything you have done for me this time" (Litoria) Mile and Pauline talked about various of things to Litoria.

It's been a while for Litoria to talk with anyone beside her family or servants without going out of the house.

The Baron, his wife and also children also looked happy. (It was nice, thank to Dunbine...) (Herval) The baron thought so, but it was still too early.

"Sir Baron, I have a favor to ask, can you allow an [Bureiko] now?" (Mile) "Eh, what is it, what is it?" (Herval) Heard the sudden request of Mile, the Baron was dumbfound without knowing its meaning.

[Bureiko] (T.N: can be translated as "Drink your trouble away party") It sounds as if it's okay to be rude, but of course, that's not the case.

Unlike normal, it's [a banquet that didn't tie with fine rules and manners by the rank of attendees].

Everyone would not care about the difference of status or manner so much. It was a disrespectful party that was held in the interest of having a fun party.

In other words, it means [I do not care about others being rude] and [enjoy everything without any detailed rules of the party].

Sometimes, a newly employee getting involved in the section chief or striking the bald head of the director that was a serious thing, but that's how it was.

This time it's not a banquet, but Mile couldn't find a suitable word, so it couldn't be help.

However, in the first place, the word [Bureiko] did not ring any bell to the baron, no, it didn't make sense to anyone in this world, so it didn't mean anything.

After that, Mile explained [It means that even if you make rude actions, other people should forgive it] which was different from the real meaning in Japan, but the Baron acknowledged it pleasantly.

And Mile went into action. “Uhm, could I taste it?” (Mile) As she said that, Mile pointed to the meal of Litoria, which still remains because of her slow speed of eating.

Chapter 174

Aura family 6

“Ehh... Ah, go ahead, I don’t mind!” (Litoria) Although she was surprised for a moment, Litoria immediately approved it.

“Hey Mile, you! There is a limit of everything, even if it’s you, I’d say that it is unnatural! What on earth are you thinking! Stealing a sick person’s meals?” (Rena) “WHAT... NOOOO, THAT’S NOT IT!” (Mile)

Mile shouted back at Rena’s ridiculous retorts with angry red face.

“It’s necessary to check the meal in order to investigate the disease! It is very rudimentary!” (Mile) “Eh, is... is that so?” (Rena)

It’s rare for Mile to be angry. Rena backed down and lowered her tone. “Honestly, geez... Well, allow me to taste a bit” (Mile) As she said so, Mile stood up and came to Litoria’s bed.

“Let’s see, this is beef. It was boiled instead of baked, there were almost none of the juice left in the meat... This is an egg and mushroom. Vegetables are also simmered, aren’t they... Uhm, the drink after eating is wine diluted with water and milk... Hmm...” (Mile) While tasting little by little, Mile was pondering.

“Litoria-sama, are you picky or disliking many things?” (Mile) Heard the question of Mile, the baron replied from behind.

“Rather than like and dislike, Litoria is always eating this menu. Because the amount she eats is small, whenever she eats bread or something, she can’t eat other things. In order to eat meat and eggs, vegetables, mushrooms and milk, I have removed most of cereal food.

I wonder if it would be better to let her eat other foods as well. And since the quality of the water around here isn’t good, I dilute the wine with water and let her drink it. And drinking wine will also improve blood circulation. Of course, I also made her drink milk. So, are there any problems?” (Baron Aura) “Well...” (Mile)

After thinking for a while, Mile said.

“I only understand that there’s no poison in the food” (Mile) “ “ “ “ “Isn’t that obvious!” “ “ “ “

(Aura family) Mile was yelled by Baron and his wife, brother and sister.

All the aura families include servants are really caring about Litoria, they feel hurt when someone else gets suspicious of them.

“As I said, we are now having a [bureiko]...” (Mile) Mile was remind it hesitantly, but for the time being, her investigation was over and she turned back to their original purpose.

Yes, it was to entertain Litoria by telling a lot of interesting stories that the girls have experienced as hunters until Litoria finished her meal.

Although she wasn’t asked to do so, but Mile, herself understands well how lonely it is as Adel.

And for Litoria who was hungry for entertainment, Mile began to talk about her [Japan Fukushima talk] and it was a tough job to avoid Litoria spill the food she put in her mouth by surprised.

And when Litoria’s meal was over and everyone stood up to get out of the room.

“I have something to check with Litoria-sama, so I will stay here. Well, if you are worried, the mother or sister can stay behind...” (Mile) [Until the poison comes to the plate] (In for a penny, in for a pound), this country also has a word that similar to the Japanese phrase “...Willomia, we leave Litoria to you!” (Baron Aura) Litoria’s older sister, a girl from 15 to 16 years old, Willomia nodded to her father’s word.

Everyone and the [Red Oath] also left except for Mile.

And there are only three people left in the room: Mile, Willomia, and Litoria. “Please, take your clothes off” (Mile) “ “Eeehhh!” “

(Willomia + Litoria)

As Willomia and Litoria heard the unexpected words from Mile, they shouted from surprised.

“What’s going on!” (Baron Aura)

And the baron opened the door roughly and rushed in.

“It was nothing! And how could you blow the door away when I about to take her sleeping clothes away for medical examinations. Even if you are her father, it’s very rude to barge in without knocking the door. No matter what, Litoria is still a girl!” (Mile) “Ah, I’m sorry...” (Baron Aura)

Mile was seriously angry at him, the Baron hurriedly apologized and went out of the room.

“That’s it! Because I have no funny hobby...” (Mile) “ “Forgive us.....” “

(Willomia + Litoria)

Litoria and her sister obediently apologized for thinking about strange things and raising their voice.

“Well, let’s continue. I only want to confirm the swelling and discoloration of your body, so please don’t think about strange things...” (Mile) As Mile said that, she let Litoria took off her sleeping clothing and check her carefully.

Of course, Mile has no medical expertise. She only has an average high school students’ common sense level... no, because she like to read books, she has considerable knowledge, but after all she is still amateur.

However, there may be something she recognize from knowledge as a Japanese. There is no harm for trying.

Thinking that way, Mile asked various questions while doing a doctor ‘s consultation. “Well, how do you feel right now compared to when you were still healthy?” (Mile) “Ye... yes, that’s right...” (Litoria) Litoria answers Mile’s question with a subtle face.

“Before I fell sick, I was already a light eater. But after that I lost my appetite and I couldn’t even eat the same amount as before. My body was dull, my heart beat fast and short of breath, my feet feel numb. I do not have much power on my limbs...” (Litoria) However, anorexia, weak body, fatigue, no power on limbs, etc. are symptoms that arise in any disease.

That alone doesn’t help Mile know anything.

“Well, please sit down on your bed and let your foot down here.” (Mile) After heard that, Litoria let her feet down from the bed and Mile looked at her lower her body.

“...huh? Aren’t your body swelling a bit?” (Mile) “Ah, yes, that’s right...”

(Litorina) And then Mile looked closer at Litoria’s lower body. Go~n (SFX)

“Kyaa!” (Litoria)

The handle of the sword that Mile is wearing at her waist hits Litoria’s knee. It made a good noise.

“It... it hurts...”

(Litoria) “Ahh, I’m

sorry!” (Mile) Mile pulled her body back in a panic and apologized. “Eh...”

(Mile) Something,

Mile felt something is wrong. “Huh?

Something...”

(Mile) Yes,

something is missing. Mile felt that way... “Ah!”

(Mile) Mile suddenly shouted out and removed the sword from her waist. Of course, it is still in its sheath.
Then, Mile grasped the sheath, hitting the sword handle against the Litoria's knee.

Ko~n! (SFX)

“Kyaa!”

(Litoria)

Litoria screams
in a cute voice.

“What are you playing around for?” (Willomia)

The sister, Willomia gets angry, but Mile doesn't really care. Ko~n! (SFX) "Uuu!" (Litoria) Ko~n! (SFX) "Hii~!" (Litoria) "Stop it!" (Willomia) Finally, Willomia grabbed Mile's shoulder. "Ah, I'm sorry, it's just..." (Mile) "After all, you just want to play around!" " (Willomia + Litoria) ...Both sisters were angry at the same time.

"No, I have found it! The name of the disease and its cause!" (Mile) " "Eehh!" " (Willomia + Litoria) Yes, fortunately it was such a famous disease that even average school girls would know, despite it is actually rare to find such patient, including its simple discrimination method.

Long ago, a disease that was said to be a national disease which caused many deaths for peoples in Japan.

And somehow it was a disease that wealthy peoples were likely to suffer. ...Yes, it is [Beriberi].

Chapter 175

Aura family 7

With only the symptoms she just heard, Mile would never think of this disease's name.

However, a lot of people know the diagnosis method of Beriberi, which is knocking on the knees, and foot pins, And everyone should have experience of hitting the knees as a child.

As Misato, she also had done it with her little sister.

Mile told Litoria to wear her clothes back and then left the room with Willomia. "Lord Baron, may I ask for next request!"

(Mile) Heard Mile's voice, the baron family who was waiting in a separate room with the butler Dunbine and Rena's group appeared.

"Let me meet the chef and I would like to ask how did they make the meal for Litoria until now" (Mile) "...Ah, I don't mind. I understand, please follow me." (Baron Aura) And they came to the kitchen.

All the baron's family were lined up excluding Litoria plus the [Red Oath] in front of the kitchen, all of the chefs became pale.

In any case, their master is accompanied with all his family and the guests to the kitchen, it can't be anything but trouble.

Yes, just like complaints came from customers.

A nobleman was losing face with the guests he invited.

Of course, the chefs would understand how difficult it was.

“U... uhm, about that...” (Chef) Mile lowered her head to the chef who could not talk properly.

“Excuse me, I want you to tell me how did you make the meal for Litoria!” (Mile) “ “ “Huh?” “ “ (3 Chefs) The chefs’ voice was hoarse.

“You don’t have to actually make it, just explain to me step by step in order. Like you cut it here, peel off here, or explain it according to the procedure...” (Mile) “Ah, yes, I understand!” (Chef) That was an easy request.

Especially for those who were afraid of being accused of negligence.

“..., boiled vegetables with boiling water thoroughly, softened, drained, made it into soup, soak in...” (Chef) “Fumu...” (Mile)

“Wash the cut beef with water...” (Chef) “Eh, you washed it?” (Mile) “Ah, yes, Litoria-sama’s body is weak, so we need to either wash it thoroughly or cook it thoroughly...” (Chef)
“.....” (Mile)

“I think there were pork in our meal. Why did Litoria-sama only have beef?” (Mile) “Ah... about that, actually she had seen the event where pigs being slaughter in the village from my former territory before moving to the capital, after that she can’t eat pork anymore...” (Baron Aura) “To that extent... Are there any other ingredients that Litoria-sama isn’t good at or you didn't let her eat?" (Mile) "Yes, because this place is far from the sea, seafood can't be served just like for everyone. Besides, Litoria will not eat it. She also doesn't eat the staple food, bread, corn, strong taste and smell, chives, garlic, onion, and so on. And she only eats a small amount of beef, vegetables, eggs, mushrooms, milk etc..." (Chef) "Hmm... okay. Thank you very much." (Mile) And Mile left the kitchen with everyone.

"...Just what was that...?" (Chef) They didn't know the reason, but anyway, they knew that they weren't faulted or blamed. It was safe for the chefs.

Just when they was relieved thinking like that, the silver hair girl came back to the door and said.

"Ah, all the cooks please come as well" (Mile) " " "Eeehhhhh" " "

(Chefs) t In Litoria's room

Baron's family, including Litoria on the bed, Butler Dunbine, [Red oath] and 3 cooks. The butler and the cooks are standing.

And Mile stood up from the chair that she was sitting and looked at everyone around. "Well, the last 10 minutes of the show, it's time to solve the mystery!" (Mile) Other peoples didn't understand about the program/show, other than the [Red Oath] that heard the phrase many times.

But there were no-one who couldn't read read the air and asking what it was.

“I understand what the disease that Litoria has” (Mile) “ “ “ “ “Eeeeeehhh!” “ “ “ “

(Everyone) Astonishment screams are raised, and their eyes are wide opened all together. “Mi... Mile, did you understand about the medicine as well?” (Rena) “Well, for most of it...” (Mile)

Even Mile is an amateur about knowledge of medicine, but there was no lie when she answer Rena’s question this way.

“Is it true?” (Baron Aura)

“Please, listen to to the end” (Mile)

Mile was somewhat annoying that baron cut her speech halfway.

“First of all, I think that this disease’s name is called [Beriberi] in my country” (Mile) “Beriberi?” (Baron Aura) “Yes, this is a disease mainly caused by food” (Mile) “What?” (Baron Aura) “ “ “Eeehh...” “ “ (3 chefs)

The Baron shouted and the 3 chefs turned pale.

“Hey... you, what did you make Litoria eat!!” (Baron Aura) The baron shouted with the face of a demon, the 3 chefs crawled in the floor.

“Tell me! What are you planning and what did you make Litoria eat! Which aristocrat was plotting...?”

Mile reached out her hand and restrained the baron that was shouting to the chefs.

“Wait, they are not making Litoria-sama eat anything strange” (Mile)
The 3 chefs at least knew that the silver hair girl seemed to protect them and looked at Mile with hopeful eyes.

“On the contrary, you can say that they didn’t make Litoria eat what she should eat...” (Mile) “ “ “ “Whaaaaaaaat?” “ “ “ (Baron + 3 Chefs) Whether it is condemning or advocating, which one is it?

It became confusing at the same time, to the baron and chefs. “Well, I’ll explain step by step”

(Mile) “Do it from the beginning!” (Rena)

Rena urged and Mile began to explain.

“First of all, in order for humans to live healthily, we need to eat various foods in a balanced way, you can understand that?” (Mile) In this world, although separation of nutrients has not been researched yet. But that much is naturally known by rule of thumb. So, everyone nodded.

“And, although we eat various of foods but actually among vegetables and meats itself, they still contained different [ingredients necessary for humans] from each other” (Mile) “Eh? Then, don’t tell me...” (Baron Aura)

As expected of head of aristocrat’s family. The baron seems to have already realized the conclusion just by listening so far.

“Yes, Litoria-sama’s diet contains very little of some kind of [ingredients necessary for humans]. Like the the raw ingredients which are normally included in eating, or ingredients that easy to dissolve in water and weak against heat, or the ingredients with strong taste and smell...

For such ingredients, you just kept washing in water, cook in heat thoroughly, In addition, you threw away the boiled juice, which made there was barely anything left.

Moreover, Litoria-sama also disliked the strong smell like onion type which assists absorption of the ingredients... etc So, if she changed her eating habits, her disease will be recover as well.

Since there are no one in your family need such special diet, after her illness has recovered, there shouldn't be any problem for her to eat the same meal with everyone" (Mile) "Oooh, oooooooh! Is it true?" (Baron Aura) "Yes, absolutely. Although I can't say when she will recover, but I believe there's no mistake..." (Mile) As Baron family heard the the explanation of Mile.

The Baron, his wife, his sons and daughter were also crying as they tried to hide their eyes.

And on the bed, Litoria's expression became worse. It turned out, her disease that had tortured her to the point that she had been prepared for death was due to her likes and dislikes.

"No, no way... This... this disease that made me gradually paralyzing and losing power, Because of my likes and dislikes..... Because of my taste of food..." (Litoria) "So, what should we do, Miss Mile!" (Baron Aura) The Baroness asked Mile for the treatment method.

"Well, for the time being. Litoria-sama's dinner should be... Uhmm... Because there is no fish, let's make her eat about two pieces of pork, soybeans, corn, bread, and onions, chives, leeks, and garlic. Do not wash the meat too much, increase the number of raw vegetables like salad etc. And reuse the broth without discarding it.

Also stop putting wine in the water. If there is no bactericidal effect and too much alcohol is not good for this disease” (Mile) “ “ “Understood!!” “ “ (3 Chefs) The 3 chefs stood up right away and ran to the kitchen when answering in good spirits. “EEEEeeeeehhhh!” (Litoria) And Litoria raised the cry of despair to the ingredients on which Mile was arranged. “ “ “ “ “Don’t complain!!” “ “ “ “ (Baron’s family) Her parents, older brothers and older sister, her whole family shouted at Litoria for the first time today. She was upset and crawled herself under the blanket.

Chapter 176

Aura family 8

And everyone moved out of her bed room, leaving Litoria that crawled in the blanket alone.

“How can I thank you for all your help... Not only you helped Dunbine to get the medicine, protect my family name from tarnish, You also told us how to get rid of the disease itself...” (Baron Aura) It’s unusual for aristocrats to do something such as lowering their heads against commoners.

Even so, the baron lowered his head to Mile group.

Even if he thought that Mile and Maevis are aristocrats, but he treated all of them well, including commoners in this C rank hunter party.

“No, it is still early to say thank you. After all it is only an analysis from an amateur, however I think she will be fine because she her symptoms aren’t that severe...” (Mile) As he heard Mile said that, the Baron was startled for a moment, but as he was looking at the Mile’s face when she was saying so, he thought [Oh, she was just humble. She is really confident that my daughter will be okay] and regained calm.

“Well, then how about putting a nomination request for the treatment of Litoria’s disease?”

“Ehhh, is that okay?” (Mile)

Mile was surprised, but the baron didn’t realize that Mile was surprised.

“Isn’t that obvious. There’s no way I would let my benefactors go without repay you somehow. If such a thing is known, our Aura family’s name... No, even if no one knows about it, our family’s name and honor will be stained!” (Baron Aura)

The baron is really a good person, after all.

“Although this request can be handled as post-treatment because it is almost as completed as it is. Even it isn’t really good to do it through the guild with post-treatment (less reward maybe). But after confirming the result to some extent, it will become easier. So, for the request result, how about we decide it by Litoria’s condition improvement?”

“ “ “ “Please do so!” “ “ “ (Red Oath)

A nomination request with a large amount reward from aristocracy. In terms of promotion point, this is too delicious.

Such ability, reliability, record can’t be obtained by an Average C rank hunter party.

Also, as for the guild, they have a politically appreciated anything that prove how dependable and trusted the guild.

“By the way, I want to ask. What foods are good for Litoria besides those ingredients you just told us prepare, and what foods are bad for her...” (Baron Aura) “Uu...” (Mile)

It is an understandable and also a hard question from baron, Mile was stuck. Yes, Mile’s knowledge was at the end of it.

Mile wasn’t a nutritionist.

What she knew was from her class at school and reading, it was only a little more knowledge than average school girls.

Yes, only common knowledge about Beriberi like check muscle reflex when hitting the knees, that the cause was the deficiency of vitamin B1, its symptoms, and foods containing vitamin B1 in a large amount, the representative examples of food.

But what she know is only the [Representative example] that can be found in textbooks and explanatory books.

And other representative examples she mentioned earlier are only seafood such as eel, sea bream etc.

In other words, those food might not be available here.

Speaking of birth defects, Mile remembered something else. Although the Japanese Navy had found a solution at an early stage and practiced countermeasures, the main business was an army general supervisor, the writer: Mori Ogai.

It was talking about the Navy taking a nutritional theory. Sticking to the pathogenic bacteria theory and make many army soldiers to die inadvertently...

It was useless knowledge, nothing useful for the current situation.

“I think that there are many other things that contain a lot of that ingredient... And about that, if she eats normally, she should be okay. No-one else in your family has abnormality anyway... It’s only by chance that Litoria-sama’s diet is so biased and extreme that it happens to contain only a little components. Well, anyway, just in case...” (Mile) (Nano-chan!) (Mile) [We’ve been waiting!] (Nano-chan) (What’s that!? Well, it’s okay. Please, I’d like to confirm if my opinion really isn’t wrong.

Because I thought it would be a bother to ask Nano-chan too much, actually I don’t really want to rely on you too much, but this time, people’s life is depend on it, I can’t help but asking you It was only amateur judgment that I reach to a conclusion from what I was told and checked.

However, there must be other diseases with similar symptoms as well: like weak reflect of the knee, diseases that cause abnormality in the nervous system, fat is attached to the legs that make like swollen and the response is weak, I was told that where I hit was hurt, but I couldn’t check if that was because her knee was broken by overdoing or something, some other reason that not because of Beriberi that I don’t know about, if such an amateur as me treat this disease lightly, I won’t be able to help her. So, I’d like to ask for an accurate diagnosis...) (Mile)

Yes, even she was quite confident before, but Mile has become suddenly uneasy now.

Finally, she noticed that it was too reckless to decide the disease name simply because there is no reflexive respond from the knee.

[I understand. For now, please imagine as detail as possible about that disease. From Mile's thought, we will determine the information on the disease and analyze it based on that information. And...]
(Nano-chan) (And...?) (Mile)

[You don't have to worry to depend on us. Same goes with this one or even any other things! No, we'd rather want you to rely on us more! Please let us help you as much as we can!] (Nano-chan) (...I will think about it right now, here I go! Unnnnnnnnnnnnnnnnnn!)
(Mile) [We confirmed the information and completed the analysis. There is nothing wrong with Mile's deduction] (Nano-chan) (I'm glad... Then, I will move the foodstuffs from the [Item box] to [Storage]. I need Vitamin B1... , no, there are other missing ingredients too. Please separate and extract it, and I want you to make the vitamin tablets. Can you do it?) (Mile) [We can do, without fail. Please give the order] (Nano-chan) (I understood, then please do it!) (Mile) [Then, when I give the signal, please accommodate a space about 30 centimeters radius around Mile's face. The nanomachines will gather for work there.

Also, since we can finish the work in an instant, please take out the tablets from within the 30 cm space right away.

Otherwise some nanomachines might be stuck in storage] (Nano-chan) (T.N: Nanomachine can open other dimension space / storage but they need level 3 command, they can't do by themselves) (Okay, then I will transfer the container to storage, please put the tablets in it, the amount of tablets is about the same of that container. By the way, because the ingredients without vitamins will be discarded so keep it apart because I don't want to eat non-nutritious foods) [Affirmative! Then, start!] (Nano-chan) (Roger!) (Mile) "What's wrong, again, hey..."

"Please don't worry, it was Mile-chan's usual thing..." (Rena) "Uu, shut up please (urusai desu)!" (Mile) After usual interchange. (Here go (Urya)!) And a (wild) small pot appears in Mile's arm. [Everyone had returned safely.

As for the tablets, if we only made the designated ingredients, the appropriate intake per dose will be too small, so we added other important ingredients as well as ingredients for weight gain, suitable for taking 1 tablet after each meal.

Although there are still no noticeable symptoms yet, there are signs of illness caused by other nutritional deficiencies, so we are dealing with them as well] (Nanomachine) Apparently, these tablets seems to be a universal supplement containing calcium, magnesium, iron, zinc, etc, and vitamin supplement as well.

As expected, Nano-chan is such a caring person. (Thanks! This is perfect!) (Mile) [It's nothing worth praising too much...] (Nano-chan) "Is that storage?" (Baron) As Mile brought out the pot, the Baron was surprised.

“This is the medicine to compensate for the missing important ingredients, please give Litoria-sama one tablet after each meal” (Mile) Ooooh, the baron was even more surprised. “Why is it so convenient...?” (Baron) That is doubtful. It was as if preparing everything in advance, it was too much convenient medicine.

However, Mile doesn't seem to demand money, the Aura family is just getting helps. Baron also has pride himself about the ability to judge a person to a certain extent.

If everything happened so far was just her throughout plan (Keikaku), then he might as well lose all hope for humanity in this world.

“It's my family's secret medicine. In other word, it's a secret medicine that no-one ever know about” (Mile) Mile said so before gave out the pot.

And the Baron somewhat reluctantly received that vase. “How much is this worth?” (Baron Aura) Mile answered with a smile to the baron asking so.

“Compare with to be able to see Litoria-sama's beautiful smile again, this isn't worth anything” (Mile) “Huh...!?” (Baron)

That means it was free.

No, he did say he would pay the request reward as later date depend on Litoria's recovery condition.

“Before you used all of this, please let Litoria-sama eat more various foods that she doesn't like or dislike, otherwise there is a possibility she would get other scary diseases. In order to manage her appetite, let her do various things, such as exercise. Litoria-sama, she is really pretty and nice, but if she died before she could become a bride, everything will become meaningless, isn't it?" (Mile) "...okay, I understand. It seems she was too spoiled for being too cute. I will make her do her best..." (Baron Aura) The baron nodded after saying so.

He seems to be serious, so it will be okay.

t "Wasn't it better for us to have dinner a treat...?" (Rena) On the way home, Rena was overflowing with complaints in the carriage that the Baron asked to send the girls to the guild.

"No, it would take another 4 hours until dinner time! We can't afford to have such a long time, and we are going home for dinner, so we can't even do any other errands, See, everyone seems to have the same opinion!" (Mile) "That's true... but..." (Rena)

Despite being a big eater, Mile retorts to Rena. Rena lost her words.

After that, the baron made two documents of post-treatment and nomination request, asked his servant go ahead to the guild with a horse.

So, when the Mile's group who slowly traveled by the horse carriage reached the guild, they could receive the reward of the post-treatment and can receive the order for the nomination request.

Even if they receive the order, they don't have to do anything until they get the result later.

And then the horse-drawn carriage stopped and the door was opened.

"We arrived at the Hunter Guild, the Capital branch" (Aura Butler Dunbine)

Dunbine, the butler welcomed the 4 girls to get off the carriage with an angle about 10 degrees.

“I am indebted to you. I will meet you again at a later date...” (Aura Butler Dunbine) Also at that later date, it’s necessary to go to get a sign of completion of the request.

So, as a representative of his master for the help of [Red oath] he bowed his head again, but this time, Dunbine made a 45° angle bow.

“Thank you very much, I’m really grateful...” (Aura Butler Dunbine) In the ground under his face, the girls could see the number of black spots gradually increase, but the 4 girls of the [Red oath] pretended not to notice it, shake hands lightly and they went into the guild.

Dunbine had been staring at the door of the guild for a while, and then got into the carriage.

“To the mansion” (Aura Butler Dunbine)

And the horse-drawn carriage slowly began to advance towards the Aura Baron’s mansion.

“How could you receive a nomination request from an aristocrat as soon as you come to the capital! Needless to say, you even try to treat the un-curable illness of his daughter... What on earth are you girls!” (Felicia) For the last part, Felicia’s tone has collapsed from her usual business tone. “No, we told you already...” (Mile) “Isn’t that right?” (Rena) “Because, we are...” (Pauline) “4 friends bound with soul...” (Maervis) “ “ “ “Red Oath!” “ “ “ (Red Oath)

And the girls made their pose.

Explosion and smoke were cut off because they were indoors. “O..... , Oh.....” (Felicia) As expected even with famous fearsome “All this Felicia” was also lost her words...

t “So, Mile, even though you said it with so much confidence. But if she wouldn’t recover from her illness due to misunderstanding, what are you going to do? It wasn’t a mistake that aristocrat could let it slide” (Rena) Even though she thought that it would be okay as long as it is about Mile. But it will be a big deal if that was really happen.

Besides Rena, Maevis and Pauline were also worried.

Everyone is not stupid enough to show a worrisome face in front of customers, so they tried to keep a poker face until now, but they are really worried after all.

“I think that it’s okay. In worst case that the medicine can’t cure her, the next solution is already prepared, so it’s safe” (Mile) “What’s next solution, what’s that?” (Rena) Mile replied Rena with a straight face.

“Of course, it’s magical disease healing” (Mile) “Where should I feel [relieved]! It is unreasonable and dangerous!” (Rena) Rena bursted.

“...Is that so?” (Maevis)

Maevis seems like not understand well. “Well, it’s Mile-chan after all...” (Pauline)

Pauline seems to give up on everything. “Well, I could do it!”

(Mile) And [Red oath] go to their house.

The beloved nekomimi loli is waiting there, this inn has become their temporary home.

Chapter 177

Rival appearance 1

Three days after the accident of the Aura family.

No, It's not like they are lazy, on that day they already had [worked] for a moment and even got the post-treatment and nomination request.

So, they spent the next two days for rest. But their real purpose is to wait for Maevis to completely healed.

And, today the [Red oath] went to the guild to get new job. “Are you girls from the [Red oath?] ” (Girl)

As they entered the guild, they were suddenly confronted by a female hunters party of five.

“Yes, that’s right. Is there anything I can do for you?” (Maevis) The female hunters lost their words for a moment and glanced at Maevis who answered with a refreshing smile.

(Wow, as usual. Maevis is really a [Lady hunter] in a different way...) (Mile) Mile is amazed at Maevis’s usual and natural Lady hunter/killer.

“...mm, It’s not the case. It seems like when we were on expedition, some young hunters got conceited!” (Girl) Heard those words from the eldest girl who seems about 20 years old, Maevis answered with vague face.

“Ehh, is that so? They shouldn’t do that. Young people should respect the elder, and it isn’t good for those who are inexperienced to get conceited. They are dealing with elders so they should be careful...” (Maevis) Pfttt! (SFX) Giggle (SFX) Kusu kusu... (SFX)

Apparently, it seems that other hunters are laughing out loud, but, of course, Maevis was not aware of that.

“Eld... elder, elder...” (Girl)

And the [Elder] girl trembled with red face. “Is there something wrong?” (Maevis) The [Elder] girl shouted at Maevis. “It was you girls!” (Girl)

“ “ “Oh, as expected” “ “ (Rena + Pauline + Mile) It seemed that Pauline, Rena, and surprisingly even Mile were noticed this much as well this time.

“...Huh?” (Maevis)

Yes, the only one didn't notice was Maevis.

“...so, isn't it about time for you to explain yourselves!” (Girl) The [Red oath] was brought to the food and drink section of the guild, was being questioned by the female hunter group.

“No, I have no idea what were you talking about. Wasn't you the one who must give the explanation...” (Maevis) Because their opponent is older and seniors, Maevis used honorifics once.

“About that. You girls, during our absence, you had taken our position as an idol party in this guild branch!” (girl) “ “ “ “.....?” “ “ “ (Red Oath)

[Red oath] was staggering. Suddenly, a [salad oil set].

“Oh, did you mean [we were not active] or [we were playing around]. No, we are working properly. It's true, although there were a lot of rest for the last few days...” (Mile) Apparently it seems that Mile mistook [idol] with [idle] people. “That's not it! Idol, the one who was adored, worshiped!” (Girl) As Mile said those words, a girl was desperately trying to correct it. This girl seems to be about 2 to 3 older than Mile. Apparently, she is about 16 to 17 years old...

“Well, our party name is [Servant of the goddess]. We are an idol subject to worship, we were treated like apostle of the goddess or [Like an angel] ” (Girl)

“No, no, that’s why...” (Another girl) With the appearance of new female party, they feel a little troubled.

Of course, it is something that girls even Mile can understand what they mean And the [Red Oath] listened to the details.

As for the drink, [Goddess’s servant] said [Because we are a senior (senpai) party] and paid the bill.

It seems that they had a consciousness as a senior (senpai) in that area. [Servant of the Goddess]. For hunter, they are a rare, female-only party of five. Swordsman Telyucia, 19 years old.

Spearman Firii, 17 years old.

Swordsman Willine, archer and dagger user Tasia, both 16 years old.

And to make it sounds nice [jack of all trade] or sounds bad [master of none] Magician Raselina, 14 years old.

Only Raselina is D rank, all other girls are C rank hunter. Although they have just been promoted...

There are only mountains and fields, they couldn’t find any nice men in the countryside, rural areas.

Three young girls couldn’t bear to spend their whole life in such a place.

And they grasp the hinoki sticks, in search of adventure and gorgeous life, they jumped out of the village aiming for a hunter.

...They are all fools. (T.N: Hinoki stick is a refer from an JRPG at forest of beginner so I don’t feel like change it to “as straws”)
And, while suffering various troubles and dangers, they survived miraculously and added two other similar girls who went out of the village by themselves and eventually reached up to C rank hunter party.

Normally, those innocent peoples would be annihilated by then, but they got a lot of skill or luck, they somehow survived.

In any case, as a country without a training school, they reached C rank when they are still unusual youth.

Moreover, a lot of young ladies gathered together.

Of course, they would be delicious aim for the male party... just like the [Red oath]. And, a (wild) [Red oath] party appeared here.

4 young beautiful girls. Precious magicians. Sword skill comparable to B rank. And, apparently naive.

...Yes, the attention of the male hunter parties has shifted to the [Red oath].

“In general, what kind of trick did you use to get the additional redemption points, receive the red request from the stranger, and receive nomination request from the aristocrat?” (Firii) The spearman Firii, 17 years old raised her voice said that.

“And what did you do to Jones of the [Contract’s guardian]? He seems to have a serious with girl right now that he declined my invitation to eat!” (Telyucia) Next the party oldest girl, 19-year-old swordsman Telyucia roaming.

“And what did you say to the gentle old gentlemen from [Silver Claw], they seems to have a terrible experience!” (Tasia) Apparently, she seems to like old gentlemen, 16 years old archer Tasia.

As Misato, she really loves her gentle father and for her he is the only father she had.

Same goes with Rena, she has been traveling with her father, and after that she was traveling with everyone in the [Red lightning bolt].

The two of them somewhat understood Tasia's [Old gentlemen Complex].

If they were to know each other, the 3 of them were likely to become good friends.

(T.N: I don't know the word for loving dandy old man type so I use [Old gentlemen Complex]) "Please reimburse for me, the number of people who give me sweets has decreased!"

(Raselina) Said in angry with pouting face, 14 years old magician Raselina. "....." (Willine) And it seems that everything she wanted to say is all told by other girls, the 16 year old swordman, Willine just stared silently.

" " " " "So what did you do?" " " " " (Goddess' Servant) " " " "Ehhhh..." " " " (Red Oath)

The 4 girls of [Red oath] shrugged their shoulders.

"So, who are the [Contract's guardian] or [Silver Claw]?" (Mile) And, as for Mile's question, it's not like her usual can't read the mood question, the three girls Mevis, Rena and Pauline also nodded as well.

Chapter 178

Rival appearance 2

[Contract's Guardian], [Silver claw], even after hearing the names of both party, it doesn't ring any bells with the [Red oath].

And, as for they weren't at the scene, the stories that the [Goddess' servant] had heard from various peoples and rumors did not match with what actually happened.

And, the hunters who were happened to be at the scene of the day, came out and explained about the situation in detail for all the girls.

...Of course, they didn't just do it from kindness, but used it as a chance for the girls to remember their faces and become closer to the girls.

"Well, thank you for the explanation. In other words, those guys who were saying [I'm not impressed with you receive such a dangerous request with many uncertainties alone] and tried to be cautious with the request are the [Contract's Guardian]. And the suspicious guys who followed us are [Silver Claw], right?" (Rena) "Wha... what..." (Telyucia) As she heard Rena said that, Telyucia lost her words.

"Jones of [Contract's Guardian] isn't such a weak party!" (Telyucia) "Don't treat the old gentlemen of [Silver Claw] like some perverts!" (Tasia) Both Telyucia and Tasia were angry and refuted, but then again, there is a poisonous tongue Pauline in the [Red oath].

"Then what do you call a party that don't even dare to take the request that we took. As they saw we received that request, they forcibly brought a joint-party, or easily withdrawn as they saw Maevis and Mile's copper coin slash demonstration?" (Pauline)

“Ugu...” (Telyucia) “And what about a male party who secretly followed young ladies’ party at a regular interval, what can we call them beside some suspicious persons?” (Pauline) “Uuu...” (Tasia)

As Pauline told them that, Telyucia and Tasia couldn’t say anything back and stayed quiet.

Other hunters looked at the counter thinking that Felicia would save the [Contract’s Guardian] and [Silver claw]’s face because she was the one ordered them.

However, Felicia didn’t even change her complexion, she arrived at the reception desk without moving an eyebrow.

((((It’s truly [All this Felicia]!)))) (Hunters) The fact that the [Contract’s Guardian] and [Silver claw] were both absent in this place was their only salvation...

“Is that alright? it’s already clear that we have nothing to do with the two parties, so you don’t have any other business with us anymore?” (Rena) “Well... , we are convinced about you have no involvement with [Contract’s Guardian] and [Silver claw] for the time being. No, I’m still not convinced that they are such people. I just said that I understand that you didn’t harm them! But I still have some important business with you!” (Telyucia) Rena wanted to end it soon, however the leader of the [Goddess’ Servant] Telyucia had a face like want to tell it’s not over yet.

Or rather, she clearly said so.

After that another party member sent a word of challenge.

“We want to make clear which party is better!” (1 of Goddess’s Servant) “ “ “ “Oo!” “ “ “ (4 other members)

“ “ “ “Ahh.....” “ “ “ (Red Oath) Contradiction with [Goddess’ Servant] that raised their tension, the tension on the [Red oath] side was going down.

Separately, it doesn’t matter if what party is stronger.

Up until now, male hunters have been fascinated by [Goddess’ Servant] not because they are strong.

It’s simply because [They just wanted to have the girls to become their lover]. More or less.

Initially, the girls just became C ranked, so they were lower rank than C rank hunters before this.

If any party put these 5 girls at a party, the jobs that they can accept are limited and the shares are halved.

In other words, unlike the [Red Oath] which 2 girls have the sword skills similar to the B rank or 2 girls with battle level magicians.

Unlike the [Red oath], the solicitation or merge of the whole party of [Goddess’ Servant] have too many demerits.

Then, how about they recruit only a few girls that they like? If they can do so, they can easily get closer to the girl they choose.

However they will receive anger from the remaining members of the [Goddess’ Servant]...

In the first place, it is unlikely that any members would turn her back again against her party’s fellows.

And even if that girls agree to transfer, that girl would cause terrible conflict around...

Well, if they really did something like that, there was no doubt that their party would collapse.

They all came from the same village, they are childhood friends, even though there’s no problem if one or two of them have private action, joined other party for a joint-request but...

No, even in that case, it still can effect their relationship.

In other words, unlike the [Red oath], a competent party associate, [Goddess' Servant] was all about [lover candidate for private relationship].

The ratio of females is low in all hunters. And among those female hunters there are many peoples think like the eldest daughter of that inn, that hunter's life is tough, they work hard to make money and they don't even know when they will die.

The young girls in [Goddess' Servant] are lover's candidates, and as a marriage partner, it was the most promising stock.

Once a girl got married, other girls will not complain even if that one girl transfer to her husband's party, that girl will retire from hunter work and wait for her husband's return while doing a safe work like a housewife or a store clerk somewhere.

It will not be bad to have a living like that. However, a wild [Red oath] appeared.

They have 2 skillful swordmen who can beat an orge with a single blow. And 2 precious magicians which seem to be strong.

Moreover, all of them are cute, beautiful, young. All 4 of them, not just 1 or 2. It can't be help that all the male hunters change their target.

So, it doesn't matter even if [Goddess' Servant] can win against [Red oath]. Their evaluation will not change.

In the first place, there's no way [Goddess' Servant] can win, most of the guild staff and hunters knew about it.

“Well then, let's go to the courtyard... Ummm...!” (Rena)

Before Rena can finished saying, Maevis blocked her mouth.

“No, no, we are just some average newbie hunters, we are nothing compare to (senpai-tachi) senior hunters like you! I think we don’t need to fight to know the outcome!” (Maevis) This is the capital city of another country. They can’t afford to draw attention, they must act as a very average newbie C rank hunter party steadfastly and training themselves.

Maevis thought so, and she tried to refused.

But of course, she completely forgot about her demonstration [Copper Coin Slash] last time.

Both Mile and Pauline had the same opinion, they also understood that Rena did not want to be looked down by other hunters.

But they still preferred to avoid attention.

Mile put out the sound proof barrier while Pauline stood in front of Rena to block her from the view of many people.

Rena was struggling and rampaging, however she can neither break free from Maevis nor make any complain out of the Mile’s sound barrier, her mouth opened and closed in a wasteful manner.

“Well, if you get it, then stop getting conceited in the future!” (Telyucia) Maybe they have achieved their purpose: complain and make themselves superior to [Red oath], the leader of the [Goddess’ Servant] was going away as she was saying so. The four other girls followed after.

((((Hey hey hey hey hey hey hey!)))) (Hunters) All the other hunters and guild officials who were in the guild had the same thought.

(Although outsiders like us also heard it a while ago, the [Copper coin slash] that broke the [Contract’s Guardian]’s spirit! And the march speed that [Silver claw] can’t even follow, completed red request, got nomination request from aristocrat! So why did you think you are better than them!) (Hunters) As expected it is the people who jumped out of the village with a hinoki stick in hand. (T.N: In JRPG, it means newbie players with first weapon Hinoki stick, dream to become adventure) It seems that the blood was on their head, they didn't even remember a little from the previous conversation.

No, from the beginning their purpose was [to inform that they are better than Red Oath], and didn't take in any contradictory information...

Anyway, that was what all the hunters and guild officials thought. (Well, it can't be help if they are that prejudice...) (Hunters) And everyone went back to the their original work, the guild staff returned to work, the hunters returned to the request board or eating and drinking.

Meanwhile the [Red oath] is...

"Today, in order to help Maevis practice, we will take monster hunting quest!" (Rena) " " "Oh!" " " (Mile + Pauline + Maevis) It looked like Rena has thought ahead. As expected, the party leader... was Maevis?

"By the way, about what you all did eariler, would you mind explain it to me now?" (Rena) (T.N: Rena used polite word "kashira" in this talk) Apparently, Rena seemed to hold grude about what happened earlier. Then again, as a leader, Maevis is better.

Mile and Pauline thought so.

And, everyone didn't say it out their thinking.

(((Those girls earlier, it looks like they are going to involve with various things from now on...))) (Red Oath)

Chapter 179

Letter

It has been 3 days since, the [Red Oath] were only doing hunting requests.

It was because everyone agreed to help Maevis practice her new Special technique in actual battle, and also to help her to have more confidence.

Unlike Mile, the other 3 girls still have their common sense. Or that's what Maevis, Rena, and Pauline thought.

But if they were doing the [Copper Coin Slash] demonstration with thoughts like [I don't think this much will draw any attention] then they might as well have been falling to Mile's Side of Common Sense.

"Maevis, you have been working hard, that [Tempest Blade] is almost comparable to wind magic. In any case, people might mistake it as an average wind magic, At least, people will not notice that it is the Mile's family secret technique [Ki power]. Besides, that [Anti-magic Sword] is able to repel magic like a fire ball and slash or thrust your opponent, a Magus Killer weapon" (Rena) Yes, Rena was practicing partner for Maevis. Although she was instantly lost.

Maevis had slashed the flame with her sword, swung it at Rena and stopped the sword right just above Rena's head.

Of course, Maevis was not unscathed, a bit of her hair was falling down, and Mile fixed it quickly with magic.

"However, that was because you barely used your magical power..." (Maevis) "Stupid, in a rough battle, magicians can't use their powerful magic easily.

Even though I and Pauline can prepare a big magic, but in battle we can only shoot it one time as first magic.

Normally, magicians will stay behind and fire from a long distance with beginner-level magic such as fire ball with shorten time cast.

If the magic was repelled suddenly by the swordsman, the magicians are powerless against you, not to mention you can approach and cut them just in few seconds of surprised” (Rena) “... Really?” (Maevis)

Maevis was happy as she heard Rena’s words.

And Mile pretended that she didn’t hear that conversation.

She said nothing about the [mistake it as an average wind magic] part. It’s genuine, average wind magic itself.

Well, it’s true, at least there’s no need to worry that the secret will be revealed.

However, there will be another secret, that is [Maevis, who should be unable to use magic now can use wind magic].

Well, in that case, people will think that Maevis’s sword is a [Magic sword that can shoot wind magic].

It is also possible for people to think that she is the true knight, recognized by the magic sword.

After that, people would ask for the source of the sword: [I got it from a mysterious old man in one eye] or [I got it from the Goddess, the lady of the lake].

Or something appropriate like: Mile pretended to be a Goddess who bestow her with a god sword. To show her gratefulness, Maevis build the shrine to worship the goddess that gave her the god sword.

And then there would be no authority dare to take away the sword given by the Goddess.

If they believe in the existence of the god sword, they must believe in the involvement of Goddess.

Then there's no one would dare to face the punishment if they go against the Goddess.

This world is an undeveloped world where magic exists. It's normal for people to believe in the existence of God.

No, of course they would believe. This world had received large-scale interference from existence comparable to God, and as a result magic exists.

(Uhm, but in that case, Maevis got a god sword from the Goddess, doesn't that make her a Hero or a Chosen One?... Well, who cares, it's not a big deal anyway) (Mile) It was a big deal.

It was a really big deal for the whole country, no, for the whole continent.

t Then the girls arrived at the guild, pulled out prey from the storage and arranged it at the buying counter.

"Today we are safe. It seems like they aren't here" (Mile) "Ah, that's right" (Maevis) What Mile and Maevis said is, of course, the party of five girls, [Goddess' servant]. The uncle who accepted the purchase had a bitter smile as he checked the prey.

Well, the girls aren't at the food and drink corner, so the probability of meeting isn't high in the first place.

Maybe they took a rest or on requests.

"Okay, here is the payment. However, you girls really earn alot... Which remind me again, you are really lucky to have such the large capacity storage” (Guild purchase Receptionist)

(Hunters' POV) The ears of other hunters moved according to the words of the purchase receptionist uncle.

Yes, in order to earn efficiently, the girls can't hide about Mile's storage, they already announced it.

And the hunters who knew about it, wanted to have [Red Oath] more and more.

However, there was no party that can merge or have joint-party with the [Red Oath].

They all remember the miseries on the first day of [Contract's Guardian] with copper coin slash.

And there was no party confident enough to keep up with the marching speed that [Silver Claw] could not follow.

Still, there was no hunter who gave up to know [Red Oath].

If their party can get acquainted with [Red Oath], the girls may accept to have a joint-party.

And, if by chance, if only 1 or 2 hunters can get friendly with [Red Oath] as individual rather than party, they might have a chance to join [Red Oath] and have a harem state...

Because [Red Oath] only has 4 girls, and the ideal party number is five or six people, there are 1 or 2 slot available.

There is a possibility to become a member. No, they will desperately suggest the girls so.

Because there was no reason why the next member must not be man. There are also party with 4 man and 1 girl, it's not that uncommon.

If so, they can also hope the opposite situation can also happen, right? What about other male hunter, like their buddy?

Right now, they don't know about such a thing!

If push come to shove, after the lucky one gets in the harem, he can just make a joint drinking party with 4 girls, other male hunters will cry and appreciate it.

Who should they aim for?

The swordmen are in favor for strong and cool Maevis-chan.

Excellent sword skill with large capacity storage, honest and cute Mile-chan?

They have to wait 3 to 4 years before she can get married, but that much is nothing. They also can't leave alone the big tits Pauline-chan or the small Rena-chan.

Both of the girls are magicians, they can cure injury and useful in many ways.

In the place with full of hope, aspiration, desire, and delusions, the [Red Oath] party felt something uncomfortable, was trying to withdraw from the guild after finishing the job quickly.

But then Mile remembered.

"Oh, I'm sorry, I have something to do, so please stay here" (Mile) As Mile said so, she was heading to other reception counter for normal people, not the usual hunter counter.

It already happened before.

Yes, that time Mile shipped a thick paper bundle together with a letter.

Rena's group didn't think too hard or want to pry so they were waiting for Mile's business to end near the exit.

"Excuse, have you received the package? For [Miami Satodelle] from the guild branch carriage..." (Mile) Mile said so to the receptionist in small voice so that others could not hear it.

This place isn't a counter for orders and request completion report, but a counter for normal people, the receptionist of course is not [All this Felicia].

For normal citizens which are their customers, there's no way they can let her serve them.

Guild Master is not stupid.

"Please wait for a little while" (Receptionist) After politely said so, the receptionist disappeared beyond the door behind her. After a while, she came back with a small parcel.

And when she got back to her seat, she asked Mile.

"It can become silver bullet's material for eye diseases. What is the name of the giant creature that live in the sea and attack the ship?" (Receptionist) "Ocular's enemy!" (Mile)

"Yes, Authentication word (password) is clear. Here you go" (Receptionist) The receptionist gave Mile the parcel after saying so.

By the way, actually such creature really doesn't exist.

It was a trick question and answer that receptionist knew only Mile, no, [Miami Satodelle] could answer so. Another person would not be able to know the right answer.

*(T.N: In case you don't understand.

“Well, we will return to the inn, because tomorrow and the day after tomorrow are free days” (Rena) Hearing Rena ‘s words, the ears of the male hunters start to listen more attentively.

Perhaps, they hoped to hear how the girls in the [Red Oath] will act alone, and wondered if they had the opportunity to get acquainted with.

Giving information inadvertently in such a place, it was such a big blunder from Rena.

After returning to the inn, Mile opened the parcel, checked the two sealed letters inside. And one of them was put in storage and the other opened in front of everyone.

“This is a letter from Reni-chan!” (Mile)

“You, how did she know our contacts... Wait, it was a parcel in the previous town. Well, at that time, we decided to stay here for a while in the capital. Well then, should we read it?” (Rena) And the girls read the letter from Reni.

Chapter 180

Miami Satodelle

One day, it was early in the morning, when Reni-chan was sweeping in front of the entrance of the inn, one man called out to her.

“Is there someone named Reni here?” (Man) “I’m Reni, but...”
(Reni) Right now, both her parents already woke up and prepared in the inn, if anyone have business with the inn, they should go in and talk with the adults instead of having business with Reni-chan, who is just a child.

Although she answered, Reni-chan stayed caution, holding the broom in a battle position.

“No, I’m not a suspicious person. I just come here to deliver items!”
(Man) In a hurry, the man took out the letter from the bag on his shoulder and handed it over to Reni-chan.

“This is...?” (Reni)

“No, I’m just a delivery man, so I don’t know even if you ask me... Because the sender already paid in advance, you can just accept it” (Man)
Reni-chan looked over the sealed letter, the inn and her name were really written as the destination.

However, there’s no name of the sender.

Reni-chan couldn't understand, didn't people usually write their name outside the sealed letter to be seen by others?

“Who is the sender and where is the sender from?” (Reni)

The man shook his head to Reni-chan.

“I can’t answer it, and actually I don’t know the sender’s name of that letter either. No, of course I know the name of the staff who told me to deliver it, if I checked back with that staff I would get the information.

But sender’s name isn’t necessarily as long as I knew where the letter was addressed to. You may find out who is the sender by reading. It’s the guild’s rule to keep contact information a secret. So please don’t ask me about it.

And we didn’t ask the sender’s real name or affiliation back then either, but just a contact name. By doing so, the customer’s secret will be kept” (Man) When she heard that, the smart Reni-chan understood with a “pin~” sound. She cut the letter’s seal on the spot and read the first few lines of the letter. And she immediately put the letter back in the envelope.

“U... uhm, could you please wait until I write the reply letter? Also, would you please send the letter back the sender?” (Reni) The man smiled gently after thinking just a little.

“If you write a reply right now, I will wait to pick it up” (Man) “Please come here!” (Reni) And then Reni-chan pulled the man’s hand, took him in the pre-opening dining room, and had him sat on the seat, ignoring the owner who felt disturbed. She arranged 3 mugs of ale and snack for him, and desperately started writing letter.

“Isn’t it a little time consuming to drink all this...?” (Man) Drinking 3 mugs of ale early in the morning is contrary to that man’s policy.

“Well, whatever. I can just drink slowly... To be honest, I have never drunk this much. Even if I drink at home, there’s no one to complain. Because It wouldn’t be good for other to see me drinking during work so I’ve never drunk in daytime. I might drink if I go around the office from the back door, but I didn’t feel like it.

This little girl who seems to be an important person for that person, I feel bad to make her hurry too much” (Man) As he thought so, the man slowly touched a first cup.

t After a while

The man received the letter from Reni-chan, bowed to her as he said thanks and left the inn.

Then he started walking around the streets, where people began to increase.

Sometimes he slipped through the crowd, sometimes ran through a narrow back alley, continuing unreasonable and aggressive move seems to be impossible, just like a shadow and disappeared.

“But she seems to be high alerted with stranger... Well, I have instruction so I’m willing to protect her anyway. However, what on earth is that person fighting against...? Well, I’m used to it, but it won’t be funny to go against sensei’s instruction...” (Man) Then the man was devoted to paper work because he couldn’t come out to work with other employees until he sober from 3 mugs of ale.

t “Mile, you like reading books, don’t you? Have you read these yet?” (Rena) As she said so, Rena offered two entertainment books to Mile.

“Eh? Why does Rena-san have a book! It’s very expensive!” (Mile) Yes, in this world, books are stupidly expensive.

Even Mile must borrow books from the library without buying books.

And in this world, the number of books for entertainment is really small. Most of the books are Academic books and Nobility autobiography, etc.

Because the books' purpose mostly are [Record history, important information, honor great people's achievement].

There are only a certain number issued, they aren't profitable. Apart from whether the content is true or not.

However, entertainment books aren't so.

1 volume per book in the world where the book culture still isn't developed yet, Such work would hardly secure enough money to be profitable, that's why it isn't easy to lower the book price so that took a long time to made by handwritten.

And as for Hunter who live a traveling life, books will become excess baggage and increase the weight and other transporting problems.

Unless, you have even an average item box like Mile. Hunters would never buy books, so it's unlikely for Mile to expect that Rena would buy books.

"I just borrowed it, if we deposit a gold coin per book in the library, they will lend us the books with price one silver coin for three days for each book.

And in the library, everyone is just silently reading with quite a scary face. Reading book there is really uncomfortable.

I still need to pay the admission fee when reading at the library anyway. So, I thought that it wouldn't change much with borrow fee, so I borrowed it. And I already paid it with my own money, so it's okay even if everyone read it together.

This author's book is really interesting. I've read several copies quite some time before, but now the Author had a new publication, I borrowed 2 volumes together" (Rena) Because Rena kept insist, Mile took the books and looked at the title.

[Riajuu King] The story of three daughters who really love their father and the popular old King.

Author: Miami Satodelle

[Young Hamster's trouble] The story of a young man who can't win against the ferocious cockatrice that settled in his garden.

Author: Miami Satodelle

Mile was trembling as she looked at the two books.

“Well, I... I am fine to be the last people read it... So, please, give them to Pauline-san and Maevis-san first...” (Mile) “Well, you could read books really quick anyway. I will give it to you later, then. Maevis, Pauline, do you want to read this?” (Rena) Rena moved away from Mile to Maevis and Pauline while saying that. And Mile seems to be full of sweat.

t Late night, after Rena and everyone went to bed.

Just like usual, Mile was staying up late at night, was writing using lighting magic in the light blocking barrier.

And after finished writing, Mile brought out the letter from the item box and read through again.

Yes, there's one more letter for another person in the same package contained the letter sent from Reni-chan.

[Manuscripts from Miami Satodelle-sensei have been received. We will immediately transfer it to the writing house to mass-produce it. The sales of the previous work are good, and some stories might be picked by the theater as well. The payment for manuscript has already been transferred to your account in the commercial guild. The letter of your request was also delivered safely. And it goes without saying. We are waiting for the next manuscript. Orthus Publishing Mersacks] (Letter) (T.N: Mile's inner thought?) I wanted to spread interesting stories to this world rather than earning money.

I wanted to create a story with my own hands and have everyone enjoy it. And I wanted to imprint this world so everyone can understand my gags. It's too painful and sad if there's no one who knows about the stories I love.

[Please give me an Anime, Wiseman (please give me an Anime, Kenji Onii-chan)].

(T.N: Kenja mean Wiseman, while Kenji is a name.) Miami Satodelle.

It is a mixture of the three names of Misato, Adel, Mile. The combination of three Mile's lives.

That was Miami Satodelle.

"I will do it! I will make sure to spread [Japan Fukushima talk] to this world, no matter what, [World Fukushima talk] spreading, start!" (Mile) But unknown to Mile. Maevis and Pauline who read the book borrowed from Rena noticed that it was like the [Japanese Fukushima talk] heard from Mile so far.

They came to a mutual understanding that they shouldn't reveal this secret...

Chapter 181

Litoria 1

(T.N: Mile's POV?) After a few days later.

It was about time we needed to go see Litoria again, to see whether those multi-vitamin tablets have an effect or not. If it's really effective, we should see the change.

If it wasn't so effective, we had to change the method. But we had to confirm first. There's young girl suffering, the girls couldn't waste too much time.

That's why [Red oath] party, went directly to the Aura family first thing in the morning. Of course, this time, they are just walking.

Even though it's a visit without appointment, however the girls don't have worry about permission from the baron.

Because, they just need to meet Dunbine or any servant.

Even if they couldn't go inside, they still could just ask about Litoria's condition, so there is no problem.

The grocery store and the fish shop also don't have appointment before visiting. It's pretty much the same.

"Welcome young ladies! Lord Baron will meet you immediately, in the mean time, please come to this place!" (Dunbine) But it wasn't the same.

As soon as [Red oath] told their name to the gate keeper, butler Dunbine came like flying to greet them.

And then the girls were guided by him to Litoria's room.

And what the girls saw when they entered the room urged by butler Dunbine. "Ah, long time no see, everyone!" (Litoria) Litoria was exercising actively with light squat, no it's Hindu squat. "Wha, what..." (Rena) Rena was letting out her surprise voice while the other three didn't make a noise. It seems like Litoria was already getting better.

"I... I'm sorry to keep you waiting" (Baron) When the [Red oath] were still surprised, the baron came.

"Not only her lower paralyzed limbs and frail constitution have been recovered but her physical fitness also improved as well. She also has appetite now. It's way beyond what I can hope. We are really appreciated this" (Baron) As he said that, the baron who lowered his head. "No, please raise your head!" (Maevis) Even though she isn't commoner, but it's still somewhat uncomfortable to have the Baron bowed down many times.

Maevis said that to the Baron in a panic. "But, this is....."

Even what she wore is a sleepwear type of pajamas rather than negligee, but it's still not something a young woman should show to the gentlemen.

For a weak and frail girl, right now she is a bit too powerful.

(T.N: Powerful/Paowafuru in raw. Negligee is correct, it's a woman's light dressing gown not underwear) “Somehow, my body is light and it's fun to exercise. This is the first time I experience this! Is this what we call [Health]?” (Litoria) (... Nano-chan?) (Mile)

[Yes!] (Nano-chan)

(What does this mean?) (Mile) [Yes, I gave her a little service, special ingredients in the tablets... Also, I instructed others to help her improve the constitution] (Nano-chan) (As expected!) (Mile)

Mile expected that there was something like that.

Otherwise, no matter how good the medicine, it can't show this kind of effect so soon.

“Uhm, if you are already getting healthy, why did you still wear clothes for when you sleep?” (Maevius) “ “ “Eh.....” “ “ (Baron, Dunbine, Litoria) As they heard Maevius' question, Baron, Bandain, and Litoria were somewhat stiff. “Litoria is always wearing that, it's kind of natural to see her like that...” (Baron) “The sleepwear fit well with Lady Litoria, I can't think of any other clothes...” (Dunbine) “This is easier so to move...” (Litoria) (((Hey!!))) (Red Oath) “This lazy young girl, change your clothes quickly!” (Rena) (((Hey, hey hey!))) (Mile + Pauline + Maevius)

Rena used “young girl” (onna) instead of senpai.

Although Rena wasn't in position to say that, from other people's point of view, Rena is younger.

Moreover, she said it in front of her father, who is a noble.

But both the baron and Maevis just had bitter smile. And then the Baron left the arrangements for clothes change to the butler Dunbine.

Meanwhile, he and the [Red oath] moved to the guest room.

“As you can see, the request has been completed, thank you very much” (Baron) Immediately after they went into the guest room, the baron handed out a request completion certificate taken out from his pocket to Maevis.

Apparently, he wasn't got fool by Rena's attitude, he seemed to have found that the leader was actually Maevis.

No, it may be because he simply thought that Maevis is the oldest, or a noble. From her looks, Rena is only around 12 to 13 years old.

No, no, he should remember from the last time, he was already heard about the introducing, the leader was Maevis, certainly.

Maevis checked the request completion certificate that was passed to her, the evaluation was A.

Well, there can't be any other evaluation. “Thank you”

(Maevis) As the same time

Maevis said that word, others also bowed down at the same time. Everyone also has that kind of courtesy It's also like a kind of ritual.

“And, actually, I have a favor to ask but...” (Baron) Maevis responded graciously to the baron who was saying so.

“A new nomination request? Could you tell us the contents...” (Maevis) Even if it’s a request from an aristocrat, we will not accept unreasonable requests or requests from someone looked down on hunters. That is the rule decided by everyone in the [Red oath].

No matter how good a person the baron is, the girls will not accept it without asking content of the request.

However, the baron who heard the words of Maevis showed a hesitating, a little troubled.

“Request... will this be really a request? No, hunter is certainly not a charity work. If a noble ask of you anything, it will be job request...” (Baron) The baron murmured something as he was feeling down.

“Please, become Litoria’s friends!” (Baron) “I refuse!” (Mile)

“Eeeehhh!?” (Baron) It was an immediate answer, and unexpected said by Mile, the Baron raised his surprised voice.

“Wh... why...?” (Baron) A baron who never thought that he would be refused with an immediate answer, asked Mile with somewhat upset.

“Friend isn’t something asked by the other party’s parent... in addition...” (Mile) “In addition?” (Baron) “Because Litoria is already our friend, so we can’t do it again anymore!” (Mile)

“Aa, eee...” (Baron) And Rena’s group continued telling the Baron while Mile scratching her head from embarrassed.

“Well, that’s Mile for you” (Rena)

“ “Other answers are impossible, don’t you think?” “

(Maevis+Pauline) It seems that Maevis and Pauline also completely read Mile like a book.

Until recently, including the previous life, Mile had a history without age equal friends, she earnestly wanted to make friend with everyone, people find it hard to refuse her And that fact was well understood to all three other member, even they don’t know the detail about it.

“It’s easy to understand, after all Mile is...” (Rena) “Eh.....” (Litoria) Everyone could hear a surprised voice from elsewhere, and turned to the door.

Litoria had changed into an average indoor clothes, standing there with glittering eyes filling with surprise and joy.

“Fri... friends... my friends...” (Litoria)

((Ah.....))) (Rena + Pauline + Maevis’ thought) Even if she isn’t Mile, there’s no way I could not refuse this. (Rena + Pauline + Maevis’ thought) “With this, I can also adventure with you all as a hunter!” (Litoria) “ “ “ “ “ “Eeeeeeeeeeeeeehhhhhh~~!” “ “ “ “ “ (Red Oath+Baron+Dunbine) Everyone shouted together, not only the Baron, the [Red oath] but also the Butler Dunbine as well.

Listening to the conversation between his master and the guests, butler Dunbine, for the first in age raised his surprise voice.

Litoria 2

“Wha... what are you saying...” (Baron) “Eh, if I want to stay and act together with my friends who are the hunters, then, I have to take a hunter qualification test and join them...” (Litoria) Litoria replied lightly to the Baron.

“ “ “ “No, no no no no, no, wrong, that’s wrong!!” “ “ “ (Red Oath) [Red oath] shook their heads and right hands as they were saying that.

“I told you before, Hunter is a dangerous business, we may also die. It’s a job that doesn’t suit for a noble lady...” (Maevis) “Oh, that’s right! It’s such a dangerous task, a hard work, that was too much for Litoria...” (Mile) Both Maevis and Mile desperately tried to stop, Litoria was a little taking back however...

“Eh? But both Maevis-san and Mile-san are also noble ladies, aren’t they?” (Litoria) “ “Uuu” “ (Mile + Maevis) Speaking of which, although they didn’t declare about it, but in order to have the baron’s trust, both Maevis and Mile were acting like aristocrats, and they were obviously judged to be aristocrats.

They also didn’t hide the fact that they were former nobility or the active aristocracy on a journey...

In order for the Baron to trust them, it was necessary to show that they have proper status, the person with wide range of knowledge after undergoing advanced education. So it can not be helped Although it was really helpful, however it become backfire here...

“Hunter must have enough fighting power and strength to defend yourself, and you can’t do it yourself without disturbing your friends.

You can’t carry heavy luggage on your back and crossing the forest, plains and steep mountains. We must also fight against enemies...

Unless you have great sword skills like Maevis, good memory for magic like us, or special skills like Mile, you won’t be able to keep up” (Rena) Although Rena tried to persuade Litoria to give up by saying so.

“Eh, but I am good at magic. Because my body is weak and I can’t go out of the house, so it isn’t well known, but I can use both fire and water attack magic” (Litoria) “Wha... what’s with that” (Rena)

There are rarely such beautiful girls in nobility.

Yes, as far as Mile knows, there are only Marcella trio, the [Wonder Three] that Mile has trained and raised, well, she did it with [power leveling] though.

Even if you search throughout the country, you won’t be able to find aristocratic girls who can use attack magic.

In addition, a beautiful girl, no lover, no fiancée, or interested in anyone. Yes, you won’t be able to find such girls.

If people were to know about the existence of Litoria, her talent, while her illness and body were completely recovered, there is no doubt that they would come flying.

Moreover, since there are a lot of older brothers and older sisters, so there’s no problem to take her as a bride because she isn’t a heir.

She is just the daughter of a baron, quite low rank for a noble to go against other high rank noble.

She is already 14 years old, she could already be engaged for the time being...

“And I got better from a few days ago. Now, I feel like I can go back and forth to a neighboring town holding a barrel...” (Litoria) “Eeeehhh!” (Rena) Rena, speechless.

“So, Lord Baron, if the news about Litoria-sama’s magical talent and completely recovered from illness spread to the nobles of other houses...” (Mile) “Ah.....” (Baron)

Hearing Mile’s words, the baron instantly realized everything and turned pale. “Don’t do that! Litoria, I don’t want you to become a bride of anyone!” (Baron) “No, my father, I do not want to become a bride, but a hunter...” (Litoria) And they kept repeating the circle for a while.

“...and as we said, we are all C rank hunters, even if Litoria become F rank which is a brand new hunter, our rank will not match, you can’t enter the party...” (Mile) “Uuu, is that so...” (Litoria) It is a big lie.

Even if 4 out of 5 people are rank C and one of them is rank F, the party rank can be maintained as C.

More than that, if you can use attack magic, you will probably start from D rank.

Of course, even if you can use attack magic, you will never become a C rank right away but a D rank, who is still an amateur.

Unless you can use storage magic...

They may have realized about Mile’s lies, but of course the barons and the butler never mention it. Definitely.

With such combination, the ambition of Litoria was stopped in advance.

t “Nomination request completion, A evaluation...” (Felicia) After carefully watching the certificate received from Maevis, Felicia glanced at the face of the [Red oath] with eerie eyes.

(I should have reported it to another counter...) (Maevis) Maevis was regretting, but Felicia beckoned and invited Maevis who tried to line up with other counters in fact.

Apparently, it seems that she decided the [Red oath] is her own responsibility. So other staff members were somewhat reluctant to do the report.

In the end, there's no way Maevis can escape anyway.

“Given up by many doctors, the aristocratic daughter was bedridden with a mysterious disease, And you just cured it in a few days, hey...” (Felicia) Ahem “Hey, is that a rule violation...?” (Maevis? or Pauline?) As Felicia was told so, she obedient did the procedure. “Okay!”

As she said so, she placed a leather bag at the counter.

It will be a problem if you hand over too many coins and it isn't good receiving a large amount of money at the place where there are other hunters' eyes, so payment over a certain amount will be handed over in a leather bag.

Some of the hunters, such as those with bad taste, those with money troubles, etc.

However, even if the amount is hidden, it doesn't make much sense because the leather bag itself is already proving, it's more than a certain amount, even if the money was put in the leather bag.

And the hunters here also knew that leather bags are only used for more than 30 gold coins.

In addition, because the size of the leather sack changes depending on the number of gold coins, for those who are observing, the approximate number of coins could be guessed.

Even it was a mean to avoid people knowing it, it's backfired with extra stimulus. Well, but the guild side thinks that is enough.

However, Felicia were different.

Yes, even with payment like several gold coins, she changed the whole amount to several hundreds of silver coin or several dozens of small gold coins and hand it over to the hunter in leather bag.

Also the leather bag isn't free. The purchase is expensive.

It's an act of wasting leather bags, but for some reason it has been ignored by guild master and other guild staff members.

There's no-one complain.

...why?

That is, of course, [because it's Felicia].

In this guild there was no one who would oppose Felicia.

And the hunter side who was given a large amount of silver coins in a leather bag is pleased with the good economic appearance, no one complains.

On the contrary, they were delighted as [lucky].

Maervis looked into the leather bag and tried to check the number, but stopped halfway and handed it to the Mile as it was.

...Because the girls did not hear nor ask about the payment of the request from the baron, Maevis noticed that there's no point in checking the number now. They couldn't ask Felicia about it now.

If they do that, everyone will know that they received a request without deciding the request fee.

For some reason, Maevis felt that it was a very bad thing.

And Mile stored the received leather bag in the item box so that they could be seen by other hunters.

Of course, everyone seems to think that was an ordinary storage magic.

As a result, it was known that it's impossible for pickpockets, to inform they needed to confront the [Red oath] in order to take away gold coins.

Fortunately, there was no such hunters at all, but Felicia raised one eyebrow slightly, looking at Mile and Maevis that stored without checking the contents of that leather bag.

(Don't you care about the number of gold coins? Or do you trust the guild so far? Fufufu, Interesting girls.....) (Felicia) Felicia lifted the edge of her mouth slightly, looking at the [Red oath] which started walking away.

((((((Uwaaaaaaa))))))

(Hunters) They saw ridiculous things.

The hunters who saw Felicia at that time, felt fear.

Except only a few veteran hunters who can distinguish Felicia's laughing face in good mood...

Avengers 1

“Are they still following us?” (Maevis) “It seems like they are still following...” (Rena) Rena replied to Maevis question.

Today, [Red oath] came to this forest, thinking about hunting Orc or Ogre in the forest because there was no interesting request.

The Ogre would give really good rewards and achievement points, while Orc is good enough to sell as a material.

If this is an average hunter party, they should withdraw after defeating an Orc.

Even if it's a party of 5 to 6 people, they could only carry as much as one Orc worth of materials.

Majority rewards from an Orc is the material sale price, it was payment for carrying materials from the forest to the city, not reward from killing.

It was Reasonable.

...However, such a thing does not matter to the [Red oath] party which has Mile. So they normally get above average earnings.

Of course, it's not limited to Orc and Ogre, anything can be prey because monsters are always in permanent hunting quest, and the material can be sold.

So, the girls wandered around in the forest and relaxed, and they decided to go with [encounter battle] with the prey they met.

It's not fun to use enemy search magic everytime.

Because everyone is paying full attention to search for prey, they will not suffer surprise attacks either.

Rena didn't have enemy search magic like Mile, but she perceived with her intuition... someone was following them, there were doubtful signs.

Rena could tell the tailing person seems to be an amateur going alone.

Mile didn't use search magic also because she thought that it's not good for everyone to rely on search magic every time.

And of course, it's also because this time the opponent seems to be an amateur.

Rena also probably guessed that's what Mile is thinking, because Mile didn't give out information immediately.

Anyway, the girls will not rely on Mile for enemy search magic.

"It's a waste of time as it is. We should deal with them first, we can't hunt in a state where there's someone tailing us" (Rena) "Elimination of obstacles, isn't it?" (Pauline) Pauline responded to Rena.

Even if the tailing person is an amateur, their bow and arrows, throwing spear may be top notch.

The girls can't battle with Ogre while exposing their backs to that possibility.

Besides, there's also a possibility that the tailing person feint to be an amateur on purpose.

Because there's only one person, that possibility is very low, but it's never zero, so the girls couldn't ignore it.

"We can ambush in that big tree" (Rena)

Rena pointed to a big tree and three girls nodded with Rena's word.

(.....Eh?) (???)

The follower was upset for a moment.

After the girls went behind the tree, their sight was completely lost on the next moment.

They should appear again on the other side of the tree, but the girls didn't appear even after a few dozens of seconds.

As the follower tried to check the back side of the tree, while carefully keeping the distance, there was no one there.

“Where, where?” (???)

A follower leaked her voice unexpectedly rushed to the side of the tree where she lost sight of her targets and looked round.

However, she couldn't find anything. “Where in the world...” (???) “Here!” (Rena) “Uwa!” (???) Surprised by Rena who suddenly jumped off the tree, the follower screamed unexpectedly. It's a girl around 10 years old.

Following after Rena, Mile and Maevis jumped off the trees, quickly got behind the girl and surrounded the girl with Rena.

...Pauline could get on the tree with Mile's lifting, but as she wasn't able to jump off like everyone, she was slowly crawling down.

After all, Pauline didn't expect this to receive special training of jumping off the tree from Maevis. Pauline had an unpleasantly face as it's [not cool].

“Who are you?” (Rena)

“What do you want with us?” (Mile) “You should speak honestly, cute little lady (kawaii ojousan)” (Maevis) “The joint... it hurts, my thigh...” (Pauline) A girl raised her eyebrows on Pauline who broke the atmosphere, and her cheeks blushed as she was staring at Maevis.

And Mile could see it.

“Somehow, I wasn’t surprised about this...” (Mile) “So, why were you following us?” (Rena) “Well, I don’t know! I just happened walking around here!” (Loli) Although she was still deny it, but of course the girls wouldn’t let it pass.

“Ohh, a little girl is going alone, in the forest... Then, I wonder why did you in a hurry after losing sight of us?” (Pauline) “Uuu...” (Loli)

Apparently, the lolita thought that she couldn’t escape anymore, and she stared at Rena.

“You, Nii-sama’s enemy” (Loli) “ “ “ “Ehh.....” “ “ “ (Red Oath) Rena has never killed a person since she met Mile’s group at hunter training school.

If she was secretly killing people around the time of a single action on a rest day, the story is different...

Those who was killed by Rena are supposed to be only the bandit group that killed the [Red lightning bolt].

But that was a story of years ago.

Right now as [Red oath], all bandits were caught and handed over to the guild.

Even if this loli is a bandit's little sister, the bandit's little sister is coming for revenge, such things have never been heard.

Besides, she should be thankful for the girl who only captured the bandits without killing.

Besides, this loli didn't look at the Mile's trio, she just stared at Rena. And naturally, Rena was wondering about that as well.

“Why is it only me? If you hold a grudge, here, there's a hungry black girl...” (Rena) “Wh... what... what are you saying, Rena!”

(Pauline) Pauline protested to Rena, it intensify. And as usual the atmosphere was ruined.

Mile was watching the girl while Rena and Pauline were busy dealing with other. Maevis still kept her eyes on the girl carefully.

This little girl is about 10 years old, isn't wearing hunter leather armor, etc.

She wore clothes like an average town girl wearing, only equipped with a small dagger on her waist.

A dagger is necessary for cut plants and goblins or cobold-like monsters when they appear, if you enter a forest, even if you aren't a hunter, it is natural to have a dagger.

What if there are strong monster like Orc?

If a young girl decided to enter the forest alone, she must know and be prepared for it. Her head doesn't cover by hoods, bonnets, etc.

(Hair) Dumpling, is it?

Somehow her hair was make into 2 dumplings by dividing the hair in left and right, Yes, with a hairstyle like Chinese girls wearing Chinese clothes in Anime, it's a little unusual here.

Her hair is brownish, golden eyes... Mile feel like she has seen it somewhere before. "It's all your fault!" (Loli) Maybe she was bothered by the murmur from [Red oath], the little girl finally shouted.

"Kyle Nii-sama has always hugged me tightly, but he stopped hugging me after a certain day! Even when he received a hug from me, he suddenly became confused and pushed me away..." (Loli) As she kept talking, the little girl started crying.

"Wh, what's with that! I do not know, such a man!" (Rena) Rena was screaming so, she didn't understand.

((Ah.....))) (Mile + Pauline + Maevis)

At this point, three girls, Pauline, Maevis and Mile got the person named [Kyle] that this girl was talking about.

It's only Rena that still didn't know.

"What are you talking about! Not only you hurted Kyle Nii-sama's heart, you also forgot about it like nothing. What's a devil! What's an evil!" (Loli) "Kyle?... Who is that?" (Rena)

As it is, the story is unlikely to progress.

Inevitably, Mile signaled to Rena with Choi choi and index finger, pointing at her face.

After Rena looked at her face, Mile pointed index fingers of both hands and put it on both side of her head.

“.....what... what do you imitate? Like a finger, like a horn,...” (Rena) ... Rena turned around looking at the little girl again.

Her line of sight was directed to two dumplings on the head of that little girl.

“Ah, it was something like that... Then, why didn’t tell me clearly from the beginning!” (Rena) And, that was about the devil boy who fought and was defeated by Rena, apparently this little devil seemed to be that devil boy’s little sister.

It seems that this little devil hid her horns with her hair dumplings and pretended to be human.

And three girls, Mile, Maevis and Pauline thought.

((((Well, of couse, he would have a trauma to be hugged by a girl...))) (Mile + Pauline + Maevis) And of course this will be a big problem for woman who would become his lover in the future, as well as his bro-con sister.

Chapter 184

Avengers 2

“...sorry, It’s my bad” (Rena) Rena now realized the circumstances and apologized.

No, that was a fair-play game, she didn’t not think that she was really at fault, but there was no use to argue with a loli.

Rena chose an adult behavior.

“Do you think you can get away with apologize!” (Loli) “Hey, you brat! Don’t get over your head just because I’m being nice to you...” (Rena) “ “Calm down...” “ “ (Mile + Maevis + Pauline) And Rena’s [Adult behavior] ended in but a moment.

“But, isn’t it a bit too early for Meiril-chan to come here from Devil Kingdom? Your brother should just get back a few days ago” (Mile) From what she heard earlier, this loli seems to have that name.

And, in order to save time by settling in Rena’s place, Mile tried talking to Meiril...

“Don’t treat Meiril like a child! Because Devil like us grow much faster than human!” (Meiril) “Ah, I’m sorry... NOT... Uhm, isn’t that make you actually younger than how you looks?” (Mile) “Ahh.....” (Meiril) Meiril was stuck with Mile’s simple question.

“...So, how old are you?” (Rena) “Uu.....” (Meiril) “How~ old~ are~ you~?” (Rena) “Uu, se~ven years~ old...”
(Meiril) Meiril lost the Rena’s pressure and said her age.

“What, aren’t you just an infant, I thought you are about 10 years old” (Rena) “How rude, who is an infant? I am a fine lady
You know!” (Meiril) “Yes yes, I get it I get it...” (Rena) Rena lightly agreed with Meiril’s objections.

Of course, Rena wouldn’t want to argue with Meiril anymore, now that she knew this little devil girl is just a 7 year old child even younger than she thought.

“So, what is the answer for Mile’s previous question? It certainly is a bit too early for you to make a trip from Devil country to this place...”
(Rena) Meiril answered to Rena swiftly.

“Well, Beldetes-san came to see the situation with Kyle nii-sama’s group. He brought the five persons who battled with you back to Devil Kingdom for a direct report. And then Sherara got interested by listening to the story, she took me who happen to be there on board.
She waited me on the rocky mountain, to take me back home after I’m done. Follow me, because you will also go back with me!” (Meiril)
Meiril pointed at Rena as she said that. “ “ “ “Ah.....” “ “ “ (Red Oath)

To cure her brother's trauma, it seems that Meiril is trying to bring Rena, who is the culprit along.

The girls understand that feeling.

However, whether Rena would obedient follow or not was another problem.

And even if Meiril took Rena back to the Devil country and met with her brother Kyle... Mile's trio were able to assert with absolute confidence.

“ “ “His trauma would get worse and end up irreparable!”

(Mile's trio) “What's with that!” (Rena) Although Rena protested, everyone's judgment never changed.

“But, I need to cure Nii-sama... Since then, I can't hug him anymore. Sometimes he behaved strange, it was fluffy or something, sweet smell or something, scorching body and mind or something, etc... Kyle nii-sama just kept muttered those things that I don't understand...” (Meiril) “ “ “ “Huh.....” “ “ “ (Red Oath) Mile's group were dumbfound.

Yes, even someone as dull as Mile could understand the situation somewhat. Of course, Maevis and Rena also got it.

Pauline? Pauline doesn't have to notice it. “Well, that... is...”

(Rena) Unusually, Rena was nervous.

Well, she has always been treated like a child or a dangerous being, and have never been treated as a [girl].

Actually, only Rena herself didn't notice, it's not like there wasn't anyone aiming at Rena.

It was always Rena, who didn't notice it and was just breaking the flag herself.

However, Rena remembered that the other person is also a child that looks like 12 to 13 years old.

“ “ “ “Whaaaaaaaat!?” “ “ “ (Red Oath) 7 years old looks like 10 years old, 16 years old looks like 12-13 years old. What’s going on, the growth rate of the devil family!

The 4 girls thought so, but it isn’t unusual for wild animals to grow rapidly until they can be self-reliant in order to survive.

The devil children will continue rapid growing until their body was about 10 to 11 years after they were born. After that, their growth slowed down.

Yes, it’s the same pattern as elves. “Oh, the same age...” (Rena) Rena was muttering so.

In this different world, Rena and everyone have similar sense of height as Westerner on the earth, men who look like 12 to 13 years old will have an average height about 160 cm.

So that boy was considerably bigger than Rena.

...It looks like the two of them are well-balanced. And that boy was quite courteous.

As a devil, so it was natural that he was also good at magic, strong in power, and in many cases he was a handsome man.

“Uu.....” (Rena)

And for a while, Rena groaned with her quite red cheeks... “I will not go!” (Rena) ...It was natural.

Anyway, Rena is 16 years old and she didn’t intend to marry interracial with other races.

Right now, she was aiming to be a B rank hunter with everyone and getting a promising future.

Besides, She didn’t think that she would not be able to catch a better man.

No, with Rena’s appearance and magical power, that wasn’t really impossible. Only the chest... , no, there must be some men with such demand, perhaps.

Like Austin family and so on.

And then, the girls managed to persuade Meiril. They taught, counseled the methods for approaching her brother.

“Rena-san, wasn’t that bad? They are brother and sister...” (Mile) “Isn’t that fine if you do that! Beside, it looks interesting” (Maevis) “...Mile, how could that be fine?” (Rena) “Maevis, don’t tell me...” (Mile)

“Well, I also have a younger brother, Aran, so I understand about it...” (Pauline) “ “Eeehhhh?” “ (Mile + Rena) “Isn’t that right?” (Maevis) “Ah, all of you...” (Pauline) It was chaos.

“...I understand, I will give up taking you back. You all have taught me variety of reference stories, so I will try them for now” (Meiril) (...for real, you are going to try it...?) (Rena) Rena felt bad for telling various irresponsible things and broke cold sweat. Mile was worrying because those were rather bad ideas.

However both Maevis and Pauline were just advising like an average things, they didn't really care much about it.

“Ah... That's right, I forgot. Uhm, it must be you, right? Having blonde hair, and the tallest girl of the four!” (Meiril) As Meiril said that, she pointed at Maevis this time. “Ah, me?” (Maevis) Maevis was surprised.

“It's about the swordsman who fought with you. He told me that he wanted to see you again. I was asked to invite you and will bring you along if possible. Sherara-san also agreed that she would take you along because it seems to be interesting...” (Meiril) “ “ “ “Whaaaaaaaat!” “ “ “ (Red Oath)

As for today, [Red oath] was able to train their throat a lot,... unwillingly.

t And, Meiril casted the signal magical bullet towards the sky, a moment later, Sherara came.

“This time, you had taught me a lot, so I will withdraw this. But in case everything that you taught me was ineffective, I will come again! Because you still didn't take responsibility yet!” (Meiril) As she was saying that, Meiril started (climbing) riding on Sherara.

“Also, if there is an interesting story, please call me!” (Sherara) Rena shouted at Sherara who was saying so.

“Urusai! Besides, this time... no, we will never call you!” (Sherara) Sharara was giggling and laughing at Rena who was angry, and fled away with Meiril.

...Of course, Maevis didn't ride with them. “What's with all that...” (Rena) “I'm tired.....” (Maevis) Rena and Maevis seemed to be tired. And Pauline was sullen.

“Why didn't anyone ask about me! No, I don't want to be a devil or anything. But both Rena and Maevis were asked out, so why didn't I have anything? What was my opponent thinking?” (Pauline) “ “ “.....” “ “ (Mile's trio)

Pauline's opponent is that man who has tasted hell like in lower body and hot magic. (((No, that's absolutely, perfectly understandable...))) (Mile's trio) Yes, it was absolutely impossible for anyone to ask Pauline. “Shall we go home...?” (Mile) No-one refused Mile's suggestion.

And, unusually, with zero prey, [Red oath] party were heading back to the capital.

Chapter 185

Fairy Hunting 1

Today is the rest days of the [Red oath].

Regardless of the normal calendar day, that have rest once per 6 days, it's just their holidays.

There is no need to purposely adapt to the rest days of the public.

So, they had set the breaks freely according to the situation of their orders received.

And this time, the girls decided to have five holidays, everyone could take a free action individually, no need to do it together.

No matter how much the girls get along with each other, some private time is needed occasionally.

(It should be around here...) (Mile)

Mile, based on the information she has looked up here and there, went into the deep forest near the small village of the distant territory, away from the capital that [Red Oath] was staying.

If Mile went alone, she could move in a short time by high-speed movement, even though this place is quite far.

“Nano-chan!” (Mile) “Yes!” (Nano-chan)

here” (Mile) “Understood!”

(Nano-chan) And the nanomachines started activities, the ground in front of Mile was shaking,

soil started forming a figure.

It was about 20 centimeters tall, the shape of a girl with feathers.

A very precise fairy figure that Mile designed based on information studied from old books and properly colored.

Well, since the nanomachines knew the fairy's actual figure, they instantly modified with Mile's instructions and made it closer to the real thing.

Because Mile didn't listen well to the nanomachines from the beginning, that's why the nanomachines' behaviors somehow turned out like that.

Nanomachines wanted Mile to rely on them more, but of course they also knew the reason why Mile didn't do so. And they respected Mile's will, however they still tried their best to help Mile as much as possible.

And, for some reason, the feathers of this fairy figure are tattered, her clothes are red stained like blood.

Flap (SFX)

...And it worked. Apparently, it seems that it wasn't a figure but a golem. "Is it sufficient?" (Nano-chan) "Yeah, perfect! [A perfect mother]!" (Mile) [A perfect mother], it's a quote from TV show that from Mile had watched in her previous life.

And Misato's life has ended before she could use it even once, but Mile could use that Japanese word exclusively for the nanomachines who could understand the meaning from wave-thought.

Then Mile tied down a thin, invisible and sturdy threads to the back of a small fairy golem. She made it, with the thin line using for fishing she saw before, in mind.

“Start!” (Mile)

“Ma~!” (Golem) The fairy type golem, which was controlled by nanomachines according to Mile’s thought, and jumped up with the thread.

“Golem golem...!? Gowappa 5 Go dam!?” (Mile) And Mile muttered something she didn’t understand well.

Yes, Mile couldn’t use the way to obtain the information [Listen to the nanomachines] So, she must do it indirectly with the help of nanomachines.

Because she is in the[Red oath], she must be cautioned when to use.

In the case of human life, she must not cause annoyance or bad influence to other people, not for profit purpose but just for enjoyment of herself, she established a rule whenever she could ask the cooperation of the nanomachines.

...It’s also because she noticed that the nanomachines would be reluctant unless they could take part in after a long time.

t “It is useless...” (Mile)

Mile has changed places many times and repeatedly, but the situation does not change.

Yes, others could only see fairy type golem (with thread) flew around, Mile was hidden with camouflage.

Mile thought that she wanted to see them someday from the time she learned that the fairy really exists in this world.

In the past, it seemed that human had met fairies, and various stories are kept in the record.

A lost child in forest who got nectar, food and was guided back near the village. A villager in trouble got taught a solution by the fairies...

However, it seems that some fairies have gradually disappeared in front of humans because some humans captured and sold fairies, or trying to make money using fairies as spectacle.

However, the fairies weren't really extinct, they just ceased appearing in public, there should have been a way to meet.

Yes, for example, the way Mile is doing right now...

And right when Mile about to give up when the sun is already leaning.

“What’s wrong, you are tainted with blood! It is terrible, feathers are tattered... Have you been captured by humans? Anyway, let’s go to our hiding place...” (Fairy) A (wild) fairy appeared from nowhere.

That fairy flapped the wings and feathers.

As she said so, she approached the fairy type golem and held its body anxiously, tried to support it.

Gaba~!

(SFX) “Kyaa!”

(Fairy) The

fairy raised her voice in surprise, when the golem

suddenly held

hands strongly.

“Re... release me! You will make both of us fall! It’s okay! Please calm down!” (Fairy) It seems that the fairy is still thinking the golem is her injured fellow.

And the back of the fairy golem broke open, the thin lines inside of it tied up the fairy’s limbs.

And the fairy seems to have noticed that the other party isn’t a fellow but a strange monster with figure like a fairy. Her face became blue and she started screaming.

“Gyaaaaaaaaaaa!” (Fairy)

Then, Mile pulled on the thread, drawing the golem with the fairy to her. Yes, she knew it in her previous life about[fairy friendship]

She used the golem imitating the wounded fairy to lure and capture the fairy who worried about her fellow.

It is a devil.

It's no doubt that the fairies will lose trust in human more and more. "Help, please! Don't eat me!" (Fairy) Because the opponent used limbs and threads to capture the prey, the fairy seems to think that this is a spider monster with fairy appearance.

And for what purpose the monster that mimic the prey catch the prey? 1 Eat.

2 Made prey stop moving with paralytic poison and lay eggs. The fairy can only think about 2 options.

But although she was caught, the predator didn't try to hurt or kill her, it seemed trying to catch her alive.

The fairy imagined its purpose was most likely[number 2], she screamed more loud to her destiny that worse than death.

"GYAHIIII! Help me! somebody, help me please!" (Fairy) Seeing the fairy got panic, Mile tried calling out to calm her down.

"Don't worry, I'm not a demon. I am an average human being. So, you don't need to worry..." (Mile) As she heard Mile's words, the fairy stopped screaming.

“...human?” (Fairy) “Yes, I’m a human!” (Mile)

“GYOHIIIIII!!?” (Fairy) The fairy screamed with a voice louder than the previous one, and then the fairy suddenly became quiet.

As Mile looked the fairy again, the fairy had white eyes and blown the bubbles, she seemed to be fainted.

Apparently, for the fairy, it seemed much more frightening to be caught by humans than being eaten alive or being spawned with a spider-shaped monster.

And Mile thought.

(Are fairies afraid of humans this much!) (Mile) The fairy should not appear before human beings.

Chapter 186

Fairy Hunting 2

“...Haa haa, It’s only a dream...” (Mirelina) Fairy girl named Mirelina put her hand on her chest.

“Ahh, it was such a terrible dream... Just when I thought that I found a stray friend, it turned out to be a monster, and worse, next thing I have fallen into the hands of a human being, I wonder why I get such a nightmare... Geez, I felt so scared like a lifetime nightmare prepaid...” (Mirelina) Knowing that it was a dream, after catching her breath Mirelina started smiling.

However...

“Sorry, that was not a dream.....” (Mile)

A face of a huge human being appeared close to Mirelina’s field of vision. “Gyoheeeeeeeee!!” (Mirelina) “... Ah, she fainted again...” (Mile) Mile felt somewhat troubled.

“...Haa haa, It was just a dream...”
(Mirelina) Mirelina stroked her chest.

“Oh, it must be a terrible dream...”
(Mirelina) “Too bad, that isn’t a dream...” (Mile)

“Nuhi~yohohehahiberaba~!”

(Mirelina)

“Ah, she fainted again. Geez, I have enough of this already!” (Mile)

There was no clue.

If this situation repeats over and over, it will be night.

Mile have to proceed as long as the surroundings are still bright, and Mile frantically swayed Little Fairy girl Mirelina.

t “...that how it is” (Mile) “Then, you don’t plan to catch us, make us a spectacle, or sell us?” (Mirelina) “Of course! However there is something I want to confirm with the fairies...” (Mile) Although Mirelina was frightened of how big Mile is, but after Mile started explaining for a while, it seems that Mirelina finally calmed down a bit.

“You also don’t take our liver, don’t take away the Shirokodama? (Kappa’s imagination ball)” (Mirelina) “Why do you involve a Kappa here!” (Mile)

Apparently there seems to be a strange hoax flowing in the fairy land. It was libel. “It is said so among the fairy, that humans are doing that kind of thing!” (Mirelina) It’s not a lie. Because those things indeed happen in japan folklore.

And it’s also true that Kappa is said to be a fallen god or a kind of fairy. But as Mile heard Mirelina said those words, Mile raised a shout of anger. “No, no! It is a terrible hoax! It is a harmful rumor!” (Mile) “It’s this lineup!” (Mirelina) After ten minutes, the discussion resumed.

“So, I’d like to talk to the chief, elder or anyone else who is the most familiar with things from the past in your village...” (Mile) “I have no reason to take you there! Taking our liver and Shirokodama might be just our misunderstanding. But it’s true that humans had captured and sold us!” (Mirelina) “No, that’s wrong... wasn’t that [they had tried to capture and tried to sell]? Instead of [captured and sold]?”

A few decades ago, many rogues and merchants came hunting fairies in the forest. Before that, humans and fairies had a gentle coexistence...

And unlike how they are caution with Mile like now, the fairies from that time were kind and friendly with human beings, majority of fairies were caught.

“A lot of fairies caught, but for some reason, the carriages and tents of those who caught them were on fire at night, the captured fairies also disappeared. And when those humans finally returned to the city with empty hands somehow, their shops and their homes, and of those who ordered to catch fairies, rich houses and warehouses, all burned down with fire. After that, there seems to be no one dare coming to catch a fairy. Well, after that the fairies disappeared from human beings...” (Mirelina) Mirelina felt proudly as she heard that.

Indeed, the fairies can fly, are really small and almost have no sound when flying, they are the best race for spying.

((Oh, they can not be found easily... It’s an Essay (Yo ei) no, I mean faires (Yo sei-tachi) It’s the [Fairy (Yosei) mercenary (Yo hei) training (Yosei) request (Yosei)]... I need ~~an~~ more thing. Is it a slump...)) (Mile) [I need one more thing], even when she was still asking, Mile couldn’t help but thinking about pun.

“Anyway, no matter what method you use to torture me, I absolutely won’t take you or telling you about our hiding place...” (Mirelina) “I see, so the fairy’s village is hidden by some means. Thank you for providing information.” (Mile)

“Huh...” (Mirelina) Mirelina who is astounded noticing that she just gave information without intention.

“Well, even if you know that... but, there’s the magic barriers casted by everyone, no human beings can see through it!” (Mirelina) “Oh, it’s the magic of concealed systems. Then, there should be a magical response or a place with unnatural continuing of the scenery...?” (Mile) “Wh... what!” (Mirelina)

Mirelina mouth was opened wide as she lost her words.

“Tch, but whatever our enemies are, 47 people of my clan will never give in...” (Mirelina) “Ooh, your population... is 47 faries in total...” (Mile) “AAAAAAHHHH!” (Mirelina) Mirelina was on verge of collapse, noticing that she gave fatal information one after another by herself.

“But, we have that girl who was really good in battle, Yukikaze, the [Battle Fairy]!” (Mirelina) “Hmm, so she is a blizzard attack magician, according from her name. She is someone I must be careful with...” (Mile) “AAAAAAHHHH!” (Mirelina)

Is the fairy really such a foolish race?

Or is it the characteristic peculiar to this individual, Mirelina?

Even with the fairy that was called[Energetic fairy]Mile know from previous life on media was more intelligent...

Mile thought so, but it didn’t seem like this fairy would leak anymore information as she shutted up her mouth.

And now that it has begun to get darker, it would be troublesome to look for the hidden village.

But here is another way...

(Nano-chan!) (Mile)

“Yes... It’s came!”

(Nano-chan)

And the outer shell of the fairy type golem that had been stopped moving a while ago moved, it changed its appearance and color.

“Huh.....” (Mirelina) Even Mirelina shutted her mouth, she couldn’t help but raised surprised voice after saw it.

Yes, the new figure looked exactly like Mirelina. “Is the voice sample okay?” (Mile) “Help me! Help me!”

(Golem)

In respond, instead of an answer, a golem gave a voice that exactly like Mirelina. “Ah, aah! AAHHHHHHHHHHHH.....”

(Mirelina) Mile ignored Mirelina who shouted, trembled with a deep blue face. And Mile ordered. “Start!” (Mile) “Roger that”

(Golem) (Roger in English) And then the Golem flied again with a thread on the back...

t “...So, what should I do...?” (Mile) When the forest became completely dark, there were 47 fairies tied up beside Mile.

Yukikaze was fainted at the time the arm and threads came out from the monster looks like her friend, Mirelina’s back.

“Well, it seems like I don’t need to ask you to show me the [Fairy’s village]anymore, I guess” (Mile) In the middle, Mile forgot asking other faries because Mile is someone who enjoyed fishing, she was in a good mood and continuing to the end.

“Ah, I have to dispel the silent magic...” (Mile) Mile covered the surroundings of the caught fairies with sound insulation field magic, to prevent them disturb her fishing.

And as Mile dispelled the silent magic, the fairies became really noisy. “What are you planning to do?” (Fairy) “Release us quickly, this rotten human!” (Fairy) “I don’t care what happen to me, at least release my wife and daughter...” (Fairy) “Burn it! I will burn it all with fire!” (Fairy) “Die!” (Fairy)

...That was so noisy. It was extraordinarily loud.

“No, I told you a little while ago, I just want to talk with you, I hope to build a friendly relationship...” (Mile) “““““Don’t toy with us!!”““““ (Fairies)

Even though it was a friendly offer, Mile was scolded and mocked.

No, it's natural.

They were all suddenly caught and tied up, there was nothing [friendly relationship] about this at all.

Chapter 187

Fairy Hunting 3

And after a while.

The fairies finally calmed down and became quiet after Mile promised that she would not tell anyone that she met the Fairy here and will release them as soon as she hear the story from the fairies.

Mile brought a tent out of the item box and carried all the fairies into it and decided to listen slowly.

Fairies seemed a little surprised with Mile that could bring out the tent casually. “Undo these binding for us” (Fairy) A fairy old man who seems to be the eldest, perhaps he is the village head, said so. Of course, Mile can’t just go and do it.

Even though their body is small, but the fairies can fly quickly and even use magic. No, Mile doesn’t really worry about herself.

She was worried that the narrow tent would collapse and bury the[petit]fairies under it when she prevented simultaneous attacks and it would be trouble to capture again.

As Mile honestly explained so, the fairies were silent.

“No, I will finish soon! I just want to ask a story! So, please be patient for a while” (Mile) That said, Mile asked Nano-chan in her head.

(Can I block all of these fairies’ magic until the end of the story?) (Mile)

“If Mile-sama with authority level 5 instructed so, of course we will take precedence. Fairy species are weak because their body is small and the output of thought wave is really weak, which can be easily offset by Mile-sama thought wave in such small place. And apart from the ability to fly, they can only use a little magic” (Nano-chan) If so, it’s safe.

No matter how weak their magic, Mile can’t afford to let them put a fire on a tent nor let them burn the restraining thread.

(Well then, please do it) (Mile) “Affirmated!”

(Nano-chan) “Well, I’m going to get into the main subject, what I want to ask is about ancient civilization that is being conveyed among you”

“Huh.....” (Fairy)

The old fairy who seems to be the Village head was surprised. “Well, you know, [The country of the gods]...” (Mile) Behind the village head, the fairies are... not able to use magic, there’s no fire, they make a lot of noises, but Mile doesn’t mind.

“Yes, since I have already heard the story from the elves and Ancient Dragons so I know most of them. But I’d like to ask you about the story that is conveyed in the fairy tales, perhaps that there might be new informations...” (Mile) As he heard that Mile was already listening from the elves and ancient dragons, the village head was dumbfound.

Well, regardless of elves, he has never thought that there are human beings who can talk with Ancient dragons.

“...I see, in that case, I will tell you...”

(Fairy Head) “Village Head!” (Fairy)

“Mayor!” (Fairy)

Several fairies tried to stop the mayor, but the village chief shook his head. “There’s nothing that we have to keep secret.

On the contrary, both the gods and our ancestors would want to spread this story.

The short-life-span like human beings, after a few generation they quickly forgot about it.

If tradition could revive among humans, isn’t it a pleasant thing” (Fairy Head) ““““”“““ (Fairies) And the village mayor told Mile.

The story that was transmitted among the fairies who have a much longer lifespan than humans.

t ...And there wasn’t much achievement.

Mile has already heard most of stories from the elf side, Doctor Kulereia and Ancient Dragon side Beldetes, there wasn’t any change.

No, actually the amount of information was even less than those. Well, there is no help.

With this Mile has achieved her purpose for the expedition this time, meeting and asking the extent of information being conveyed among the fairies.

She has planned to do this in 5 rest days, now that it ended on the first day, it was good.

...And, the [Fairy friendship] was fun.

No, it would have been a nightmare for the fairies.

Yes, but she enjoyed her time and Mile was satisfied.

And then Mile looked at the fairies again, she suddenly realized. ((Fairy (Yo sei) of... larva(Yo sei)?)) (Mile) Yes, that was the (Yo sei)fairy's larva(Yo sei)... no, mini girl (Yo jo) "Will you come with me and become my Pe... I mean mascot? It's all-you-can-eat delicious food! To the extent that you become overweight and can not fly" (Mile) The eyes of Mile shone dubiously. "Well, what should I do?" (Mini girl) Delicious food, All you can eat, Fishing with the word, the mini girl(Yo jo) was wondering.

And then.

““““Who would let you take away?”“““ (Fairies) Mile was yelled by the crowd.

“Besides, what did you try to say a minute ago! [Pe... something?]" (Fairy) "That..." (Mini girl) "I tried to say [Pet]but... ah!" (Mile) Pe... , no, Mascot acquisition plan ended in failure.

“Well, I will release you now, thank you for everything” (Mile) “““““Huh.....”““““ (Fairies) Fairies seemed surprised.

Apparently, it seems that they think Mile will not keep her promise.

Why is that so?

Because if people can take the captured fairies back to the city, they can get as much money to live for life.

Human will not miss this chance. And then, Mile realized.

(Now that I think about, I did a little of a terrible thing, a monster with the figure of their fellow was broken open with thread and arms came out. It was a little wrong...) (Mile) It was not [a little]. It's only [a little] with Mile's common sense...

(But I left thing as it is, it may add bad reputation to humans even more than before... Bad, this is really bad! I have to do something, this is something unbearable...) (Mile) And Mile after thinking about various of ideas while moving her hand to release the fairies, was finally came up with a good idea.

As Mile put the tent back in the item box she... "Dazzling magic Release!" (Mile) Mile cried out so suddenly, but actually she commanded the nanomachines directly in her head rather than by the magic words she spoke.

(Ray refraction, scattering! Moisture condensation, cooling to crystallize, formation! Gravity neutralization, formation maintenance...) (Mile) Yes, it's been a while, [Mile · Goddess Phenomenon]

The water vapor in the air condenses and freezes, and the ice crystal forms a pure white wing on the back of the Mile.

On the head is a circle of light, and sparkling light particle...

“What, don’t tell me, True-Ancestor-sama...”

(Fairy head) (Eh? Isn’t this a goddess instead?) (Mile) Mile was slightly surprised by the word that the village manager leaked out. But, well, it’s not a big difference whether they thought she is a Goddess or a True-Ancestor.

“Umu, Ye had correctly inherit the tradition, I come to see if Ye are living happily.

It seems to be Ye had lived spectacular, I'm relieved.

Well then, may thy life fill with happiness!" (Mile)

(T.N: Thy=your, Ye = You plural Shakespearean English) Hi ~yun! (SFX)

And then Mile disappeared with optical magic, after saying the appropriate thing. And, for the fairie, it was just like Mile left.

((Alright, with this everything will be [The work of a mysterious L-size fairy, True-Ancestor-sama who did the terrible thing]It will also mean that the information will not spread to the human! It changed a bit from my plan to blame the goddess, but the result is Alright(o rai), Big Star(o rai do)!)) (T.N: L-size, Alright are in English/Katakana) And Mile withdrew triumphantly...

“Oh, oh, no way. To think that she had been watching over us...”

(Fairy Head) Trembling and trembling, not only the village head but all the fairies.

“However, it was really out of average (strange) that a human would keep promise, And she wasn’t really a human being but True-Ancestor-sama. After all, it wasn’t a mistake that human beings don’t keep promises... From now on, we must be more cautious to the human beings. True-Ancestor-sama may have done such a thing for that warning...” (Fairy Head) The opportunity to mend the human and fairy relationship was messed up.

マイルは まほうと剣を両方
使うので左はまほう発動用に
動きやすくしているせいです。

右は剣士 左は魔道士 みたいな。

まあ、午を つかわなくても
まほうつかえま
すけれどね、ま
あ、それはそれ...
